Gospel-Centered Idolatry R L Coursey, 2022-10-18 Thomas Chalmers in his classic sermon entitled The Expulsive Power of a New Affection correctly ascribes subjective power to subjective affections for love does have an expulsive power whether one loves God to the despising of self or loves self to the despising of God But he incorrectly sides with objective justification full pardon and gracious acceptance as the power that creates love and the engine that empowers sanctification He is right to suggest that a new affection has expulsive power but wrong to suggest that the source and power of a new affection is primarily in the indicative benefits Jonathan Edwards on the other hand sided with regeneration for the obvious reason that without a new nature the natural man can only be constrained by outside considerations the indicatives to superficially walk in newness of life the imperatives Such considerations might produce change that rises as high as the outward performance of the Legalist but it is still only the superficial height that self love alone can achieve The Spirit's work of illuminating the higher glory and beauty of Christ to the soul is the only source of an affection that can be called new If the expulsive power of a new affection does not dethrone self as one's primary concern in life and theology then what exactly is being expelled by the power of the gospel If one's religion does not surpass one's primary concern for what's in it for oneself then one's self love may have an expulsive power but it will be the light of the glory of God in the face of Christ Jesus that is expelled by the power of self love The irony of the cross was that Christ was crucified by those who already had a knowledge of God's steadfast love and rejoiced in spiritual privileges The proper force and source behind the believer's love for God is not found in the objective benefits as they reflect upon the believer's high privileges but God's power alone as it is exerted in the soul by the Spirit imparting a new heart new affections and a new principle of action that did not exist prior Good fruit is produced only by a good tree and however constrained by outside forces a bad tree cannot be manipulated to produce fruit contrary to its nature

Finding Locke's God Nathan Guy, 2019-09-19 The portrait of John Locke as a secular advocate of Enlightenment rationality has been deconstructed by the recent religious turn in Locke scholarship This book takes an important next step moving beyond the religious turn and establishing a theological turn Nathan Guy argues that John Locke ought to be viewed as a Christian political philosopher whose political theory was firmly rooted in the moderating Latitudinarian theology of the seventeenth century Nestled between the secular political philosopher and the Christian public theologian stands Locke the Christian political philosopher whose arguments not only self consciously depend upon Christian assumptions but also offer a decidedly Christian theory of government Finding Locke's God identifies three theological pillars crucial to Locke's political theory 1 a biblical depiction of God 2 the law of nature rooted in a doctrine of creation and 3 acceptance of divine revelation in scripture As a result Locke's political philosophy brings forth theologically rich aims while seeking to counter or disarm threats such as atheism hyper Calvinism and religious enthusiasm Bringing these items together Nathan Guy demonstrates how each pillar supports Locke's Latitudinarian political philosophy and provides a better understanding of how he grounds his notions of freedom equality and religious toleration Convincingly argued and meticulously researched this book offers an exciting new direction for Locke studies
