Economic Integration The East African Experience:

Economic Integration ,1959 Economic Integration Arthur Hazlewood,1975-01-01 Regional Integration in Africa Msuya Walidi Mangachi,2011 The objective of this book is to investigate various initiatives to integrate the East African region from the colonial period to 2000 when the new East African Community EAC was formed The analysis is focused on the process of integration from 1948 when formal institutions of cooperation were created under the East African High Commission EAHC and its transformation in 1961 into the East African Common Services Organisation EACSO The author argues that efforts made to integrate the British East African colonial territories of Tanganyika Kenya Uganda and Zanzibar through these organisations was largely aimed at consolidating colonial and imperial interests the concentration of most assets and investments in Kenya resulting in inequitable sharing of benefits He posits that the continuation of these inequalities were carried over to the East African Community in 1966 and led to its collapse together with different developmental paths followed by the countries He argues that the EAC formed in 2000 largely due to pressures of globalisation and trade liberalisation and makes recommendations as to how the EAC can become a truly regional structure

International Economic Integration: Integration schemes Miroslav Jovanovic,1998 International Economic Integration A. M. El-Agraa,1988-06-18 Regional Integration, Human Rights and Democratic Participation in Africa Karin Deichmann,2020 The protection of human rights and popular participation on the first sight seem to contradict the often existing image of the African continent However with the foundation of the African Union in 2000 both aspects gain greater importance on regional level Besides that many subregional courts within the sphere of sub Sahara Africa partially started to develop human rights related jurisdiction In addition to that most regional economic communities nowadays provide for their own parliamentary structures The study aims to examine the several institutional structures and their competences on both regional and subregional level Besides that it provides for a profound analysis of the jurisdiction of the respective courts as well as the communications of the African Commission of Human and Peoples Rights Lastly the study focuses on the correlation between the extension of the institutions competences and the political will of the involved governments

Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa Timothy Masiko,2022-04-21 This book examines the relationship between flexible regional economic integration in the East African Community EAC through its application of variable geometry and the establishment of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA as a continent wide form of integration It uses a historical political legal and economic analysis of the processes that led to the adoption of flexible regional integration in Africa with particular regard to the EAC This takes place in the inescapable context of pan Africanism showing how regional integration efforts in Africa are based on pan Africanist ideals and how an evolution of these ideals has led to an evolution in the goals of integration With growing awareness of the weaknesses and impracticality of consensus based decision making on a global level it makes the case for the pursuit of flexibility in multilateral trade drawing lessons from the experience of the AfCFTA and blocs in other regions This book is a historical evaluation of regional economic integration efforts in Africa and it follows the path of attempts to integrate the economies on the continent from colonial times to the birth of the AfCFTA While it is a study in law it relies heavily on politics economics and history to weave together a more complete theory of economic integration based on the African experience Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa was awarded the 2020 SIEL Hart Prize in International Economic Law The East African Community Jean-Marc Trouille, Helen Trouille, Penine Uwimbabazi, 2021-05-24 This book brings together African and European experts from a variety of disciplines to examine the origins and current state of the East African Community EAC Over the course of the book the authors analyse the rich tapestry of intraregional relations in East Africa the EAC's similarities with the European Union and the future challenges faced by the organisation Widely regarded as the most advanced and successful regional integration scheme in Africa the EAC is an intergovernmental organisation consisting of Burundi Kenya Rwanda Tanzania and Uganda and since 2016 South Sudan It is the oldest among Africa's regional economic communities and among the continent's most promising growth areas with a long history of integration punctuated by several false starts and traumas that have profoundly affected its body politics When initially set up the EAC model bore a striking resemblance to the process undergone by the European Union Now as the EAC continues to establish its own identity this book argues that whilst Europe's history may provide useful insights for EAC member states the EAC experience could in turn also offer lessons for the European Union Covering key dimensions such as integration co operation development trade and investments this book highlights the intricate and complex relationships between East African states and it will be of interest to researchers working on economic development international relations peace and security and African studies Allocation of Industry in the Andean Common Market J. ter Wengel, 2012-12-06 The objective of this text is to develop and implement a model for allocating the industries of the Sectorial Programs of Industrial Development of the Andean Common Market In the Andean Common Market as in most other integration schemes among less developed countries the main expectations regarding the promotion of economic growth are based on the expectation of increased opportunities for import substituting industrialization The concern here is with the Andean Common Market in particular because it has been the economic integration scheme that has most explicitly recognized the objective of the less developed countries of taking advantage of the new opportunities for industrialization created by the combination of the individual markets In the Andean Common Market the importance attached to the expectation of the gains from industrialization was expressed in the formulation of Sectorial Programs of Industrial Development Other integration schemes among less developed countries have not addressed the issue of import substituting industrialization in such detailed manner In the first section of this chapter the importance of the topic of allocating industries in integration schemes among less developed countries is discussed It is argued that the benefits to be derived from increased trade in the traditional products of the member countries are minimal

Instead the member countries 1 2 ALLOCATION OF INDUSTRY IN THE ANDEAN COMMON MARKET expect the benefits from economic integration schemes to be derived from the utilization of the opportunities for industrialization created by such schemes

African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey, 2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations

Constructing the East African Community Mariel Reiss, 2022-04-27 This book provides a systematic analysis of the establishment and decision making processes concerning the institutional design of the East African Community EAC throughout the 1990s and discusses to what extent these were impacted and inspired by other regional organizations from Africa and Europe Analysing the decision making processes that led to the set up of the EAC the book explores the extent to which they were impacted by several other regional organizations namely the Organization of African Unity OAU the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the Southern African Development Community SADC the European Union EU and the first EAC The findings indicate that the relevant east African state and non state actors adopted substantial aspects from the first EAC the EU and the COMESA and adapted them to set up the current EAC This book demonstrates that the perception of other regional organizations and their institutional design considerably effected the construction of the EAC here its own past provided crucial learning objectives which challenges the notion of mimicry or replica regional organizations of the EU in the Global South This work will be of particular interest to scholars and students of regional and international organizations international relations multilevel governance approaches as well as diffusion literature

The African Economy Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa, 2002-01-04 This book offers an in depth analysis of the current state of the African economy and makes constructive suggestions about its future direction The contributors argue that despite enduring challenges such as food security and employment creation Africa faces a brighter future in sustainable growth provided that governance and policy making are effectively employed to maintain peace achieve greater regional collaboration and encourage private sector competitiveness

Measuring International Authority Liesbet Hooghe, Gary Marks, Tobias Lenz, Jeanine Bezuïjen, Besir Ceka, Svet Derderyan, 2017-08-24 This is the third of five ambitious volumes theorizing the structure of governance above and below the central state This book is written for those interested in the character causes and consequences of governance within the state This book sets out a measure of authority for seventy six international organizations IOs from 1950 or the time of their establishment to 2010 which can allow researchers to test expectations about the character sources and consequences of international governance The international organizations considered are regional e g the EU Andean Community NAFTA cross regional e g Commonwealth of Nations the Organization of Islamic Cooperation and global e g the UN World Bank WTO Firstly the book introduces carefully constructed estimates for the scope and depth of authority exercised by international governments The estimates are unique in their comparative scope their specificity and time span Secondly it describes describe broad trends in IO authority by comparing delegation and pooling over time across IOs and across decision areas Thirdly it presents the evidence gathered by the authors to estimate international authority by carefully discussing forty seven international organizations and showing how their bodies are composed what decisions each body makes and how they make decisions Transformations in Governance is a major new academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states up to supranational institutions down to subnational governments and side ways to public private networks It brings together work that significantly advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series targets mainly single authored or co authored work but it is pluralistic in terms of disciplinary specialization research design method and geographical scope Case studies as well as comparative studies historical as well as contemporary studies and studies with a national regional or international focus are all central to its aims Authors use qualitative quantitative formal modeling or mixed methods A trade mark of the books is that they combine scholarly rigour with readable prose and an attractive production style The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford

Politics and higher education in East Africa from the 1920s to 1970 Bhekithemba R. Mngomezulu, 2012-01-01 The main objective of this book is to establish the salient reasons why higher education was developed in East Africa and specifically why the Federal University of East Africa was constituted The book will identify the factors responsible for the collapse of this regional institution in June 1970 Another objective of this book is to demonstrate how the history of the University of East Africa sheds light on colonial and post colonial policies on education especially higher education as a contribution to educational planning in contemporary Africa

A Spatial Approach to Regionalisms in the Global Economy M. Niemann, 2016-01-26 The author challenges the traditional manner in which regionalization has been approached and suggests that the failure to come to grips with this phenomenon is the result of the modernist regulation of space to margins of analysis He advances instead a spatially orientated approach which views states as one of multiple layers of a global social space Regionalization represents the construction of new layers in an effort to search for an institutional fix to the challenges of globalization
