Order of the Day Daljit Singh Jawa, 2016-09-21 An important aspect of any Sikh religious service is the reading from the Guru Granth or taking Hukam Nama. The Guru Granth Sahib is a hefty tome of 1 430 pages. Sikh tradition is that from roughly the middle half of the Guru Granth usually at the beginning of a randomly selected page or the previous page if the hymn started there one hymn is selected. This is read as the Hukam Nama or the Order of the Day. Clearly many Sikhs living outside the Punjabi ambience would have great difficulty figuring out its meaning. It Is the Same Light Daljit Singh Jawa, 2015-03-28 Sri Guru Granth Sahib is generally known as the holy scripture of Sikhism, the world's fifth largest religion. But this holy scripture is neither a storybook nor just the philosophy of the Sikh saints or prophets. It is more like a collection of divine revelations and hymns expressing the feelings of love and devotion of the Sikh Gurus for the Supreme Being along with the similar yearnings and longings of the devotees and saints from all faiths prevalent in Indian subcontinent during those times. The beauty of this 1430 page hymnal written in 22 different languages lies in the fact that while it spiritually connects the human mind to the original source of eternal bliss, it provides a very practical and effective way to live in love and harmony with other fellow human beings irrespective of their faith, color, caste, creed or race. The following are a few examples of the views of eminent writers and scholars regarding Sri Guru Granth Sahib. Mankind's religious future may be obscure, yet one thing can be foreseen: The living higher religions are going to influence each other more than ever before in the days of increasing communications between all parts of the world and branches of the human race. In this coming religious debate, the Sikh religion and its scriptures, the Sri Guru Granth Sahib, will have something of special value to say to the rest of the world. Arnold Toynbee, Historian. I have studied the scripture of great religions but I do not find elsewhere the same power of appeal to the heart and mind as I find here in these volumes of Sri Guru Granth Sahib. There is something strangely modern about these scriptures. They speak to the people of any religion or of none. They speak for the human heart and the searching mind. Mrs. Pearl S. Buck, Nobel Laureate. In Volume five of the It Is The Same Light series, SGGS pages 801-1000, author Daljit Singh Jawa continues his humble effort to share the beauty of the SGGS with those who have limited familiarity with the language, Gurumukhi, history or context. The following are some of the comments received on the volume 7 pages 1201-1430 of SGGS. This translation of Guru Granth Sahib is one of the best English translations in my view as it is in simple, understandable English. Each shabad's summary message is given; there is connection between the shabads to reveal continuity of thought process in Guru Ji's message. Thanks to S. Daljit Singh Ji for the great work which will benefit future generations understand Guru Ji's message easily. Amarjit Singh, M.D. University at Buffalo, Buffalo, NY. A monumental undertaking reflecting a lifetime of devotion to the Sri Guru Granth Sahib and to the scholarly study of its voluminous texts. Both its rendition of the original Gurmukhi script with accompanying English transliteration and its erudite commentary on each of the Granths many hymns mark this work as a stunning achievement which will benefit all serious students of the Sikh teacher who teaches spirituality is called guru Worldly teachers teach from the brain to brain The guru teaches the soul from soul Guru is a mentor as well It is telepathic transformation Make your own judgment When God felt lonely he created the creation He started caring for it Doing so he got attached to it and fell in love God set love as prerequisite to realize him The Creation is a testament to it Mind is a thought processing system Spirituality is a study of the mind Divinity is a state of mind Spirituality is a rehearsal of the mind to miss God and it straightens following gurus teaching Sometimes it helps to follow the teachings of prophets or saints But they have died long ago So it has very little effect because the spirituality is learned telepathically from mind to mind from a living guru The mind does not tune to spirituality without the gurus blessing It can only be learnt by self surrendering It cannot be forced into the devotees mind It can be learned from a spiritual teacher through love humility and dedication God is great Everything created by God is also great So everything in the world is flawless and beautiful To stay abreast with Creation God assimilated himself in everything That is why God is called omnipresent God created his creations including human beings God abides in everything So God has mothers love and motherly relation with his subjects The subjects also have motherly relation with God God wants us to realize him and we also want to merge with him to end separation I do not know much about other species but man has instinct to go back and merge with the entity he separated from So it is a mother child relationship There are many types of faiths procedures and processes people use to find a way to go back to him We assume that God is one Therefore the final process to realize him also must be one only Finally all processes merge and end up in one that is to learn from a learned master the guru The world is a terrifying world ocean The being is on one side of it and godliness or to merge with God is on the other side of the ocean Gurus teaching is the process to take the being across the terrifying world ocean It is a lot easier to learn from a teacher than your own I was fortunate to meet my guru and become his devotee and follow his teaching and advice At the same time I started to read and contemplate the Sikh religious scripture Siree Guru Granth Sahib It is a spiritual book only It has no stories that a person has to learn from Writing in SGGS is by living saints and it emphasizes that guru is God One will have to console with guru to console with God Other important criteria to realize God is selfless love humility and dedication mentioned in SGGS Most harmful events from becoming divine are duality and slander I learned from my guru and from reading SGGS I decided my path and I follow it under my gurus guidance and following the teachings of SGGS Both have same message and advice God is the highest power in the universe In order to miss him recitation and repetition are necessary So there is lot of repetition about praising God in this book To understand this book the reader has to tune his mind to soul searching Some people follow other systems I have no opinion or knowledge about it It is a lifelong process Life is too short to learn on your own He who puts his feet on two boats does not cross the water doing so As they say a guest at many homes at the same time remains hungry It is my humble request to follow one path whatever pleases you     The Evening Prayers Rahras Sahib and Kirtan Sohila ,2003     Six World Faiths W.
