Goethe Chaos Complexity:

Goethe, Chaos, and complexity Herbert Rowland, 2001 The present volume is the first to address the interrelationship between Goethe's scientific thought and work his ideas on art and literary oeuvre and chaos and complexity theories The eleven studies assembled in it treat one or more elements or aspects of this interrelationship ranging from basic concepts all the way to a model of an aesthetic scientific methodology In the process the authors scrutinize chaos and complexity both as motif and motor of literary texts and nature within various contexts of past and present The volume should be of interest to literary scholars scientists and philosophers of science indeed to all those who are interested in the continuities between the humanities and sciences culture and nature Seeking Meaning for Goethe's Faust J. M. van der Laan, 2007-04-01 Goethe's Faust Parts I and II 1808 1832 is one of the most important texts in German and World Literature this monograph offers a new original analysis of the text and its significance today The Early History of Embodied Cognition 1740-1920, 2016-01-12 This pioneering book evaluates the early history of embodied cognition It explores for the first time the life force Lebenskraft debate in Germany which was manifest in philosophical reflection medical treatise scientific experimentation theoretical physics aesthetic theory and literary practice esp 1740 1920 The history of vitalism is considered in the context of contemporary discourses on radical reality or deep naturalism We ask how animate matter and cognition arise and are maintained through agent environment dynamics Whitehead or performance Pickering This book adopts a nonrepresentational approach to studying perception action and cognition which Anthony Chemero designated radical embodied cognitive science From early physiology to psychoanalysis from the microbiome to memetics appreciation of body and mind as symbiotically interconnected with external reality has steadily increased Leading critics explore here resonances of body mind and environment in medical history Reil Hahnemann Hirschfeld science Haller Goethe Ritter Darwin L Bchner musical aesthetics E T A Hoffmann Wagner folklore Grimm intersex autobiography Baer and stories of crime and aberration Nordau Dblin Science and literature both prove to be continually emergent cultures in the quest for understanding and identity This book will appeal to intertextual readers curious to know how we come to be who we are and ultimately how the Anthropocene came to be Speculating on the Moment Nicholas Rennie, 2005 Ecocritical Theory Axel Goodbody, Kate Rigby, 2011-09-13 One of the more frequently lodged serious and justifiable complaints about ecocritical work is that it is insufficiently theorized Ecocritical Theory puts such claims decisively to rest by offering readers a comprehensive collection of sophisticated but accessible essays that productively investigate the relationship between European theory and ecocritique With its international roster of contributors and subjects it also militates against the parochialism of ecocritics who work within the limited canon of the American West Bringing together approaches and orientations based on the work of European philosophers and cultural theorists this volume is designed to open new pathways for ecocritical theory and practice in the twenty first century Confronting / Defining the Self John A. McCarthy, 2024-07-01 Early 20th century literary critics Joseph Collins Hermann Hesse and Percy Lubbock concluded that the pages of a book present a succession of moments that the reader visualizes and reinterprets They feared that few would actually commit themselves to memory and that most were likely to soon disappear As you turn these pages you will re discover the value of the literary canon through the Self My objective is to examine how the Self is formed lost and regained through creative strategies that confront and define its shapes and distortions on nearly every page of a canonical work You can consider Confronting Defining the Self Formation and Dissolution of the I from La Fayette to Grass as offering an apology for the study of literature and the humanities in an era when technology and commerce dominate our consciousness drive our daily expectations and shape our career goals

Science Curriculum for the Anthropocene, Volume 2 Xavier Fazio,2023-12-27 This edited volume the second of a two volume set presents science curriculum exemplars based on existing and future curriculum models Drawing upon complexity and systems theories this book will provide a framework for science curriculum that tackles and transforms the interrelated and socio ecological causes of our ecological crises The result is a refreshing and hopeful look at K 12 science curriculum in light of our current global trajectory in the twenty first century Chapter Future oriented Science Education Building Sustainability Competences An Approach to the European GreenComp Framework is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Changing European Visions of Disaster and Development Vanessa Pupavac,Mladen Pupavac,2020-09-02 Goethe s 1832 poem Faust offers a vision of humanity realising freedom and prosperity through transcending natural adversity Changing European Visions of Disaster and Development returns to Faust as a way of exploring the rise and fall of European humanist aspirations to build free and prosperous national political communities protected from natural disasters Faust stories emerged in early modern Europe linked to the shaking of the traditional religious and political order and the pursuit of new areas of human knowledge and activity which led to a shift from viewing disasters as acts of God to acts of nature Faust's dam building and land reclamation project in Goethe's poem was inspired by Dutch hydro engineering and in turn inspired others Faustian dreams of an engineered future were pursued by the American Yugoslav inventor Nikola Tesla and the country of his birth towards establishing its national independence and escaping the fate of being a borderland Faust remains a compelling reference point to explore European visions of disaster and development If Faust captured the European spirit of earlier centuries what is today's outlook Ambitious Faustian development visions to eradicate natural disasters have been replaced by anti Faustian risk cosmopolitanism sceptical towards human activity in ways counter to building collective protection from disaster Tesla's country of birth fears returning to being an insecure borderland of Europe This powerful and timely book calls for a rekindling of European humanism and Faust's vision of free people standing on free land Taking Stock - Twenty-Five Years of Comparative Literary Research, 2019-10-29 Read an interview with Norbert Bachleitner In this 200th volume of Internationale Forschungen zur Allgemeinen und Vergleichenden Literaturwissenschaft the editors Norbert Bachleitner Achim H. H. Iter and John A. McCarthy take stock of the discipline It focuses on recurrent questions in the field of Comparative Literature What is literature What is meant by comparative Or by world What constitute transgressions or refractions What ultimately does being at home in the world imply When we combine the answers to these individual questions we might ultimately reach an intriguing proposition Comparative Literature contributes to a sense of being at home in a world that is heterogeneous and fractured rather than affirming a monolithic canon marked by territory and homogeneity The volume unites essays on world literature literature in the context of the history of ideas comparative women and gender studies aesthetics and textual analysis and literary translation and tradition The Will To Create Astrida Orle Tantilillo, 2012-01-11 Better known as a poet and dramatist Johann Wolfgang von Goethe 1749-1832 was also a learned philosopher and natural scientist Astrida Orle Tantilillo offers the first comprehensive analysis of his natural philosophy which she contends is rooted in creativity Tantilillo analyzes Goethe's main scientific texts including his work on physics botany comparative anatomy and meteorology She critically examines his attempts to challenge the basic tenets of Newtonian and Cartesian science and to found a new natural philosophy In individual chapters devoted to different key principles she reveals how this natural philosophy which questions rationalism the quantitative approach to scientific inquiry strict gender categories and the possibility of scientific objectivity illuminates Goethe's standing as both a precursor and critic of modernity Tantilillo does not presuppose prior knowledge of Goethe or science and carefully avoids an overreliance on specialized jargon This makes The Will to Create accessible to a wide audience including philosophers historians of science and literary theorists as well as general readers The Philosophy of Will Anthony K. Jensen, 2025-09-30 This book argues that the history of 19th century German philosophy has neglected an important narrative the philosophy of Will It aims to reconsider the history of late modern philosophy in terms of the interconnected philosophies of Will of several notable thinkers Goethe Schelling

Schopenhauer Eduard von Hartmann Philipp Mainländer Julius Bahnsen and Nietzsche The book has four goals First it shows that philosophy of Will really was a tradition whose members were each working to put forward their notion of Will in self consciously critical dialogue with the other members Second it shows that the 19th century conception of Will is fundamentally different from the commonplace use of Will as a synonym for what propels intentional or motivated human agency Each figure considers their specific formulation of Will to be in some sense the essence of reality Will is dynamic growth in the natural world expresses itself in artistic creativity impresses on us our existential condition is the lever of history and is the wellspring from which moral values are drawn Third by focusing on these philosophers of Will this book reveals a clearer interrelation between philosophy and the wider history of German intellectual culture than has typically been done Will theory bears immediate connection to the day's reigning issues in politics art psychology historiography and the natural sciences Finally it aims to reexamine these thinkers position in the history of philosophy Some like Goethe have long been on the periphery of mainstream philosophy Some like Hartmann Mainländer and Bahnsen have long been forgotten And some like Nietzsche have been characterized as more a radical innovator and less a critical respondent to the tradition of Will philosophy A complex yet lively contribution to the history of philosophical ideas The Philosophy of Will is essential reading for scholars and graduate students interested in German systematic metaphysics and more broadly anyone interested in the intellectual history of late modern philosophy science epistemology aesthetics politics and ethics

Thinking Complexity Paul Cilliers, 2007 This volume examines the impact of complexity theory on various disciplines especially the area of philosophy Philosophy Jung and the Question of Science Raya A. Jones, 2013-12-17 Jung and the Question of Science brings to the foreground a controversial issue at the heart of contemporary Jungian studies The perennial debate echoes Jung's own ambivalence While Jung defined his analytical psychology as a science he was aware that it did not conform to the conventional criteria for a scientific study in general psychology This ambivalence is carried into twenty first century analytical psychology as well as affecting perceptions of Jung in the academia Here eight scholars and practitioners have pooled their expertise to examine both the history and present day ramifications of the science issue in the Jungian context Behind the question of whether it is scientific or not there lie deeper issues the credibility of Jung's theory personal identity as a Jungian and conceptions of science wisdom and truth The book comprises a collection of erudite essays Part I and linked dialogues in which the authors discuss each other's ideas Part II The authors of Jung and the Question of Science share the conviction that the question of science is important but differ in their understanding of its applicability Drawing upon their different backgrounds the authors integrate Jung's insights with bodies of knowledge as diverse as neuroscience literary theory theology and political science Clinical practitioners psychoanalysts psychologists scholars and students interested in the Jungian perspective and the philosophy of science will find this book to be insightful and valuable philosophy film music and culture from the Middle Ages to the twenty first century Mountains have always stirred the human imagination playing a crucial role in the cultural evolution of peoples around the globe and becoming infused with meaning in the process Beyond their geographical geological significance mountains affect the topography of the mind whether as objects of peril or attraction of spiritual enlightenment or existential fulfillment of philosophical contemplation or aesthetic inspiration This volume challenges the oversimplified assumption that human interaction with mountains is a distinctly modern development one that began with the empowerment of the individual in the wake of Enlightenment rationalism and Romantic subjectivity These essays by European and North American scholars examine the lure of mountains in German literature philosophy film music and culture from the Middle Ages to the present with a focus on the interaction between humans and the alpine environment The contributors consider mountains not as mere symbolic tropes or literary metaphors but as constituting a tangible reality that informs the experiences and ideas of writers naturalists philosophers filmmakers and composers Overall this volume seeks to provide multiple answers to questions regarding the cultural significance of mountains as well as the physical practice of climbing them Contributors Peter Arnds Olaf Berwald Albrecht Classen Roger Cook Scott Denham Sean Franzel Christof Hamann Harald H busch Dan Hooley Peter H yng Sean Ireton Oliver Lubrich Anthony Ozturk Caroline Schaumann Heather I Sullivan Johannes T rk Sabine Wilke Wilfried Wilms SEAN IRETON is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri CAROLINE SCHAUMANN is Professor of German Studies at Emory University Fundamentals of Complementary, Alternative, and Integrative Medicine - E-Book Marc S.

,2007-01-01 Practicing Progress focuses on the German Enlightenment in its dual manifestation as a cultural era and as a mode of discourse The volume s unifying theme is the promise and limitations of the Enlightenment as seen from the twenty first century Contributors deal with figures from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries in theology poetry and drama economic theory and music Included are such powerful critics of the politics of progress as Friedrich Nietzsche Hannah Arendt and Bertolt Brecht The volume is of particular interest to scholars concerned with the complexity of literary phenomena A variety of interpretive approaches yield fresh insights into the still ongoing project of Enlightenment

Theoretical Frameworks in Qualitative Research Vincent A. Anfara, Jr.,Norma T. Mertz,2006-03-24 In Theoretical Frameworks in Qualitative Research the authors provide extensive and practical coverage of theory and its role in qualitative research a review of the literature that currently exists on theoretical frameworks a clear and concise definition of what a theoretical framework is and how one goes about finding one and real world examples of theoretical frameworks effectively employed by some of the world s leading qualitative researchers The book will be invaluable to students and researchers who want to find detailed examples of their design options and who are still working through the various frameworks they could employ Ecological Thought in German Literature and Culture Gabriele Duerbeck,Urte Stobbe,Hubert Zapf,Evi Zemanek,2017-10-16

The volume offers a survey of the contribution of German literature and culture to the evolution of ecological thought As the field of ecocritical theory and practice is rapidly expanding towards transnational and global dimensions it seems nevertheless necessary to consider the distinct manifestations of ecological thought in various cultures In this sense the volume demonstrates in twenty six essays from different disciplines how German literature philosophy art and science have contributed in unique ways to the emergence of ecological thought on national and transnational scale The volume maps the most important and characteristic of these developments both on a theoretical and on a textual analytical level It is structured in five parts ranging from proto ecological thought since early modern times part I to major theoretical approaches part II environmental history part III and ecocritical case studies part IV to ecological visions in different media and art forms part V The four editors have widely published and are actively involved in ecocritical literary and cultural studies The group of editors consists of two scholars of German literature and cultural studies Gabriele Duerbeck and Urte Stobbe both University of Vechta a scholar in German and comparative literature Evi Zemanek University of Freiburg as well as a scholar of Anglo American ecoliterature and ecocriticism Hubert Zapf All of them are involved in various projects and research networks on ecology and literature The contributors of the individual chapters likewise are all experts in their respective fields ranging from German literature history environmental studies art history music and art The book is a unique and readily accessible collection of essays that is of relevance not only for a German and continental European but for a worldwide audience
