The Second Chance for God's People Timothy W. Seid, 2008-09-26 For centuries the New Testament book of Hebrews has been interpreted as though it had been written for Jewish Christians in danger of lapsing back into legalism and religious ceremony This view is now being challenged by current scholarship Rather than attacking the Old Testament and Judaism the author of Hebrews praises the person and work of Jesus through a series of comparisons on which he bases exhortations and warnings to the present people of God Hebrews urges God's people to learn from past mistakes and failures and to take up the challenge in difficult times to live faithfully in the new relationship to God through Jesus God's Son In The Second Chance for God's People Messages from Hebrews Quaker pastor and professor Timothy W Seid encourages today's church to respond to the challenge of Hebrews first individually by progressing in spiritual and moral maturity and second collectively by being God's faithful people in the world In the light of ancient Greek language and rhetoric after having extensively researched Hebrews Seid interprets the text of Hebrews section by section in an accessible and nontechnical way while also illustrating and applying the meaning of the text for the contemporary church

The Moments When I Met God Jagadeesh Pillai, Beyond Spirituality and Philosophy of Religion There are many myths religions and beliefs related to God that are prevalent in our society Based on them there are temples churches mosques and many such places where one can feel the divinity of God Still knowing and understanding God remains a mystery Both believers and non-believers have a question about God's existence shape form etc Even if there exists a form how can one perceive it No one has seen nor understood his real form But faith in God is purely blind The reason is that everyone believes that there is an omnipotent and omnipresent power which is ruling the world People have different concepts of God according to me where all those concepts of God meet the
