Education, Training, and the Urban Ghetto Bennett Harrison, 1970      Education, Training, and the Urban Ghetto Roger Harrison, 1976      Research in Education, 1973      Resources in Education, 1973      Report, 1971      School Desegregation Research Jeffrey Prager, Douglas Longshore, Melvin Seeman, 2012-12-06 The desegregation situation is the keynote theme of the following chapters I Each of them touches on a different dimension of the situation the historical the temporal the spatial But the reader perusing the essays with the situation in mind should remember that the desegregation situation should not be interpreted literally Authorities and adults certainly school age children probably are influenced by their awareness of a sequence of past and future situations Some may even operate with William James's 1890 p 608 notion of the specious present that has melted in our grasp fled ere we could touch it gone in the instant of becoming thus reducing the potency of the present situation Others may be dancing to a slower tempo of change thus becoming more responsive to the present situation Whatever the perceived tempo many must share the view that the future may reverse the direction of the past Some may see that new future direction as unswerving unending or long lasting others may see it as short lived And it is through attention to the phenomenological description of desegregation that these issues can be explored a theme that is considered in several of the following chapters      Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set B: Curriculum Theory 15 vol set Various, 2021-12-02 Mini set B Curriculum Theory re issues 15 volumes originally published between 1973 and 1993 and covers curriculum theory changes in curricula and the politics and sociology of the school curriculum

Employment and Crime James Wilson Thompson, 1982      Critical Social Issues in American Education H. Svi Shapiro, David E. Purpel, 2004-09-22 This text reader brings together powerful readings that critically situate issues of education in the context of the major cultural moral political economic ecological and spiritual crises that confront us as a nation and a global community It provides a focus and a conceptual framework for thinking about education in light of these issues Readers are exposed to the thinking of some of the best and most insightful social and educational commentators Critical Social Issues in American Education Democracy and Meaning in a Globalizing World Third Edition is intended to work on two levels First it helps readers to develop an awareness of how education is connected to the wider social structures of cultural political and economic life Second it encourages not only a critical examination of our present social reality but also a serious discussion of alternatives of what a transformed society and educational process might look like The editors goal is to deliberately engage readers in connecting the work of teachers to an ethically committed politically charged pedagogy The assumption on which they base the text is that educators must see their work as inextricably linked to the broader conflicts stresses and crises of the social world it is not otherwise possible to make sense of what is happening educationally What happens in school or as part of the educational experience reflects expresses and mediates profound questions about the direction and nature of the society we inhabit The text is organized thematically into five sections which address respectively social justice and democracy consumerism culture and public education marginality and difference moral and spiritual perspectives on education and globalization and education Each section is preceded by a brief essay that introduces the readings This Third Edition includes many new readings and addresses issues that have more recently emerged as especially significant such as concerns about the implications of globalization and the post 9 11 world commercialism violence and the ever increasing influence of high stakes testing This compelling text is relevant for a wide range of courses in educational foundations educational policy curriculum studies and multicultural education that address the social context of education cultural and political change and public policy

Why America Lost the War on Poverty--And How to Win It Frank Stricker, 2011-02-01 In a provocative assessment of American poverty and policy from 1950 to the present Frank Stricker examines an era that has seen serious discussion about the causes of poverty and unemployment Analyzing the War on Poverty theories of the culture of poverty and the underclass the effects of Reaganomics and the 1996 welfare reform Stricker demonstrates that most antipoverty approaches are futile without the presence or creation of good jobs Stricker notes that since the 1970s U S poverty levels have remained at or above 11% despite training programs and periods of economic growth The creation of jobs has continued to lag behind the need for them Stricker argues that a serious public debate is needed about the job situation social programs must be redesigned a national health care program must be developed and economic inequality must be addressed He urges all sides to be honest if we don't want to eliminate poverty then we should say so But if we do want to reduce poverty significantly he says we must expand decent jobs and government income programs redirecting national resources away from the rich and toward those with low incomes

Why America Lost the War on Poverty And How to Win It is sure to prompt much needed debate on how to move forward

People, Plans, and Policies Herbert J. Gans, 1993 The primary theme of this collection of essays is that the cities basic problems are poverty and racism and until these concerns are addressed by bringing about racial equality creating jobs and instituting other reforms the generally low quality of urban life will persist Gans argues that the individual must work to alter society He believes that not only must parents have jobs to improve their children's school performance but that the country needs a modernized New Deal a more labor intensive economy and a thirty two hour work week to achieve full employment Other controversial ideas presented in this book include Gans's opposition to the whole notion of an underclass which he feels is the latest way for the nonpoor to unjustly label the poor as undeserving He also believes that poverty continues to plague society because it is often useful to the nonpoor He is critical of architecture that aims above all to be aesthetic or to make philosophical statements is doubtful that planners can or should try to reform our social or personal lives and thinks we should concentrate on achieving individual public policies until we learn how to properly plan as a society Manpower/automation Research Monograph ,1969 Routledge Library Editions: Urban Planning
