God Desired And Desiring

John Bunyan

God Desired And Desiring:

God Desired and Desiring Juan Ramón Jiménez, 2000-07 The development of my poetry has been and is the development of an encounter with an idea about God the great Spanish poet and Nobel Prize winner Juan Ramón Jiménez wrote several years before his death An early twentieth century pioneer in the use of free verse Jiménez has always expressed himself through mystery and profundity The author presents a fervent landscape of primordial imagery in an attempt to restore mystical poetry to its rightful place in literature and art For anyone not familiar with the writings of this modern master these austere and radiant poems translated by the poet and scholar Antonio de Nicolás and presented alongside the original Spanish will demonstrate why Jiménez is considered one of the masters of twentieth century poetry To what may this writing be compared Whitman's Song of Myself comes to mind but it is not with any intention of taking away from Whitman's achievement that I declare a preference for the poetry of Juan Ramón Jiménez Louis Simpson from the Introduction God

Desired and Desiring Juan Ramón Jiménez, 1987-01 Desire for God and the Things of God Wyndy Corbin Reuschling, 2012-09-21 For many Christians spirituality and ethics are in separate mental and experiential compartments Spirituality may be understood as an inner experience while ethics is focused on decisions or positions on issues Both of these views reduce spirituality and morality in Christian faith and practice and ignore the centrality of desire for God and the things of God as key focal points for spiritual and moral formation These aspects of Christian formation must be located in their scriptural and theological contexts in order to understand more fully what God desires for human life This focus on desire provides content and context to Christian spirituality and morality We are drawn outward to focus on God and the good of others while we learn to embody virtues such as compassion courage self control gratitude humility and hope Practices are crucial ways by which we learn to incarnate our ultimate desire of love for God and for what God desires in the pursuit of justice and goodness for all creation In so doing practices enable us to more fully integrate spiritual and moral growth in the processes of our desire for God and the things of God The Supernatural Power Of Desire Makeda Charles, 2020-11-26 Reach out to God by desiring God afresh Position yourself for answered desires from God Cultivate fresh desire for God is the path to your next level in your relationship with the Godhead Have ongoing desire and intimacy with God

Wandering in Darkness Eleonore Stump, 2012-09-13

Only the most naïve or tendentious among us would deny the extent and intensity of suffering in the world Can one hold consistently with the common view of suffering in the world that there is an omniscient omnipotent perfectly good God This book argues that one can Wandering in Darkness first presents the moral psychology and value theory within which one typical traditional theodicy namely that of Thomas Aquinas is embedded It explicates Aquinas's account of the good for human beings including the nature of love and union among persons Eleonore Stump also makes use of developments in neurobiology and developmental psychology to illuminate the nature of such union Stump then turns to an examination of narratives In a methodological section focused on epistemological issues the book uses recent research involving autism spectrum disorder to argue that some philosophical problems are best considered in the context of narratives Using the methodology argued for the book gives detailed innovative exegeses of the stories of Job Samson Abraham and Isaac and Mary of Bethany In the context of these stories and against the backdrop of Aquinas's other views Stump presents Aquinas's own theodicy and shows that Aquinas's theodicy gives a powerful explanation for God's allowing suffering She concludes by arguing that this explanation constitutes a consistent and cogent defense for the problem of suffering

Rogers, 2019-04-19 The term extensivism describes my position regarding the doctrine of salvation Specifically extensivism believes that man was created in the image of God with otherwise choice God's salvation plan involves an all inclusive unconditional offer of salvation to every person reception of which is conditioned upon grace enabled faith rather than Calvinism's exclusive plan of a limited actual offer of salvation to only the unconditionally elected Generally it replaces the term non Calvinism These are the five primary objectives of the book First my considerations would result in a deeper understanding of God Second I will demonstrate that God salvationally loves every single person Third I intend to offer a precise and respectful critique of Calvinism's internal and biblical inconsistencies these are largely due to its commitment to compatibilism and unconditional election Fourth I will demonstrate that God's free choice to endow man with libertarian freedom is a more biblical perspective Fifth because a significant percentage of people who become Calvinists do not actually understand Calvinism I seek to present Calvinism and extensivism in language that is precisely and consistently reflective of the commitments of each perspective regarding God's sovereignty salvific love foreknowledge and man's freedom this so a person can make an informed choice about Calvinism The Thirst of God Wendy Farley, 2015-09-04 There is a rich tradition of wonderful women and other contemplatives who are great resources for thinking differently about Christianity They emphasized divine love human compassion and the radical possibilities of contemplative practices They were not afraid to criticize the church and indeed thought of their challenge as crucial to their faith We do not have to lose faith with the beautiful wisdom of this story of intimate and compassionate love dwelling among us and within us if we do not want to from the acknowledgments and note to readers To those seeking a more open progressive approach to Christian faith the Christian past can sometimes seem like a desert an empty space devoid of encouragement or example Yet in the latter years of the Middle Ages a quiet flowering of a more accessible positive approach to Christian belief took place among a group of female mystics those who emphasized an immediate nonhierarchical experience of the divine In this enlightening volume Wendy Farley eloquently brings the work of three female mystics Marguerite Porete Mechthild of Magdeburg and Julian of Norwich into creative conversation with contemporary Christian life and thought From alternatives to the standard violent understandings of the atonement to new forms of contemplation and prayer these figures offer us relevant insights through a theology centered on God's love and compassion Farley demonstrates how these women can help to refresh and expand our awareness of the depth of divine love that encompasses all creation and dwells in the cavern of every human heart The Desiring Self
