Some Thoughts on God and Other Things Jerome Gleich, 2016-01-11 Our cities states countries and seemingly the whole world seem to be coming apart at the seams While many of us live in relative comfort the wars killing economic strife lack of morals decency and just common sense take a heavy toll on our spirits and psyches But how do we as individuals overcome the enormity of hate prejudice selfishness greed corruption and all the other bad things going on in our world It starts with getting our moral imperatives back and it is no coincidence that our slide into unprincipledness is accompanied by less interest in religion and belief in God in our world However understand that this is not a book about religion or bringing you back to religion Religion like our governments corporations organizations schools institutions and even our science are corruptible fallible misguided and possibly worse The fact is that us and everything in our world our universe is imperfect flawed and finite This book is about trying to understand and accept that there is a different perfect infinite plain of existence and that there is a perfect being that dwells there And that can lead us into becoming more moral people and change our world
