 Puerto Rico, the largest island in the Caribbean, is 34 miles long and 35 miles wide. It is located in the northern part of the Caribbean Sea, about 100 miles from the coast of Central America. The island is surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean to the north and east, and the Caribbean Sea to the south and west. The island is divided into several regions, including the northern, central, and southern regions. The northern region is characterized by high mountains and dense forests. The central region is a plateau with rolling hills and valleys. The southern region is a coastal plain with low-lying vegetation. The island is home to a variety of plants and animals, many of which are found nowhere else in the world. The climate is tropical, with hot temperatures and high humidity. The island is a popular tourist destination, known for its beautiful beaches, historic sites, and vibrant culture.
