Gods Beloved Jesus Experience Of The Transcendent:

God's Beloved Bernard J. Cooke,1992-01-01 The Divine Goodness of Jesus Paul Moser,2021-06-24 Explores with a compelling method the distinctiveness of Jesus role as God s filial inquirer of those who inquire of him The Image of the Unseen God Hosinski, Thomas E.,2017-08-17 Jesus and the Quest for Meaning Thomas H. West, A new approach to introducing theology As God s self communication to humans Jesus is the key to the human search for meaning argues Thomas West He therefore introduces the practice of theology through Christology From the question of personal meaning and self constitution and their relationship to transcendent meaning and value he proceeds to discuss the figure and import of Jesus and then the ethical imperative engendered through encounter with him Fresh and clear West s book is an invitation to grapple with one s religious commitments especially in light of recent insights in biblical studies and Continental feminist and liberation theologies This new text will prove an engaging and effective introduction to theological thinking for both undergraduates and Christian adults The Essential Writings of Bernard Cooke Bernard Cooke,Bruce T. Morrill,2016

Godawful Andre Papineau,2004 Whether it s leaving home having children losing a parent or retiring we spend much of our lives passing through transitions and it is often very stressful to cope with changing circumstances as we feel lost confused and depressed sometimes even wondering Where is God in all of this But if we think of biblical journey stories such as the Prodigal Son or Jonah s journey to Nineveh as accounts of life transitions we can begin to understand the profound spirituality of our own transitions no matter how godawful the experiences may seem This enlightening book demonstrates how the hand of God yes even Godawful is at work in our everyday lives Each chapter includes helpful exercises and discussion questions making it an ideal individual or group study resource Andre Papineau writes about identity and authenticity with penetrating clarity He grounds the religious search and the human equation in our passion to be truthful The truth will make us free This book shows us how that is accomplished The sources used the stories told even the discussion questions are compelling Anthony T Padovano Distinguished Professor of American Literature Religious Studies Ramapo College Andre Papineau brings to this book his deep familiarity with the scriptures his knowledge of psychology and his common sense honed in a lifetime of experience With deep wisdom and perceptive insight he helps us understand better both important biblical passages and the transitions that occur in all our lives All pilgrim Christians can learn much from this book Charles E Curran Elizabeth Scurlock Professor of Human Values Southern Methodist University Andre Papineau is the maestro of the liminal emcee in the cabaret called Transition which is always open and whose customers are always edgy confused and desperate to get out It isn t simplistic psychobabble pabulum he offers here but hard good advice the kind grownups need in order to advance to the next grade Each of these chapters is a meditation on the strange and intermittently glorious thing called being alive Russell Shorto Author of Gospel Truth Once again Father Papineau has gifted us with a unique blend of theology psychology and biblical savvy He reminds the reader that life is a process and as such is a succession of transitions reflected in innumerable personal and collective stories Using this as a central template he takes the reader deep into the exegetical and imaginative core of several critical biblical events This is a book of inclusive theology in understandable and relevant story form Frederick R Gustafson Editor of The Moonlit Path Reflections on the Dark Feminine Andre Papineau is a Salvatorian priest and associate professor of pastoral studies at Sacred Heart School of Theology in Franklin Wisconsin A frequent lecturer on life stages and the co founder of the C G Jung Center in Milwaukee Father Papineau is the author of ten previous books including Lightly Goes The Good News CSS and is a member of The Abraham Group www.abrahamgroup.com He holds degrees in theology and drama from Catholic University and the University of Notre Dame

Constantine's Sword James Carroll, 2002-04-01 The monumental New York Times bestseller in which a Catholic explores the problem of anti-Semitism through Church history The Washington Post A Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year and a New York Times Notable Book In this masterly history Time National Book Award winning author James Carroll maps the profoundly troubling two thousand year course of the Church's battle against Judaism and faces the crisis of faith it has provoked in his own life as a Catholic More than a chronicle of religion this dark history is the central tragedy of Western civilization its fault lines reaching deep into our culture The Church's failure to protest the Holocaust the infamous silence of Pius XII is only part of the story the death camps Carroll shows are the culmination of a long entrenched tradition of anti-Judaism From Gospel accounts of the death of Jesus on the cross to Constantine's transformation of the cross into a sword to the rise of blood libels scapegoating and modern anti-Semitism Carroll reconstructs the dramatic story of the Church's conflict not only with Jews but with itself Yet in tracing the arc of this narrative he implicitly affirms that it did not necessarily have to be so There were roads not taken heroes forgotten new roads can be taken yet Demanding that the Church finally face this past in full Carroll calls for a fundamental rethinking of the deepest questions of Christian faith Only then can Christians Jews and all who carry the burden of this history begin to forge a new future Carroll discusses the history of Christian Jewish relations honestly touchingly and personally Carroll investigates his own prejudices as a believing Christian a former Catholic priest and a long time civil rights activist As he unearths history using all the best sources he also encounters emotions he didn't realize he had and shows how his historical journey was also a personal pilgrimage of faith

Suffering and Salvation Aloysius Rego, 2006 Suffering especially that of the innocent and those unjustly treated is a universal experience which has perplexed and agonised humanity This reality is especially a challenge to believers in an all powerful good and loving God Within the Christian tradition in particular because of the centrality of the cross and the crucified and risen One there has been a tradition which has hallowed suffering In this perspective suffering per se whatever its origin is mystified as a necessary prelude to salvation Is suffering salvific Are all experiences of suffering saving What is God's attitude and involvement with suffering In this work these questions are explored through the lens of Edward Schillebeeckx's later theology which is primarily concerned with the development of a contemporary soteriology Contemporary Catholic Theology Michael A. Hayes, Liam Gearon, 1999-03-01 The contents of this volume offer the reader a broad insight into Catholic theology Established as an indispensable introduction to six areas of study The Old Testament The New Testament The Person of Jesus The Church Christian Morality and The Sacraments This collection provides key texts from some of the most distinguished writers in Catholic theology today Contributors include Philippe B Tguerie and Claude Duchesneau Christopher Butler Raymond Brown S S Joseph A Fitzmyer S J Gideon Goosen and Margaret Tomlinson John H Hayes Monika Hellwig Aidan Kavanagh O S B Dermot A Lane Enda Lyons Vincent MacNamara Richard P McBrien Enda McDonagh Joseph Martos Robert Murray S J Denis F O Callaghan Timothy E O Connell John F O Grady Jean Pierre PrTvast Thomas P Rausch S J Jeffrey S Siker Daniel L Smith Christopher Francis Sullivan S J Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane, 2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying Models of Jesus Revisited John F. O'Grady, 1994 With this revised version of his Models of Jesus O Grady makes available a classic work that offers an extensive treatment of various models of Jesus that are not only possible but actual in the church today The author first surveys models of Jesus in the New Testament then examines six contemporary models of Jesus Spiritual Companions Padraic O'Hare, 2006 This book is written on the premise that knowledge of and appreciation for the religious beliefs and practices of other faiths can enrich our own lives The author is a professor of religion and theology at Merrimack College MA and the director of the Center for the Study of Jewish Christian Relations at the college Lord, Teach Us to Pray David G. R. Keller, 2015-11-13 Although Jesus of Nazareth was a devout first century Jew in the twenty first century he is often lost in the thickets of Christian theology reflection on the wisdom of his words and the busyness of church life But Jesus is more than words about Jesus What can we know about Jesus the Jew What filled his daily life Why did people come to him in great numbers At a time in the church's life when spiritual formation has become a priority it is rare to hear someone ask What was Jesus spiritual formation like and how did it influence his life What can we learn from Jesus life about spiritual formation prayer and our involvement in the needs of the world today Using one hundred daily reflections Lord Teach Us to Pray enables readers to experience Jesus prayer from the point of view of his Jewish life of prayer Reflections explore Jesus periods of quiet intimacy with his Abba his commitment to Sabbath worship in synagogues his participation in the great Jewish feasts at the Jerusalem temple and the ways in which his life of prayer became the womb of his compassionate engagement with the poor the ill sinners and the unclean in his society

Nickoloff, 2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli this dictionary includes nearly 3 000 entries written by about sixty authors all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in but not to substitute for classroom presentations or reading assignments Publisher

Contemporary Debates in Philosophy of Religion Michael L. Peterson, Raymond J. VanArragon, 2020-01-15 Lively debates on controversial and compelling questions in the philosophy of religion an updated edition of the bestselling title Building upon the reputation of the first edition the extensively revised second edition of Contemporary Debates in Philosophy of Religion features fifteen essays which present arguments on some of the most central and controversial topics in philosophy of religion from the discipline s most influential thinkers Considering questions of both emerging and perennial interest from atheistic theistic and agnostic viewpoints the book adopts the series structure which pairs essays espousing opposing perspectives on a particular question or theme in an engaging pro and con format Following accessible introductions to each debate the volume s new and newly revised contributions set the stage for thoughtful and lively discourse between philosophers in philosophy of religion and analytic theology Debates range from vigorous disagreements between theists and their critics to arguments between theists of different philosophical and theological persuasions highlighting points of contrast for readers while showcasing the field s leading minds in dialogue The head to head chapters offer forceful advocacy for some of the most compelling ideas beliefs and objections in the philosophy of religion opening the conversation up to students to weigh the arguments and engage in comparative analysis of the concepts for themselves Written to appeal to the non specialist as well as the professional philosopher Contemporary Debates in Philosophy of Religion is ideal as both a provocative primary text for coursework in analytical theology and philosophy of religion and as a broad survey of the field for scholars and general readers with an interest in the questions which underpin contemporary philosophy of religion and theology

Philosophia Christi, 2001 Centering Prayer in Daily Life and Ministry Thomas Keating, 1997-01-05 This book with its ecumenical group of contributors celebrates Centering Prayer as a common ground for Christian unity It marks the first time that people other than William Meninger Basil Pennington and Thomas Keating the three Trappist monks who distilled Centering Prayer from the Christian contemplative heritage have written in depth on Centering Prayer its benefits and effects in daily life and ministry There are pieces by

Thomas R Ward Jr Gustave Reininger Thomas Neenan David Walton Miller Paul Lawson Sarah Butler David Forbes Morgan Sandra Casey Martus and Jim Clark God So Loved the World Robert Spitzer, 2016-03-10 In this volume the brilliant Fr Spitzer probes in detail the major question that if an intelligent Creator God manifest in logical proofs scientific evidence and near death experiences who is the source of our desire for the sacred and the transcendental desires for truth love goodness and beauty would want to reveal himself to us personally and ultimately He then shows this is reasonable not only in light of our interior experience of a transcendent Reality but also that a completely intelligent Reality is completely positive implying its possession of a completely positive virtue namely love defined as agape This leads to the question whether God might be unconditionally loving and if he is whether he would want to make a personal appearance to us in a perfect act of empathy face to face After examining the rational evidence for this he reviews all world religions to see if there is one that reveals such a God an unconditionally loving God who would want to be with us in perfect empathy This leads us to the extraordinary claim of Jesus Christ who taught that God is Abba the unconditionally loving Father Jesus claims go further saying that He is also unconditional love and that his mission is to give us that love through an act of complete self sacrifice He also claims to be the exclusive Son of the Father sent by God to save the world and the one who possesses divine power and authority The rest of the book does an in depth examination of the evidence for Jesus unconditional love of sinners his teachings his miracles and his rising from the dead As well as the evidence for Jesus gift of the Holy Spirit that enabled his disciples to perform miracles in his name and evidence for the presence of the Holy Spirit today If this strong evidence convinces us to believe that Jesus is our ultimate meaning and destiny and desire His saving presence in our lives that evidence should galvanize the Holy Spirit within us to show that Jesus is Lord and Savior the way the truth and the life And our faith in him will transform everything we think about our nature dignity and destiny and how we live endure suffering contend with evil and treat our neighbor A Sacramental Life Bernard J. Cooke, Michael Horace Barnes, William P. Roberts, 2003 The authors of this volume have explored diverse aspects of Bernard s major theological focus drawn from them and directly and indirectly addressed them in a variety of topics BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Healed by Love Daniel Chowning, 2025-04-15 Find healing through the path of contemplative prayer which is God s self communication in love and awakens within us our own need for transformation God has planted in our hearts an insatiable longing to love and be loved that is to love God others and creation with the very love of God We know however from our human experience that we fail to love as we desire with all our hearts In Healed by Love Carmelite Friar Daniel Chowning urges those in need of healing to seek refuge in the spiritual doctrine of St John of the Cross The more we grow in love the healthier we become The doctrine of St John of the Cross is one of healing and transformation of the human person For him the path of contemplation which is God s self communicating love is a journey of purification healing and transformation at the deepest root of our being where we can love God others and creation according to God s original plan for us and grow toward the fullness of who God created us to be In Healed by Love those suffering in body and spirit may find comfort through the teaching of St John of the Cross and the path of contemplative prayer
