Economic Development 1975 1993 An Annotated Bibliography:

Rural Economic Development, 1975-1993 Larry Leistritz, Rita R. Hamm, 1994-05-25 This bibliography brings together the salient works on the process of economic development and economic revitalization in nonmetropolitan areas. The literature cited reviews 1 the forces affecting different economic sectors such as manufacturing, tourism and services and the potential of these sectors to contribute to rural economic development 2 the forces affecting various types of firms such as new firms, small firms and high tech businesses and the potential of these types of firms to contribute to rural economic development 3 contextual factors such as markets, business climate and technological change and 4 economic and development policies and strategies that various levels of government could employ. The book's focus is economic development and revitalization in the world's industrialized countries. Including North American and European literature published in English, the book covers 1975 to 1993 with particular emphasis on the period from 1988 to 1993. This book attempts to meet the needs of 1 students of economic and community development, regional and agricultural economics, community and regional planning, rural sociology and related disciplines 2 teachers and researchers and 3 policy makers and economic development practitioners. It includes professional journals, books, university research reports, extension reports, conference proceedings and government documents. Ibss: Economics: 1995 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London

School of Economics, 1996. The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians, university departments, research institutions and any public or private institutions whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences.

United States Entrepreneurs and the Companies They Built Wahib Nasrallah, 2003-08-30 This pioneering work provides an index to over 1 700 biographies of prominent U S entrepreneurs, innovators and company executives published in over 120 biographical collected works which are identified, examined and indexed here. These collected works cover a span of over 100 years and include men and women who shaped the history of American enterprise. In the past, collected works such as these have never been indexed, but finally this book makes the biographies accessible to the general public. Wahib Nasrallah has created the only book available today that indexes these stories of corporate success as they are documented in collected works of biography. A large number of executive biographies are published in collected works that are rich with stories of American enterprise, male and female entrepreneurs of many ethnic backgrounds. Since these stories have never been indexed before, United States Entrepreneurs and the Companies They Built: An Index to Biographies and Collected Works is a central research tool in both academic and corporate worlds. Rural Development Perspectives, 1989 Community

Economic Development Rhonda G. Phillips, Terry Besser, 2016-05-06 The role of economic development in communities is multi-faceted, having an array of antecedents, impacts and implications. This volume explores the relationships between economic development and community development, focusing on the aspects that impact communities such as social capital, participation and business development. It discusses the need for aligning the goals of community betterment more closely with economic improvement and finding ways to enhance leadership and other resources Including both current contributions and classics the evolution of the relationship between and roles of the two kinds of development is explored The articles in the volume present several theoretical perspectives of development Most common among them are sustainable economic development and social capital theories Utilizing these theories and data from various sources the authors are able to suggest specific development strategies for improving community economic and quality of life outcomes The volume offers an exploration of directions for future research including the need for more theoretical and empirical work on the role of amenity development on rural community economic and quality of life outcomes Practitioners of community and economic development along with researchers and students will find this volume useful and relevant for both theory and application This book is a compilation of articles published in the Journal of the Community Development Society General Technical Report PNW-GTR ,1995 Beyond The Amber Waves Of Grain Paul Lasley,2021-11-28 This book explores the large scale impacts of economic restructuring in the Midwest in response to the 1980s farm crisis Drawing upon detailed surveys from twelve north central states the authors offer a comprehensive view of farm restructuring and its social economic and political consequences The study goes beyond the farm gate to look at the broader implications of those changes for agriculture policy related industries and areas still dependent upon farming contributing to the literature on economic restructuring Like the factory closings in the Rust Belt the dramatic failure of agricultural industries in the Farm Belt has caused fundamental changes in the organization and control of production The impact of job losses and economic depression and the shattering of a way of life have shaken public complacency about the stability of many fundamental American myths Beyond the Amber Waves of Grain looks at the farm crisis not as a purely agricultural nonurban issue but as one that adds to our understanding of the overall social impacts of economic change The book takes up the story of Midwestern farm enterprises in the wake of the farm crisis of the 1980s Using data drawn from detailed surveys of 3 940 farm households in twelve north central states the authors offer a comprehensive view of the social and economic restructuring of agriculture and explore the consequences for farm enterprises farm households and farming communities The study goes beyond the farm gate to look at the broader implications for related industries and communities dependent upon farming for agricultural and rural policies and for farm women and men contributing to the literature on economic restructuring and its outcomes Hazardous Wastes in Rural America Steve H. Murdock,1999 Based on the most comprehensive multi site and multi dimensional study completed to date on waste facility siting and management in rural areas in the U S Hazardous Wastes in Rural America establishes the impacts of waste facilities for a range of rural communities that have experienced alternative stages of waste facility siting and operation process Rural America ,2001 Stability and Change in Forest-based Communities Catherine Woods Richardson,1996 Handbook of United States Economic and Financial Indicators Frederick M. Inequity and Poverty M.L. Narasaiah,2004 Around the world at least one woman in every three has been beaten coerced into sex or otherwise abused in her life time Most often the abuser is a member of her own family Increasingly gender based violence is recognised as a major public health concern and a violation of human rights Contents Sex and Gender Gender based Violence Do Men Matter New Horizons in Gender and Development One Battle after Another For a Fair Sharing of Time Safe Motherhood is a Human Rights Issue Action for Safe Motherhood What is Known About Reducing Maternal Mortality Women in Politics Fighting for Equality on All Fronts Equal Opportunities for Women in the Community Lightening the Load for Women Women and Poverty Women in Authority Promotion of Women Empowerment for Women Population Growth and Women s Role in India No Progress without a Secular Society On the Way to Commercial Microcredits

Measuring Population's Impact All Human Rights for All The Coming Water Crisis Using Economics to Advantage Law and Social Justice AIDS and the Responsibility of the Media Pollution for Export Human Rights The Road to Progress and Peace Energy Food for the Billions Food Production Taking Poverty to Heart Land Tenure Private or Socialistic Forestry? Matti Palo, Erkki Lehto, 2012-02-13 While deforestation continues at an alarming rate around the world discussions on the range of underlying causes continue The premise is that studying successful transitions from deforestation to sustainable forestry ex post in Finland can provide novel insights into how deforestation in the tropics might be reduced in the future Our fundamental question here is why Finland succeeded to stop deforestation for a century ago and why not the same is feasible in the contemporary tropical countries This book presents a novel integrated theory within which this case study on Finland and contemporary modeling of underlying causes of tropical deforestation are developed Finland remains the world's second largest net exporter of forest products while maintaining the highest forest cover in Europe A transition from deforestation to sustainable industrial forestry took place in Finland during the first part of the 20th century The underlying causes of this transition are compared via our theory with deforestation in 74 contemporary tropical countries Both appear similar and support our theory The interaction of public policies and market institutions has appeared to be critical during this transition The study's findings suggest that private forest ownership with a continuous increase in the real value of forests and alleviation of poverty under non corruptive conditions has been a necessary but not a sufficient condition for this transition In a parallel way public policies have also proved to be a necessary but not sufficient condition in this transition The conclusion is that socialistic forestry along with corruption is artificially maintaining too low values in the tropical forests The opportunity cost of sustainable forestry remains too high and deforestation by extensification of agriculture therefore continues The prevailing socialistic forestry with dominating public forest ownership is by purpose maintaining administratively set low stumpage prices leading to low value of forests wide corruption and continuous forest degradation and deforestation An effective remedy to raise the value of forests is found to be within forestry Bibliographie
