Evangelical Theology Michael F. Bird, 2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure

On Being the Church Brian Haymes, Ruth Gouldbourne, Anthony R. Cross, 2009-04-01 This book re examines Baptist theology and practice in the light of contemporary biblical theological ecumenical and missiological perspectives It is not a study in denominationalism but rather attempts to revision historical insights from the believers church tradition seeking to re appropriate forgotten emphasis bringing them together in a revised ecclesiology The Trinitarian Dance Sharon Tam,2015-02-02 The Trinitarian Dance presents a model of leadership development based on the Holy Trinity Part one analyzes the present state of the cultural and ecclesiastical situation in Canada identifying specific trends and aspects relating to the need for development of effective leadership in the church This section sets the stage for Part two where a theology of trinitarian leadership is developed based on the dynamic of perichoresis with the motif of a dance used to present a paradigm of transformational leadership Part three offers church based strategies for leadership development concluding with a creative application of the doxological formula that captures the thrust of the entire book and leads it to a finale that includes a benediction of hope for the church through this leadership model Evangelical Dictionary of Theology (Baker Reference Library) Walter A.

Elwell,2001-05-01 Fifteen years after its original publication comes a thoroughly revised edition of the Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Every article from the original edition has been revisited With some articles being removed others revised and many new articles added the result is a completely new dictionary covering systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics Exclusion & Embrace Miroslav Volf,2010-03-01 Life at the end of the twentieth century presents us with a disturbing reality Otherness the simple fact of being different in some way has come to be defined as in and of itself evil Miroslav Volf contends that if the healing word of the gospel is to be heard today Christian theology must find ways of speaking that address the hatred of the other Reaching back to the New Testament metaphor of salvation as reconciliation Volf proposes the idea of embrace as a theological response to the problem of exclusion Increasingly we see that exclusion has become the primary sin skewing our perceptions of reality and causing us to react out of fear and anger to all those who are not within our ever narrowing circle In light of this Christians must learn that salvation comes not only as we are reconciled to God and not only as we learn to live with one another but as we take the dangerous and costly step of opening ourselves to the other of enfolding him or her in the same embrace with which we have been enfolded by God

Evangelicalism and Karl Barth Phillip R. Thorne,1995-01-01 This long standing series provides the guild of religion scholars a venue for publishing aimed primarily at colleagues It includes scholarly monographs revised dissertations Festschriften conference papers and translations of ancient and medieval documents Works cover the sub disciplines of biblical studies history of Christianity history of religion theology and ethics Festschriften for Karl Barth Donald W Dayton James Luther Mays Margaret R Miles and Walter Wink are among the seventy five volumes that have been published Contributors include C K Barrett Francois Bovon Paul S Chung Marie Helene Davies Frederick Herzog Ben F Meyer Pamela Ann Moeller Rudolf Pesch D Z Phillips Rudolf Schnackenburgm Eduard Schweizer John Vissers Deification in Eastern Orthodox Theology Emil Bartos,2007-01-01 In recent years Eastern Orthodox thought has had an increasing influence on key aspects of contemporary Western Christian thought particularly as regards the doctrine of the Trinity and mystical spirituality However the foundations and fundamental presuppositions of Eastern Christianity's theological system have remained largely unstudied and thus unknown in the West In this important study Emil Bartos examines the doctrine of deification which provides the conceptual basis for the way Staniloae and other Orthodox theologians understand the major doctrines of the Christian faith The idea that God became man that man might become God sounds almost heretical to many Western ears yet this affirmation is repeated countless times in the writings of the Eastern Fathers Beginning with the apophaticism that lies at the heart of Eastern theology Bartos examines each of the key doctrines of anthropology christology soteriology and ecclesiology as they relate to deification in Staniloae's thought Bartos study represents not merely a contribution to contemporary dialogue between Eastern and Western theologians but also a much needed introduction to an aspect of Christian thought down the centuries that is largely neglected in the Christian West

When Evil Strikes Sunday Bobai Agang, 2016-06-22 Human hostility is not the narrative of a selected few Since the fall of the grandparents of the human family Adam and Eve all humans have continued to participate in the reality of evil Accordingly the question is no longer whether evil will strike but rather when evil strikes how should humans particularly Christians respond to it This book offers a relevant and effective theology and ethics for addressing the issue of Christian response to violence in Nigeria and beyond It situates the whole gamut of the reign of human hostility in its various manifestations self interest and greed for power deception and social injustices governmental official corruption terrorism and so on It encourages humans to take seriously both the fact of God creating humans good and the fall serving as the gateway of evil into the human race It recognizes the complexity of human problems Yet it offers possibility for just peacemaking In spite of the horrific violence across the globe humans are still able to do tremendous good Thus the book recognizes the paradox of humanity humans are capable of doing tremendous good and equally capable of doing tremendous evil

It: Identity Trespass Dr. Jacqueline DeLaney, 2016-01-30 Every human being has an innate call to be truly known as significant and loved by others God has created and set this longing within us to be known for who we are Knowing you is to know that your identity is in Jesus Christ because you were created in God's image An individual's lack of this knowledge can result in a sociopsychological identity crisis and role confusion as characterized by social psychologist Erik Erikson To know your identity is to know whose you are and how you came to be you Therefore much of our emotional pain turmoil and dysfunctions in our personal lives are predicated on not knowing our true identity Essentially we make an effort to behave according to our self concept and self esteem which are based on the versions of reactions we have received from others Consequently self esteem points toward the distinction between one's perceived self concept and with one's ideal self Our sense of worth is initially tremendously impacted during our early years because we develop a vision of ourselves through the expressions we received by the significant people during those early years Loving affirmations promote good self identity and being rejected can be the basis for a negative self image later in life Due to such unprocessed emotionally trauma from our early years many of us experience deficits in core longings Also these unprocessed emotional wounds impact our relationships with God self and others Consequently we need the aid of a structure that promotes the truth of God esteem and to position us for emotional healing that positively impact our identity in Christ This book presents elements of a spiritual formational approach which incorporates the knowledge of core longings self fulfilling behaviors and emotional wounds into a personal healing structure that impacts our Christian identity

Scripture in the Theologies of W. Pannenberg and D.G. Bloesch Frank M. Hasel,2004-03-01 Scripture has always played an important role in Christian theology This study provides an issue oriented overview of the concepts of Scripture in Protestant theology from the 16th century Reformation onward It then sets forth the concepts of Scripture in the theologies of two contemporary systematic theologians W Pannenberg and D G Bloesch It analyzes compares and evaluates the theological and anthropological presuppositions that have influenced their concept of Scripture Despite fundamentally different starting points and other significant distinctions Pannenberg and Bloesch reveal surprising similarities This seems to suggest that for both the concept of Scripture is determined ultimately by presuppositions that are derived and shaped extra scripturam

Theology in the Service of the Church Timothy George,Eric Farrel Mason,2008 This title bridges the chasm between church and academy This volume celebrates the life and work of Fisher H Humphreys a noted Baptist theologian whose teachings and writings have shaped several generations of pastors missionaries and theological students Humphreys has said about his own life s work My theology is church theology I do thinking about God in the fellowship of the church Since 1990 Humphreys has taught systematic theology at Beeson Divinity School of Samford University following an even longer tenure on the faculty of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Written by Humphreys colleagues and friends the essays here illuminate various aspects of the theologian s calling from the standpoint of specific theological disciplines and from the intersection of theology with other areas of Christian life and thought In this way Fisher Humphreys self understanding of his own vocation as a theologian of the church is commended and the importance of thinking clearly and faithfully about God in the fellowship of the church is seen to be a vital component in the life of the faith
