Economic Analysis Beyond The Local System:

Economic analysis beyond the local system Richard E. Blanton, 1996-12-19 Co published with the Society for Economic Anthropology this work explores the social political and economic contexts and consequences of economic interaction beyond the local systems Because the focus of economic analysis is often local particularly in anthropology this book specifically aims analysis beyond the local system of economic interaction The Mesoamerican World System, 200-1200 CE Peter Jiménez, 2020-08-27 This is the first application of the comparative approach of world systems analysis in Mesoamerican archaeology World-systems Theory in Practice P. Nick Kardulias, 1999 In the quarter century since Wallerstein first developed world systems theory WST scholars in a variety of disciplines have adopted the approach to explain intersocietal interaction on a grand scale These essays bring to light archaeological data and analysis to show that many historic and prehistoric states lacked the mechanisms to dominate the distant and in some cases nearby societies with which they interacted Core periphery exploitation needs to be demonstrated not simply assumed as the interdisciplinary dialogue which occurs in this volume demonstrates World Systems Theory in Practice will appeal to individuals with an interest in the application of WST in both the Old World and the New World The papers in this volume reflect the vitality of the debate concerning the use of such generalizing theories and will be of interest to archeologists anthropologists historians sociologists and those involved in the study of civilizations A World-Systems Reader Thomas D. Hall, 2000-03-01 This book brings together some of the most influential new research from the world systems perspective The authors survey and analyze new and emerging topics from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives from political science to archaeology Each analytical essay is written in accessible language so that the volume serves as a lucid introduction both to the tradition of world systems thought and the new debates that are sparking further research today Ancient Oaxaca Richard E. Blanton, Gary M. Feinman, Stephen A. Kowalewski, Linda M. Nicholas, 2022-07-28 Over two thousand years ago Oaxaca Mexico was the site of one of the New World's earliest episodes of primary state formation and urbanism and today it is one of the world's archaeologically best studied regions This volume which thoroughly revises and updates the first edition provides a highly readable yet comprehensive path to acquaint readers with one of the earliest and best known examples of Native American state formation and its consequences as seen from the perspectives of urbanism technology demography commerce households and religion and ritual Written by prominent archaeological researchers who have devoted decades to Oaxacan research and to the development of suitable social theory the book places ancient Oaxaca within the context of the history of ideas that have addressed the causes and consequences of social evolutionary change It also critically evaluates the potential applicability of more recent thinking about state building grounded in collective action and related theories

The Politics of Swidden farming Debojyoti Das, 2018-09-28 The Politics of Swidden Farming offers a new explanation for the changes taking place in swidden farming practised in the highlands of eastern India through an ethnographic case study

The book traces the story of agroecological change and state intervention to colonial times and helps understand contemporary agrarian change by contextualizing farming not just in terms of the science and technology of agriculture or conservation and biodiversity but also in terms of technologies of rule The Politics of Swidden Farming adds a new dimension to the underdeveloped literature on shifting cultivation in South Asia by focusing on the social ecology of farming and agrarian change in the hills It provides a comparative viewpoint to state centred and donor driven development in the frontier region by bringing in different actors and institutions that become the actants and agents of social change

Collective Action in the Formation of Pre-Modern States Richard Blanton, Lane Fargher, 2008 Anthropological archaeology and other disciplines concerned with the formation of early complex societies are undergoing a theoretical shift Given the need for new directions in theory the book proposes that anthropologists look to political science especially the rational choice theory of collective action The authors subject collective action theory to a methodologically rigorous evaluation using systematic cross cultural analysis based on a world wide sample of societies

Transforming the Indonesian Uplands Tania Li, 2005-06-27 Drawing upon current theoretical debates in social anthropology development studies and political ecology and presenting original research from across the Archipelago this book addresses the changing histories and identities of upland people as they relate in new ways to the natural resource base to markets and to the state It is an engaged study which fills important analytical gaps and addresses real world concerns exploring the uplands as components of national and global systems of meaning power and production It offers a significant re assessment of concepts processes histories relationships and discourses many of which are not unique to either the uplands or Indonesia making the book essential and compelling reading for both scholars and practitioners

Borderlines in a Globalized World G. Preyer, Mathias Bös, 2013-11-11 Scholars of different schools have extensively analyzed world systems as networks of communication under the fashionable heading globalization Our collected new research pushes the argument one step further Globalization is not a homogenization of all social life on earth It is a heterogeneous process that connects the global and the local on different levels To understand these contemporary developments this book employs innovative concepts strategies of research and explanations Globalization is a metaphor for different borderstructures new borderlines and conditions of membership which emerge in a global world system As a world system expands it incorporates new territories and new peoples The process of incorporation creates frontiers or boundaries of the world system These frontiers or boundary zones are the locus of resistance to incorporation ethnogenesis ethnic transformation and ethnocide

Mediterranean Archaeological Landscapes Effie F. Athanassopoulou, Luann Wandsnider, 2010-11-24 The Mediterranean landscape record is recognized for its length and richness and the opportunity it offers to study the interaction between humans and their landscape This volume explores a variety of current archaeological issues in the context of specific landscapes from southern Spain through Greece and Cyprus to Jordan and from antiquity to recent times Over the last 25 years researchers have initiated a dramatic expansion in theoretical approaches both anthropological and classical Over the same time span a huge volume of field survey projects has been carried out in the Mediterranean arena The contributors to Mediterranean Archaeological Landscapes take stock of what has been learned identify lacunae and consider new approaches to our understanding of the rich surface landscape record of the Mediterranean Their goal is to explore theoretically diverse interpretative themes and the methods that make those approachable Housework Kenneth G.

Hirth,2010-02-15 Households are without question the most important social units in human society They are interactive social units whose primary concern is the day to day well being of their kith and kin Households reproduce themselves and provide their members with the economic psychological and social resources necessary to live their lives Although households vary enormously in size and organization they are the fundamental social settings in which families are defined and cultural values are transmitted through a range of domestic activities and rituals Despite their many functions it is the range and productivity of their economic activities that determine the success survival and well being of their members Households are the primary production and consumption units in society and provide the vehicle through which resources are pooled stored and distributed to their members Survival and reproduction is their business and the work they do determines their success Disability and Rurality Karen Soldatic,Kelley Johnson,2017-04-21 This is the first book to explore how far disability challenges dominant understandings of rurality identity gender and belonging within the rural literature The book focuses particularly on the ways disabled people give and are given meaning and value in relation to ethical rural considerations of place physical strength productivity and social reciprocity A range of different perspectives to the issues of living rurally with a disability inform this work It includes the lived experience of people with disabilities through the use of life history methodologies rich qualitative accounts and theoretical perspectives It goes beyond conventional notions of rurality grounding its analysis in a range of disability spaces and places and including the work of disability sociologists geographers cultural theorists and policy analysts This interdisciplinary focus reveals the contradictory and competing relations of rurality for disabled people and the resultant impacts and effects upon disabled people and their communities materially discursively and symbolically Of interest to all scholars of disability rural studies social work and welfare this book provides a critical intervention into the growing scholarship of rurality that has bypassed the pivotal role of disability in understanding the lived experience of rural landscapes Modes of Production and Archaeology Robert M.

Rosenswig,Jerimy J. Cunningham,2017-05-15 This volume challenges the historical materialistic non capitalist modes that are used by archaeologists as not all that useful and instead considers how social labor is organized to transform nature into culturally refined and useful resources and how this can either maintain or change a culture Rather than describe what a society is using the theoretical framework of Marx and materialism a mode of production approach explores what a society does in a more dynamic sense Understanding Disability Throughout History Hanna Björg Sigurjónsdóttir,James G.

Rice,2021-10-27 Understanding Disability Throughout History explores seldom heard voices from the past by studying the hidden lives of disabled people before the concept of disability existed culturally socially and administratively The book focuses on Iceland from the Age of Settlement traditionally considered to have taken place from 874 to 930 until the 1936 Law on Social Security L g um almannatryggingar which is the first time that disabled people were referenced in Iceland as a legal or administrative category Data sources analysed in the project represent a broad range of materials that are not often featured in the study of disability such as bone collections medieval literature and census data from the early modern era archaeological remains historical archives folktales and legends personal narratives and museum displays The ten chapters include contributions from multidisciplinary team of experts working in the fields of Disability Studies History Archaeology Medieval Icelandic Literature Folklore and Ethnology Anthropology Museum Studies and Archival Sciences along with a collection of post doctoral and graduate students The volume will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies history medieval studies ethnology folklore and archaeology Women and Politics in Uganda Aili Mari Tripp,2012-11 Uganda has attracted much attention and political visibility for its significant economic recovery after a catastrophic decline In her groundbreaking book Aili Mari Tripp provides extensive data and analysis of patterns of political behavior and institutions by focusing on the unique success of indigenous women s organizations Tripp explores why the women s movement grew so dramatically in such a short time after the National Resistant Movement took over in 1986 Unlike many African countries where organizations and institutions are controlled by a ruling party or regime the Ugandan women s movement gained its momentum by remaining autonomous Finding The Middle Path B. S. Baviskar,2019-03-13 Soviet style socialism has failed but in Russia China and India the transition to capitalism has proven hazardous Elsewhere capitalism itself appears to be in crisis often failing to meet the fundamental needs of workers small farmers and even the middle classes Clearly the world needs enterprises that are both economically efficient and Settlement, Subsistence, and Social Complexity Richard E. Blanton,2006-12-31 This volume brings together the work of some of the most prominent archaeologists to document the impact of Jeffrey R Parsons on contemporary archaeological method and theory Parsons is a central figure in the development of settlement pattern archaeology in which the goal is the study of whole social systems at the scale of regions In recent decades regional archaeology has revolutionized how we understand the past contributing new data and theoretical insights on topics such as early urbanism social interactions among cities towns and villages and long term population and agricultural change among many other topics relevant to the study of early civilizations and the evolution of social complexity Over the past 40 years the application of these methods by Parsons and others has profoundly changed how we understand the evolution of pre Hispanic Mesoamerican civilization and now similar methods are being applied in other world areas The book s emphasis is on the contribution of settlement pattern archaeology to research in pre Hispanic Mesoamerica but its authors also point to the value of regional research in South America South Asia and China

Topics addressed include early urbanism household and gender agricultural and craft production migration ethnogenesis the evolution of early chiefdoms and the emergence of pre modern world systems Agricultural Strategies Joyce

Marcus, Charles Stanish, 2006-12-31 This volume brings together a diverse set of new studies archaeological ethnohistoric and ethnographic that focus on agricultural intensification and hydraulic systems around the world Fifteen chapters written by many of the world's leading experts combine extensive regional overviews of agricultural histories with in depth case studies In this volume are chapters on agriculture in the Middle East South Asia Europe Oceania Mesoamerica and South America A wide range of theoretical perspectives and approaches are used to provide a framework for agricultural land use and water management in a variety of cultural and historical contexts This book covers the co evolutionary relationships among sociopolitical structure agriculture land use and water control Agricultural Strategies is an invaluable resource for those engaged in ongoing debates about the role of intensification and agriculture in the past and present Fast

Food/slow Food Richard R. Wilk, 2006 Wilk and his colleagues draw upon their own international field experience to examine how food systems are changing around the globe The authors offer a cultural perspective that is missing in other economic and developmental studies and provide rich ethnographic data on markets industrial production and food economies This new book will appeal to professionals in economic and environmental anthropology economic development agricultural economics consumer behavior nutritional sciences environmental sustainability and globalization studies

From Minoan Farmers to Roman Traders Άγγελος Χανιώτης, 1999 A collection of sixteen papers focusing on the economic activities of prehistoric Classical Hellenistic and Roman Crete The wide ranging papers discuss the economy of prehistoric Crete social development production and symbolism in the pre Palatial and Palatial periods economic activities and social development in the Classical and Hellenistic periods coinage and minting and relationships with other polities of the Aegean and east Mediterranean
