Economy and settlement in Neolithic and early Bronze age Britain and Europe Derek Douglas Alexander Simpson,1971

The Prehistoric Settlement of Britain Richard Bradley,2014-10-24 This study first published in 1978 explores the evidence for pre Roman settlement in Britain Four aspects of the prehistoric economy are described by the author colonisation and clearance arable and pastoral farming transhumance and nomadism and hunting gathering and fishing These aspects have been brought together to formulate a structure which contains the evidence more naturally than chronological schemes that depend on assumed changes in population or technology The book draws upon environmental evidence and recent developments in archaeological fieldwork It also provides an extensive exploration of the published literature on the subject and the scope of the evidence Originally conceived as an ideas book rather than a final synthesis the author s intention throughout is to stimulate argument and research and not to replace one dogma with another

Archaeology of Skye and the Western Isles Ian Armit,1996-04-01 No detailed description available for The Archaeology of Skye and the Western Isles The Stonehenge People Rodney Castleden,2002-01-31 First published in 1990 Of all the monuments left by the past Stonehenge is the most evocative the most memorable and the most mysterious Whilst the monuments of other cultures have gradually surrendered their mysteries Stonehenge alone seems to stimulate endless conjecture Rodney Castleden s vivid presentation of the world of the megaliths answers many of the most baffling questions about Stonehenge There are he stresses few absolute certainties but from the vast body of evidence assembled during the last hundred years it is now possible to get much closer to the truth than ever before Who built the monuments and for what purpose How were the bluestones moved from the sacred mountains of the west to Salisbury Plain Who were the people responsible for this amazing undertaking and what did they think and believe Balksbury Camp Hampshire G J
