God Willing:

God and Goodness Hugh Ashton Lawrence Rice, 2000 Hugh Rice explains why belief in God need not be seen as a strange or irrational belief but can be a natural extension of our ordinary ways of thinking He suggests that we should think of God in an abstract way and he offers a satisfying account of the relationship between God and goodness Jonathan Edwards' Concerning The End for Which God Created the World Walter J. Schultz, 2020-01-20 This book is an exposition of Jonathan Edwards argumentation in his dissertation Concerning the End for Which God Created the World In addition to stating Edwards theses regarding God s end and motivation in creation this book identifies and discusses the assumptions of his argumentation analyses and explains its crucial components and explores its philosophical implications These implications include a version of exemplarism i e the nature of God s ideas for creation dispositionalism i e the characteristics of God which explain God s motivation and emanationism i e what God shares of himself with persons who have a living faith in Christ These entail a view of idealism i e a view of the ultimate ontological ground of the universe God s temporal nature continuous creationism i e how God sustains creation a version of panentheism i e how God who is infinite is related to creation from which God is absolutely distinct and occasionalism i e the nature of causation of physical events or states of creation These concepts and what they entail constitute a complete metaphysical system providing a thoroughgoing divine action understanding of the foundation of reality For Jonathan Edwards God s acting according to his plans for his purposes in Christ is fundamental to all things Were we to have an understanding of how the fundamental concepts of science mathematics and ordinary experience are related in reality to the God who acts for his original ultimate end in creation sustaining the universe while providentially guiding its affairs and working redemption we would have the opportunity to develop these as he had hoped he pointed the way for others to follow Obedience from First to Last Edmund Fong, 2020-03-18 Obedience from First to Last explores the theological significance of the obedience of Jesus Christ in Karl Barth s theology It does this via a threefold consideration of first the nature of Jesus incarnate obedience second the relation of that obedience to the obedience of the second triune person of the eternal Son and third the effects Jesus obedience has on our own obedience Barth not only affirms the pivotal role Jesus obedience has within the economy of salvation but by equating that obedience with that of the eternal Son s Barth gives Jesus obedience a pre eminent place within the immanent being of Godself The obedience of Jesus Christ is seen to have a co participatory role in God s determination of his own divine being that arises from the primordial act of divine election This notion bears on our understanding of freedom and obedience as divine freedom is expressed in divine obedience so it is with human freedom and human obedience The Causation Debate in Modern Philosophy, 1637-1739 Kenneth Clatterbaugh, 2014-04-23 The Causation Debate in Modern Philosophy examines the debate that began as modern science separated itself from natural philosophy in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The book specifically explores the two dominant approaches to causation as a metaphysical problem and as a scientific problem      Malay Court Religion, Culture and Language Peter G. Riddell, 2017-04-24 In Malay Court Religion Culture and Language Interpreting the Qur'an in 17th Century Aceh Peter G. Riddell undertakes a detailed study of the two earliest works of Qur'anic exegesis from the Malay Indonesian world Riddell explores the 17th century context in the Sultanate of Aceh that produced the two works and the history of both texts He argues that political social and religious factors provide important windows into the content and approaches of both Qur'anic commentaries He also provides a transliteration of the Jawi Malay text of both commentaries on s'ra 18 of the Qur'an al Kahf as well as an annotated translation into English This work represents an important contribution to the search for greater understanding of the early Islamic history of the Malay Indonesian world      Modern Iraqi Arabic Yasin M. Al-Khalesi, 2001 Introductory textbook for those with no previous knowledge of Arabic or Arabic speakers who want to learn the Iraqi dialect

Analytic Philosophy Without Naturalism Antonella Corradini, Sergio Galvan, E. J. Lowe, 2006-07-29 In recent years numerous attempts have been made by analytic philosophers to naturalize various different domains of philosophical inquiry All of these attempts have had the common goal of rendering these areas of philosophy amenable to empirical methods with the intention of securing for them the supposedly objective status and broad intellectual appeal currently associated with such approaches This volume brings together internationally recognised analytic philosophers including Alvin Plantinga Peter van Inwagen and Robert Audi to question the project of naturalism The articles investigate what it means to naturalize a domain of philosophical inquiry and look at how this applies to the various sub disciplines of philosophy including epistemology metaphysics and the philosophy of the mind The issue of whether naturalism is desirable is raised and the contributors take seriously the possibility that excellent analytic philosophy can be undertaken without naturalization Controversial and thought provoking Analytic Philosophy Without Naturalism examines interesting and contentious methodological issues in analytic philosophy and explores the connections between philosophy and science      The role of religion in shaping politeness during greeting encounters in Arabic. A matter of conflict or understanding Abdelaziz Bouchara, Bouchra Qorchi, 2016-07-07 Politeness is one of the very important issues in the field of sociolinguistics and pragmatics as it can be seen in almost every type of our interactions Since the evolving of the politeness theory Brown and Levinson 1978 cross cultural pragmatics has gained the attention of many researchers in this field However the Arab society has been far less investigated Therefore this book widens the scope of cross cultural pragmatics by investigating politeness in Moroccan Arabic and contrasting the behavior of Arab and German speakers with regard to one type of politeness namely the speech act of greeting Furthermore the implications of this study for foreign language teaching and cross cultural training indicate that politeness and face concerns in different cultures should be part of any learning process Hopefully besides being informative especially to scholars from other fields of intercultural communication research this study should contribute to raise the awareness of sociolinguists in particular with respect to the role of religion in shaping politeness in Arabic and to serious confusion and misunderstandings that may come into being when communicators from different cultural backgrounds cannot identify the pragmatic implicit or indirect meaning of their interlocutor's utterance

Free Will and God's Universal Causality W. Matthews Grant, 2019-05-16 The traditional doctrine of God's universal causality holds that God directly causes all entities distinct from himself including all creaturely actions But can our actions be free in the strong libertarian sense if they are directly caused by God W Matthews Grant argues that free creaturely acts have dual sources God and the free creaturely agent and are ultimately up to both in a way that leaves all the standard conditions for libertarian freedom satisfied Offering a comprehensive alternative to existing approaches for combining theism and libertarian freedom he proposes new solutions for reconciling libertarian freedom with robust accounts of God's providence grace and predestination He also addresses the problem of moral evil without the commonly employed Free Will Defense Written for analytic philosophers and theologians Grant's approach can be characterized as neo scholastic as well as analytic since many of the positions defended are inspired by consonant with and develop resources drawn from the scholastic tradition especially Aquinas

The Thought of Thomas Aquinas Brian Davies, 1992 Thomas Aquinas was one of the greatest Western philosophers and one of the greatest theologians of the Christian church In this book we at last have a modern comprehensive presentation of the total thought of Aquinas Books on Aquinas invariably deal with either his philosophy or his theology But Aquinas himself made no arbitrary division between his philosophical and his theological thought and this book allows readers to see him as a whole It introduces the full range of Aquinas thinking and it relates his thinking to writers both earlier and later than Aquinas himself

Kitāb Al-amwāl Abu Ubayd Sallam, 2003 Kitab al Amwal The Book of Revenue is the work of a brilliant legal mind Abu Ubayd al Qasim ibn Sallam provides us with an accurate record of legal precedents laid down in the first two centuries of Islam in particular those pertaining to the sources of revenue and the avenues of public expenditure The power of the book however lies in the method of the author and the analysis undertaken by him He gathers together the traditions of the Prophet pbuh the opinions of his companions and the views of eminent jurists and then subjects them to legal analysis that is unparalleled in Islamic legal literature This book now in paperback is essential for every student of Islamic law especially those who wish to master the art of interpreting and analyzing legal traditions and early precedents In the discipline known as fiqh al sunnah there is no book or manual that can compete with this outstanding work

The Christian Faith Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1999-01-11 The classic work of Christian theology which seeks to present the Christian faith in its entirety Schleiermacher was equally at home in the theological systems of Protestant orthodoxy and the new world of thought shaped by the historical and natural sciences and German philosophy He follows a confident course through the entire range of themes in dogmatics but leaves both the dogmatic task and the individual themes transformed by a powerful and original mind A new foreword by B A Gerrish summarises the dogmatic goals of The Christian Faith and corrects some common misreadings of his work

Oxford Studies in Medieval Philosophy Robert Pasnau, 2014 Oxford Studies in Medieval Philosophy showcases the best new scholarly work on philosophy from the end of antiquity into the Renaissance OSMP combines historical scholarship with philosophical acuteness and will be an essential resource for anyone working in the area

John Wyclif Stephen Edmund Lahey, 2008-12-08 John Wyclif d 1384 has too frequently been described as Morning Star of the Reformation and only recently begun to be studied as a fourteenth century English philosopher and theologian This work draws on recent scholarship situating Wyclif in his fourteenth century milieu to present a survey of his thought and writings as a coherent theological position arising from Oxford's Golden Age of theology Lahey argues that many of Wyclif's best known critiques of the fourteenth century Church arise from his philosophical commitment to an Augustinian realism evocative of the thought of Robert Grosseteste and Anselm of Canterbury This realism is comprehensible in terms of Wyclif's sustained focus on semantics and the properties of terms and propositions a linguistic turn characterizing post Ockham philosophical theology Arising from this propositional realism is a strong emphasis on the place of Scripture in both formal and applied theology which was the starting point for many of Wyclif's quarrels with the ecclesiastical status quo in late fourteenth century England This survey takes into account both Wyclif's earlier philosophical works and his later works including sermons and Scripture commentary Wyclif's belief that Scripture is the eternal and perfect divine word the paradigm of human discourse and the definitive embodiment of truth in creation is central to an understanding of the ties he believes relate theoretical and practical philosophy to theology This connection links Wyclif's interest in the propositional structure of reality to his realism his hermeneutic program and to his agenda for reform of the Church Lahey's survey also highlights Wyclif's rejection of Bradwardine's determinism in favor of a model of human freedom in light of God's perfect foreknowledge and also explores the relation of Wyclif's spatiotemporal atomism to his rejection of transubstantiation This is the first book length comprehensive survey of Wyclif's thought and will be of interest to students of later medieval theology philosophy history and literature

The Friendly Visitor William Carus Wilson, 1857

Is It God's Will? Brandon Ambrosino, 2025-09-09 From an acclaimed journalist and a rising star in theological academia a provocative book about human and divine agency in an era of political extremism climate catastrophe and rising violence In the wake of two foiled assassination attempts while Donald Trump was campaigning for President many of his supporters claimed Trump's survival was an act of Divine intervention and a sign that Trump was favored by God In his victory speech Trump alluded to this But his survival prompts other questions Why did God spare Trump but not the retiree sitting behind him Why couldn't God have spared everyone that day And if God is truly omnipotent why do so many children die in gun violence every year To award winning journalist and theologian Brandon Ambrosino these mortal questions provide us with an opportunity to explore the great questions about Divine and human agency especially in relation to human tragedy and a world that seems to be slipping into chaos In this powerful and searching enquiry in the vein of N T Wright and C S Lewis Ambrosino argues that theologians have been poorly equipped to confront these questions because many hang on to an omnipotent model of God Exploring the daily tragedies that so many of us must contend as well as a provocative and challenging reading of Christ's death and resurrection Ambrosino provides us with the tools to understand and process grief but also presents a refreshing portrait of less a God of power and more of one of persuasion who can still provide a residue of hope in a world gone wrong

Oxford Studies in Early Modern Philosophy, Volume VIII Daniel Garber,Donald Rutherford,2018-11-22 Oxford Studies in Early Modern Philosophy is an annual series presenting a selection of the best current work in the history of early modern philosophy It focuses on the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the extraordinary period of intellectual flourishing that begins very roughly with Descartes and his contemporaries and ends with Kant It also publishes papers on thinkers or movements outside of that framework provided they are important in illuminating early modern thought The articles in OSEMP will be of importance to specialists within the discipline but the editors also intend that they should appeal to a larger audience of philosophers intellectual historians and others who are interested in the development of modern thought

The Logical Alien Sofia Miguens,2020-01-14 Is our logical form of thought merely one among many or must it be the form of thought as such From Kant to Wittgenstein philosophers have wrestled with variants of this question This volume brings together nine distinguished thinkers on the subject including James Conant author of the seminal paper The Search for Logically Alien Thought
