Going Down In Asia And Other Shameful Moments:

Going Down in Asia Jon Olmstead, 2002-05-07 Turns in Life is a sarcastic account of 16 stimulating days through SE Asia along with over 45 short stories covering topics such as a father's Olympic disaster the hard times of puberty and finding a soul mate at a shopping mall During their brisk adventures through Japan Thailand and Singapore Jon and Alex learned many valuable lessons including why village women wear shorter dresses how to ruin precious film during a morning train ride and how to stay composed during a special massage You'll also discover why you may want to sleep with an ironing board on your next business trip how to spread the common cold at church and who ranked as the top 25 undesirable women of all time Turns in Life is a must read for curious travelers Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004

Perverse Taiwan Howard Chiang, Yin Wang, 2016-12-19 This book enriches and reorients our understanding of postcolonial queer East Asia Challenging a heteronormative understanding of Taiwan's past and present it provides fresh critical analyses of a range of topics from queer criminality and literature in the 1950s and 1960s to the growing popularity of cross dressing performance and tongzhi gay and lesbian cinema on the cusp of a new millennium Together the contributions provide a detailed account of the rise and transformations of queer cultures in post World War II Taiwan

Southeast Asian Plays Alfian Sa'at, Floy Quintos, Tew Bunnag, Ann Lee, Nguyễn Đăng Chương, Joned Suryatmoko, Jean Tay, Chhon Sina, 2017-01-25 The first ever comprehensive collection of plays in English from Southeast Asia Features work by eight playwrights from seven countries in Southeast Asia a region which is experiencing profound change Singapore Vietnam Malaysia Thailand the Philippines Indonesia and Cambodia Southeast Asian Plays explores the rich variety of dramatic work that is only beginning to be translated into English Theatre scripts are merely blueprints for productions especially in this region As elsewhere second productions and revivals are rare so publication is key to allowing play texts to find a wider international readership Topics include the global financial crisis sex workers traditional v modern values the role of faith in society corruption in high places and journalistic ethics The plays have been selected for performance Plays The Plunge by Jean Tay Singapore about the effects of a financial crisis An Evening At the Opera by Floy Quintos Philippines about a dictator and his wife Night of the Minotaur by Tew Bunnag Thailand about a man misused as a monster Tarap Man by Ann Lee Malaysia about a man wrongly imprisoned under the justice system Dark Race by Dang Chuong Vietnam about corruption in high places Frangipani by Chhon Sina Cambodia about the sex trade in Cambodia Picnic by Joned Suryatmoko Indonesia about the need to get rich quick in Bali Nadirah by Alfian Saat Singapore about the conflict between faith and morality The editors have done an excellent job of opening up our chances of reading and learning about plays from all over Southeast Asia editorial choices are significant for opening up spaces to voices which are otherwise heard less often All in all the plays are interesting for the ways in which they grapple with key concerns in their respective societies The Asiatic Frustration of Shame Bruce J. Gevirtzman, 2016-12-08 For decades teachers though underpaid were among the most respected esteemed professionals in the United States But things have changed As schools fail to meet the needs of a growing diverse population teachers have taken the hit Popular movies have sensationalized the power and potential of those in the teaching profession their hyperbole bordering on the absurd Bruce Jay Gevirtzman hands you the truth about conditions in America s schools His defense of teachers may be shocking but could awaken us to solutions that really work Asian American Identities, Relationships, and Post-Migration Legacies Jessica ChenFeng,Lana Kim,2024-10-04 Bringing together the personal and professional narratives of Asian American family therapists this book offers insight into the Asian American experience through systemic theory and frameworks individual and community stories and clinical considerations The Asian American experience is still a largely invisible and unknown one especially in the field of marriage and family therapy With a contextual lens this book highlights how understanding family migration legacies and individual generational status relative to time place and context is critical to doing meaningful work with Asian Americans Filled with thought provoking case studies and reflective questions chapters discuss the impact of stereotyping on mental health the historical and present ways that Asian American racialization invisibilizes individual and collective experiences shame associated with bicultural identity gender generational trauma media representations and more Each chapter bridges these ideas to clinical practice while concurrently centering the voices and experiences of Asian American therapists This book is essential reading for marriage and family therapists and other mental health clinicians who want to deepen their understanding of relationship with and clinical support for the Asian Americans in their lives whether friends colleagues supervisees or clients Asian & Pacific Short Stories ,2016-11-22 Readers of Asian two young New Zealand boys growing up in their own unique ways one through love the other through taking responsibility a Vietnamese mother who thinks she is a failure if she cannot breast feed her children a Japanese gentlemen whose aristocratic appearance conceals a rather different real life Longworth J. Russell Smith,2013-10-10 This is a coming of age story about a young man Carson Longworth who will come to discover he knows virtually nothing about what s happening in the world around him In high school his life consists of music dance dating and good times Set in the 1960 s early 1970 s when the Vietnam War is beginning to heat up Carson has not given a good deal of thought to anything beyond the here and now and much less to what is happening around him Having grown up under a lucky star he just assumes that he merely needs to exist and good things will happen to him Carson wrestles with his personal demons and the general inanity of the world When he leaves high school and attempts to tackle the world at large though he finds the relative freedom outside the cocoon somewhat more than he can handle Carson s relative world of plenty and his historical insulation from the real world contributes to the perception that he is aloof In reality he just doesn t know how to relate to people He has no childhood memories of any close friendships as he found himself in a new place every few years As such his outlook on life has been shaped somewhat differently from his peers This holds particularly true for his relationships with women He simply had little idea how to relate to women in any meaningful manner until he met Kathy

Wilkerson After high school Carson spent two academically forgettable but socially memorable years in college He was eventually drafted by the Army but joined the Marine Corps because he wanted to be a man an experience that shaped him indelibly His experiences in the Vietnam War helped create his antagonistic outlook He could not come to terms with the intent of the war nor the manner in which it was being conducted He found himself on the outside looking in He became contrary to most who join the Marine Corps a liberal thinker and a skeptic who became increasingly frustrated with the inconsistencies that he observed in the conduct of his fellow man He began even while participating in the War to question the intentions of his government and even those around him He became very much a loner as he simply could not understand what was happening nor could he reconcile the absurdities he witnessed While in the Marine Corps traveling from one duty station to another he spent a night in Little Rock AR He met a young woman who would remain at his side even as he tried to find himself She would come and go in his life but in the end she would be the one who would capture his heart and provide true love She had for him the essential ingredient that he had not been able to find in any person male or female his entire life They would both exert a major influence on each other s lives Carson would progress from a fanciful world of plenty to one of expected obedience then to a position of constant questioning As soon as Carson left the Marine Corps he returned to college where he became an honor student engaged in numerous causes earned his PhD then taught and wrote He took it upon himself to instill the Socratic notion of constant questioning He died a renowned author and lecturer Those around him respected his formidable intellect but were troubled by his sometimes commanding approach One who was not though was Kathy Wilkerson his future wife This supports the notion that this is as much a love story as a coming of age drama The Holy Bible ,1812 Big Asian Energy John Wang,2025-05-27 In his groundbreaking leadership book John Wang a top empowerment coach to Asian American professionals across Fortune 500 companies offers research backed guidance for Asian Americans to embody their most confident selves in business relationships and their everyday lives Asians today are smashing box office records winning Oscars dominating global music charts and reaching the office of vice president of the United States Yet studies show Asian American professionals are still less likely to be promoted to leadership roles and they struggle with self confidence and self criticism more than any other racial group With Asian visibility now higher than it has been in decades how can the new generation of Asian Americans finally step into our power In his book John Wang offers his unique framework for empowerment He is an experienced leadership coach to the Asian American community who can help readers in every area of their lives He has supported hundreds of clients from Google American Express Goldman Sachs and other global companies and his coaching videos have reached more than 25 million views on TikTok Through proven exercises and successful client stories he shows how cultural values like collectivism might make some avoid claiming credit in group projects or how deference to elders creates communication issues He sees Achievers and Fixers burning out and Chameleons or Invisible Ones assimilating themselves into imposter syndrome Instead of urging assimilation Wang will show

Asian Americans how to advocate for themselves on their own terms through culturally informed guidance Through his deeply relatable stories and his witty and disarming voice John Wang offers a bold moving insightful and practical guide Big Asian Energy aims to teach readers to identify their authentic strengths and values and to finally break through societal barriers Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience Sang Chi,Emily Moberg

Robinson,2012-02-13 This unique work presents an extraordinary breadth of contemporary and historical views on Asian America and Pacific Islanders conveyed through the voices of the men and women who lived these experiences over more than 150 years In 1848 the First Wave of Asian immigration arrived in the United States By the first decade of the 21st century Asian Americans were the nation s fastest growing racial group Through a far ranging array of primary source documents Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience shares what it was like for these diverse peoples to live and work in the United States for better and for worse Organized chronologically by ethnicity the book covers a panoply of ethnic groups including recent Asian immigrants and mixed race mixed heritage Asian Americans There is also a topical section that showcases views on everything from politics to class to gender dynamics underscoring that the Asian American population is not nor has it ever been monolithic In choosing material the editors strove to make the volume as comprehensive as possible Thus readers will discover documents written by transnational adopted and homosexual Asian Americans as well as documents written from particular religious positions The Color of Wealth Barbara Robles,Betsy Leondar-Wright,Rose Brewer,2006-06-05 For every dollar owned by the average white family in the United States the average family of color has less than a dime Why do people of color have so little wealth The Color of Wealth lays bare a dirty secret for centuries people of color have been barred by laws and by discrimination from participating in government wealth building programs that benefit white Americans This accessible book published in conjunction with one of the country s leading economics education organizations makes the case that until government policy tackles disparities in wealth not just income the United States will never have racial or economic justice Written by five leading experts on the racial wealth divide who recount the asset building histories of Native Americans Latinos African Americans Asian Americans and European Americans this book is a uniquely comprehensive multicultural history of American wealth With its focus on public policies how for example many post World War II GI Bill programs helped whites only The Color of Wealth is the first book to demonstrate the decisive influence of government on Americans net worth Racial Exhaustion Ralina L.

Joseph,2025-12-02 How to build stamina to confront racial exhaustion and communicate differently about race In the wake of diversity equity and inclusion initiatives many Americans regardless of race find themselves exhausted by conversations about race and racism People of color continue to bear the weight of systemic racism while also shouldering the burden of explaining and confronting daily microaggressions White people whether allies or skeptics often feel defensive fatigued or uncertain about how to engage in discussions about race Across the spectrum the result is the same exhaustion Drawing from her experience running Interrupting Privilege a racial dialogue program Ralina Joseph blends personal narrative real world dialogue and critical race scholarship to explore how we communicate race today and how we can do better Through practices of deep listening embracing discomfort and interrupting microaggressions this book guides readers in transforming everyday interactions into opportunities for anti racist change Racial Exhaustion challenges us to recognize and address the fatigue that racial discourse brings while offering practical strategies to foster more equitable and productive conversations

Asian American Literature Elaine Kim,1982 An introduction to the literary works of Chinese Americans Japanese Americans Filipino Americans and Korean Americans this book focuses on the self images and social contexts of the nineteenth century immigrants their descendants and the Americanized writers of today Although the book examines the novels autobiographies poems and plays themselves the social history of Asians in American is a significant backdrop as Maxine Hong Kingston herself argues it should be These racially distinctive Americans have confronted in their lives and writings American stereotypes of the Oriental racial discrimination and the cultural gulf between East and West After a chapter on Fu Manchu Charlie Chan and other Anglo American caricatures of Asians the author turns to a discussion of the first immigrant writers many of whom were educated aristocrats playing the role of cultural ambassadors and then to the less privileged more socially critical generations of writers who followed From works like Flower Drum Song Eat a Bowl of Tea The Woman Warrior China Men and a host of lesser known writings the author shows how portrayals of Chinatown the Japanese American family and the roles of all the Asian American women and men have changed Drawing on her personal interviews with Asian American writers Kim also conveys their attitudes towards their own group other Asian Americans other racial minorities and white Americans a complex mix of bitterness acceptance and militance Author note Elaine H Kim is Associate Professor of Ethnic Studies at the University of California Berkeley She directs the Korean Community Center of Oakland and Asian Women United California

A Sin and a Shame Victoria Christopher Murray,2007-05-22 After breaking up her best friend s marriage by seducing her husband Jasmine Larson takes up an insincere Christian lifestyle in New York becomes engaged to a minister and discovers she is pregnant with another man s child

Passport to Shame Sam Louie,2024-01-09 A psychotherapist s candid memoir of addiction and recovery exploring the intersection of Asian culture mental health and assimilating into American culture as an ethnic minority Sam Louie grew up torn between cultures as part of a first generation Chinese immigrant family from Hong Kong living in a predominantly African American neighborhood in the United States He experienced the duality of existence with the tension of two vastly different worldviews his identity intertwined with the country he lives in and his ancestral ties What traditions and cultural beliefs get preserved what gets discarded and what gets lost in translation Beneath it all was the presence of three generations of addiction trauma and shame In this bold insightful book he documents the challenges of immigrant experiences and how maladaptive coping mechanisms in the form of compulsive behaviors were a means to gain a sense of adequacy due to the cultural tide of shame and ostracism within his own ethnic heritage and the external world Louie's journey of resiliency in navigating multiple cultural forces in the face of adversity and racism can give readers a new understanding of hope perseverance and the resources necessary to heal

Asian American Literature in Transition, 1850-1930: Volume 1 Josephine Lee, Julia H. Lee, 2021-06-17 The years between 1850 and 1930 witnessed the first large scale migration of peoples from East Asia and South Asia to North America and the emergence of the US as an imperial power in the Pacific This period also produced the first instances of Asian North American writing theater and film This exciting collection examines how the many literary and cultural works from this period approached questions of migration exclusion and identity Covering an extensive ranges of topics including anticolonialist writing the erotics of queer modernist poetry interracial desire and the racial gaze in silent film the book shows the diverse and multi ethnic nature of literary and cultural production at a crucial period in modern formations of race as well as literary and cultural aesthetics
