God Society And The Human Person:

The Human Person and Society Dasheng Zhu, Xiping Jin, George F. McLean, 1997      Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, 2024-03-19 This Compendium is a unique unprecedented document in the history of the Church It serves as a tool to inspire and guide the faithful who are faced daily with moral and pastoral challenges Parts include God's plan of love for humanity The family the vital cell of society Social doctrine and ecclesial action For a civilization of love Index of references Analytical index      Human Person, Society and State Paul David Devanandan, M. M. Thomas, 1957      Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church Catholic Church. Pontificium Consilium de Iustitia et Pace, 2004 This unique unprecedented document in the history of the Church serves as a tool to inspire and guide the faithful who are faced with moral and pastoral challenges      An Anthropological Defense of God Lloyd E. Sandelands, 2017-09-08 Anthropology the study of man is unlike every other study because humans are its subject And because we are its subject we cannot manage the philosophic and emotional distance necessary to see clearly Unable to stand apart from ourselves to comprehend our own truth we are compelled to assume things about ourselves that we cannot prove In a word anthropology begins in faith Lloyd Sandelands approaches the anthropological quest for God by comparing the faiths of modern social science and of the Christian church Sandelands describes the social scientific faith articulated by Hume Kant Rousseau Schopenhauer among others as an imagined state of nature that sees the individual as solitary self sufficient and contented By contrast the Christian faith unites us as male and female persons in one flesh before God The challenge in the author's view is to decide which faith to build our lives upon Sandelands poses questions about the basic terms of human study what is a person and what is society and how do the different metaphysics of science and Church lead to different anthropologies A worthwhile anthropology must address the questions of what constitutes human freedom desire and the nature of the good Comparing the answers given by science and by the church he finds that the one paradoxically denies freedom denies want and denies the good while the other affirms freedom affirms want and affirms the good Between these two anthropologies he finds there is but one true study of man A companion to Sandelands Man and Nature in God his most recent book An Anthropological Defense of God attempts to establish that an anthropology in God succeeds where an anthropology in science fails Such success is measured not only by its ideas and findings about man but even more by its wisdom in teaching us how to live      The Holy See, Social Justice, and International Trade Law Rev. Dr. Alphonsus Ihuoma, 2018-06-30 The Holy See Social Justice and International Trade Law Assessing the Social Mission of the Catholic Church in the GATT WTO System highlights the uniqueness of the Catholic Church as the foremost institution in the world that can confront issues in world trade that affect the common good The distinguished author Rev Dr Alphonsus Ihuoma provides a superbly broad and deep examination that is both scholarly and practical of the mission of the Catholic Church in the world as one that centers on the temporal and eternal needs of humanity His discussion treats thoughtfully the mediatory role of the church in world affairs and argues persuasively that the church has been engaged in this role since its very beginning even before nations embraced organized politics two thousand years ago This remarkable book is a great tool for any reader seeking to know more about the unique position of the church in world affairs especially in the GATT WTO system The book rightly lauds the church's achievements in history But it equally and rightly argues that the church must do more to address present challenges in the world trading system Readers will be enlightened by the treatment of the failures of the GATT WTO system in pursuing the objectives for which it was established the church's efforts to pursue vital related objectives and the need for her to do more

People's Journey with God Iv' 2007 Ed. (responding to God's Call for Love,justice & Solidarity) ,      Historical and Social Dimensions in African Christian Theology Wilson Muoha Maina,2009-01-01

African Christian theology has been developing for the last four decades The trend has been to focus on traditional African religions as a foundation for Christian theology While acknowledging the importance of African traditional religions to Christian theology in Africa this study argues that African history progressively changes and it is these changed and changing circumstances that theology is to address This work analyzes issues affecting Africa today and shows the social and political role that Christianity has to play in an African context This study views enculturation as a dialogue among African Christians their history and culture and Christian teachings Theological approaches such as anthropological liberation and historical are analyzed from the perspective of Small Christian Communities SCCs which are a recent development in African Christianity SCCs are presented as a concrete hermeneutical tool in theological analyses Further this work acknowledges the indispensable need for an authentic African Christology in an African Christian theology While critical of contemporary African Christology the study also suggests issues to be considered in the development of African Christology

The Johannine Gospel's Concept of Community Godibert Kelly Gharbin,2025-05-27 The Johannine Gospel's Concept of Community takes an interdisciplinary approach to contextualizing the New Testament in an African milieu which helps Johannine scholarship intersect with Akan anthropology and sociology through a tripartite frame of interpretation a narratological analysis of community oriented narratives in John the exegesis of the Akan concept of community encapsulated in their proverbial lore the anthology of inestimable information about the Akan conceptualization of communitarianism and an engagement between the two conceptual schemes through an intercultural reading The methodological principles utilized foster a cross pollination of ideas between the Johannine characterization of a community of God and the community concept present in Akan maxims This allows the Akan concept of communitarianism to enrich the reader's understanding of the text It also allows John's theology of community revealed in what Jesus epitomizes prescribes and proscribes for the believing community to serve as a form of discernible evaluation for Akan and other believers on the modus vivendi redolent of a believing community In the end it forces a redefinition of community replacing the anthropocentric individualistic and acquisitive elements that have typified the human community with a theocentric and authentically collectivist approach

Lonergan, Social Transformation, and Sustainable Human Development Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2013-01-29 Secular contemporary development discourse deals with the problems of societal development and transformation by prioritizing the human good in terms of vital and social values with the aim of providing the basic necessities of life through social institutions that work. While such an approach is profitable by promoting economic growth, it does not take note of other dynamics of social progress and development. Also, it fails to notice the consequences of development strategies on human flourishing, well-being, and happiness. Ogbonnaya argues for an integral approach to development by engaging in a fruitful dialogue between Bernard Lonergan's philosophical anthropology with contemporary development discourse as represented in select theories of development and in select principles of Catholic social teaching. It makes a case for social progress and transformation as emanating from human understanding. Also, it highlights the parts of Lonergan's theory that contribute to an understanding specifically of his treatment of bias and of the shorter and longer cycles of societal decline. In view of the reality of moral impotence and limitations, it considers the reversal of societal decline as possible through the supernatural solution of God's grace.

Sacred and Social Kenneth R. Himes, 2025 This book provides a theological treatment of a body of literature commonly called Catholic Social Teaching (CST). This literature is mainly comprised of papal conciliar and episcopal statements addressing social concerns from the 19th to the 21st centuries. What is often neglected in studies of CST, however, is the underlying theology that it presumes, especially the biblical and patristic roots that have forged a broader tradition of social thought than found in the more recent writings of the Catholic hierarchy. The book argues that prior to the documents of the modern papacy, there was already a rich existing tradition that shaped and informed a Catholic lens on social reality. Himes makes the case that the presence or absence of a previous Catholic imagination largely determines whether the later writings of CST can be judged successful in their teaching or not. Rather than an analysis of the recent texts, this book illustrates the theological basis for the ethical commitments in CST through a treatment of fundamental theological themes: creation, incarnation, Trinity, Body of Christ, that gave rise to a Catholic social imagination.

The Politics of God Kathryn Tanner, 2022-11-15 Thirty years ago Kathryn Tanner put forward a daring proposal. Traditional Christian theologies, she insisted, can be a source of political transformation rather than a sponsor of the status quo. Through a rigorous analysis of Christian beliefs in their historical, theological, and social diversity, Tanner connects belief to attitudes and action and shows how doctrines can relate to each other, to social systems, and to ethical behavior. Drawing on the theologies of divine transcendence and creation that animate and organize so much of her work, The Politics of God frees traditional theology from its captivity to unjust rulers and systems and unleashes its radical potential for liberation, empowerment, and the pursuit of a just society. This anniversary edition includes a major new preface in which Tanner addresses the changes in the social and political situation that have accumulated in the decades since the book's publication and resituates her argument for a new generation of theologians and activists.

The Vision of Catholic Social Thought Meghan J. Clark, 2014-04-01 The

Vision of Catholic Social Thought traces the emergence of solidarity and human rights as critical theological and philosophical pillars of the anthropology and ethics foundational to the development of Catholic social teaching Meghan J Clark argues that the integration of human rights and the virtue of solidarity at the root of the Catholic social tradition are the unique contributions Catholic thought makes to contemporary debates in ethics political and philosophical theory Building upon the historical framework of the development of Catholic social thought drawing deeply from the papal encyclical tradition and the theological and ethical developments of Vatican II Clark forwards a constructive vision of virtue and social practice applying this critical question of human rights on the international stage Acting for the Common Good Michael J. McGrath, 2023-08-08 The goods that we pursue in our lives are for us first and foremost goods that are particular and personal and thus goods that are immediate to our attention Not readily apparent to us are goods necessary for the flourishing of our lives but that can be attained by us only in consort with others and thus realized only through collective action Such goods are common goods The wider the good the more extensive must be the human cooperation to realize the good A stable orderly society and a habitable planetary environment are common goods that can be realized only in and through the cooperation of all for the benefit of all That all contribute to the shared good of the whole is a matter of justice social justice Acting for the Common Good undertakes the study of social justice in light of the common good this from the viewpoint of Catholic social teaching which draws upon the tradition of the common good that is articulated classically in the philosophy of Aristotle and the theology of Thomas Aquinas and in the modern day social thought and authoritative teachings of the Catholic Church Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition Jane Anderson, 2016-05-20 Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition gives an anthropological account of a progressive religious movement in the Roman Catholic Church that is attempting to reconcile religious conviction and reason and ergo modify the human condition Investigation is given to a representative group of this movement Innovative Catholics who are endeavouring to maintain the momentum for change which began in the 1960s and 1970s They now find themselves caught between traditional notions of religion and a secularised society while trying to reconcile these polarising forces to find a pathway forward While ethnographic fieldwork for this research was conducted in Australia this movement is to be found across the Western world The research is framed by the question posed by Jürgen Habermas who asks whether the democratic constitutional state is able to renew itself and recognises a benefit in learning from religion Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger subsequently Pope Benedict XVI responds by asserting the need for a common ethical basis and limits on reason This latter position however remains problematic for Innovative Catholics who are conscious of history and culture The research explores how Innovative Catholics who in taking the middle position inform this dialectic on secularization through their ideas and practices about the human condition Why Ultimate Happiness Transcends Human Limitations Francis Bestman Isugu, 2014-06-23 This book Why Ultimate Happiness Transcends Human Limitations is a Christological Philosophical Classic that is apt for its time
