Christian Movements in Southeast Asia Michael Nai-Chiu Poon, 2010 A History of Christianity in Indonesia Jan Sihar Aritonang, Karel Adriaan Steenbrink, 2008 Indonesia is the home of the largest single Muslim community of the world Its Christian community about 10% of the population has until now received no overall description in English Through cooperation of 26 Indonesian and European scholars Protestants and Catholics a broad and balanced picture is given of its 24 million Christians This book sketches the growth of Christianity during the Portuguese period 1511 1605 it presents a fair account of developments under the Dutch colonial administration 1605 1942 and is more elaborate for the period of the Indonesian Republic since 1945 It emphasizes the regional differences in this huge country because most Christians live outside the main island of Java Muslim Christian relations as well as the tensions between foreign missionaries and local theology receive special attention The Third Force in Missions Paul Anthony Pomerville, 2022-05-03 The Third Force in Missions challenges readers to recognize the indispensable role of the Holy Spirit as power for mission It confronts the Western mentality that ignores the miraculous in its missions strategy and the global Pentecostal movement Paul Pomerville suggests that such activity prompted and controlled by the Spirit is key to fruitful biblical missions When The Third Force in Missions was first published in 1985 Paul Pomerville sought to draw attention to the Pentecostal contribution to missions At that time he argued there was an information gap regarding the size of this movement in spite of two waves of worldwide Pentecostal renewal He argued that this gap existed because of evangelical bias against Pentecostalism bias against charismatics in mainline churches ethnocentrism toward Pentecostals in the developing world and faulty reporting Thirty years later Pomerville once again argues the importance of the global Pentecostal movement seeking to correct the ongoing tunnel vision of world missions programs which since the Protestant Reformation have tended to ignore the Holy Spirit's work in today's missions In this book Pomerville exposes the serious methodological and theological flaws of such a one-sided position Planting Churches Cross-Culturally David J. Hesselgrave, 2000-05-01 A practical approach to church planting that uses cultural and experiential data to facilitate the founding of new churches in unreached areas of the world A Worldview Approach to Ministry among Muslim Women Cynthia A. Strong, Meg Page, 2006-06-01 Four years in the making A Worldview Approach to Ministry Among Muslim Women is a ground breaking exploration into the way culture and worldview affect ministry among Muslim women Using original field research from eight different language and culture groups the book explores a variety of ministries among Muslim women and provides tools to analyze their effectiveness With contributions from scholars field workers and agency administrators readers are encouraged in a holistic Muslim ministry perspective through in depth studies in Muslim beliefs anthropological tools worldview analyses and explorations in strategic issues and discipleship The book concludes with case studies and discussion questions to provide a comprehensive training manual for workers and students alike
