Federalism And Territorial Cleavages:

Federalism and Territorial Cleavages Ugo M. Amoretti, Nancy Gina Bermeo, Professor of Politics Nancy Bermeo, 2004 One of the biggest problems facing developing countries is the integration of regions with different traditions and minority groups into a larger sovereignty This book analyses successes and failures of federalism in advanced industrial countries developing countries and post Communist regimes Federalism and Territorial Cleavages: P.335-386 Ugo Amoretti, Oil and Gas in the Disputed Kurdish Territories Rex J. Zedalis, 2012-05-16 This book examines the historical and contextual background to the oil and gas resources in the Kurdish territories placing particular emphasis on the reserves situated in the disputed provinces The volume is singularly unique in focusing on an examination of the rules reflected in both the national and the regional constitutional legislative and contractual measures and documents relevant to the question of whether the central government in Baghdad or the Kurdish Regional Government KRG in Erbil has a stronger claim to legal control over the oil and gas resources in the disputed Kurdish territories As a subsidiary focus the author also draws attention to how the basic thrust of the volume connects to broader jurisprudential issues regarding the nature and purpose of law the matter of claims by native peoples to natural resources on traditional lands and the place of regional minorities operating in a federal system Since the law examined is domestic or municipal in origin additional reference is made to the role that such law can play in the bottom up as opposed to more conventional top down development of international law The book s opening chapters provide a valuable contextual introduction followed by a number of substantive chapters providing an analytical and critical assessment of the controlling legal rules Written in a scholarly yet accessible style and covering matters of basic importance to academics lawyers political scientists government representatives and students of energy and natural resources as well as those of developing legal structures Oil and Gas in the Disputed Kurdish Territories is an essential addition to any collection Federal Solutions to Ethnic Problems Liam D. Anderson, 2013 This book examines how federal systems can be designed to manage ethnic conflict in divided societies Using Iraq as a case study the author evaluates six distinct approaches the underlying reasons why one may be more suitable than other and how these apply to the current situation Territory and Power in Constitutional Transitions George Anderson, Sujit Choudhry, 2019-03-07 This collection of essays surveys the full range of challenges that territorial conflicts pose for constitution making processes and constitutional design It provides seventeen in depth case studies of countries going through periods of intense constitutional engagement in a variety of contexts small distinct territories bi communal countries highly diverse countries with many politically salient regions and countries where territorial politics is important but secondary to other bases for political mobilization Specific examples are drawn from Iraq Kenya Cyprus Nigeria South Africa Sri Lanka the UK Scotland Ukraine Bolivia India Spain Yemen Nepal Ethiopia Indonesia Aceh the Philippines Mindanao and Bosnia Herzegovina While the volume draws significant normative conclusions it is based on a realist view of the complexity of territorial and other political cleavages the country's political geometry and the power configurations that lead into periods of constitutional engagement. Thematic chapters on constitution making processes and constitutional design draw original conclusions from the comparative analysis of the case studies and relate these to the existing literature both in political science and comparative constitutional law. This volume is essential reading for scholars of federalism, consociational power sharing arrangements, asymmetrical devolution and devolution more generally. The combination of in-depth case studies and broad thematic analysis allows for analytical and normative conclusions that will be of major relevance to practitioners and advisors engaged in constitutional design.

Crafting State-Nations Alfred Stepan, Juan J. Linz, Yogendra Yadav, 2011-03-31 Political wisdom holds that the political boundaries of a state necessarily coincide with a nation's perceived cultural boundaries. Today the sociocultural diversity of many polities renders this understanding obsolete. This volume provides the framework for the state nation, a new paradigm that addresses the need within democratic nations to accommodate distinct ethnic and cultural groups within a country while maintaining national political coherence. First introduced briefly in 1996 by Alfred Stepan and Juan J. Linz, the state nation is a country with significant multicultural even multinational components that engenders strong identification and loyalty from its citizens. Here Indian political scholar Yogendra Yadav joins Stepan and Linz to outline and develop the concept further. The core of the book documents how state nation policies have helped craft multiple but complementary identities in India in contrast to nation state policies in Sri Lanka which contributed to polarized and warring identities. The authors support their argument with the results of some of the largest and most original surveys ever designed and employed for comparative political research. They include a chapter discussing why the U.S. constitutional model often seen as the preferred template for all the world's federations would have been particularly inappropriate for crafting democracy in politically robust multinational countries such as India or Spain. To expand the repertoire of how even unitary states can respond to territorially concentrated minorities with some secessionist desires, the authors develop a revised theory of federacy and show how such a formula helped craft the recent peace agreement in Aceh, Indonesia. Empirically thorough and conceptually clear, Crafting State Nations will have a substantial impact on the study of comparative political institutions and the conception and understanding of nationalism and democracy.

Minority Rights and the National Question in Nigeria Uyilawa Usuanlele, Bonny Ibhawoh, 2017-03-18 This book offers a thematic study of key debates in the history of the ethnic politics democratic governance and minority rights in Nigeria Nigeria provides a framework for examining the central paradox in post colonial nation building projects in Africa the tension between majority rule and minority rights The liberal democratic model on which most African states were founded at independence from colonial rule and to which they continue to aspire is founded on majority rule It is also founded on the protection of the rights of minority groups to political participation social inclusion and economic resources Maintaining this tenuous balance between majority rule and minority rights has in the decades since independence become the key national question in many African countries perhaps none more so than Nigeria This volume explores these issues focusing on four key themes as they relate to minority rights in Nigeria ethnic and religious identities nationalism and federalism political crises and armed conflicts The Principle of Equality in Diverse States Eva Maria Belser, Thea Bächler, Sandra Egli, Lawrence Zünd, 2021-05-25 This book examines different approaches by which states characterised by federal or decentralized arrangements reconcile equality and autonomy In case studies from four continents leading experts analyse the challenges of ensuring institutional social and economic equality whilst respecting the competences of regions and the rights of groups Contemporary Governance Challenges in the Horn of Africa Charles Manga Fombad, Assefa Fiseha, Nico Steytler, 2022-09-06 This book argues that a leading cause of the political instability in the Horn of Africa is a crisis of governance caused by extreme centralization of power weak institutions and the failure to institutionalise the responsible use of authority In recent years many attempts have been made to resolve the ongoing conflicts in Somalia and South Sudan but problems remain and in 2019 the instability spread to Ethiopia This book critically examines how many of the governance problems in the region can be addressed through institutional design The central argument is that an inclusive system of governance through federalism devolution and inclusive political institutions as well as ensuring the institutionalization of power through strengthening the rule of law has the potential to make governments more accountable inclusive and be able to deliver critical services Such systems ensure relative stability and peace and reduce the risks of state fragmentation a major concern in the region Demonstrating that the threats of further fragmentation and conflict due to the crisis of governance are likely to continue unless serious steps are taken to deal with the situation the book will be an important read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in peacemaking politics constitutional law and federalism in the region Compliance Patterns with EU Anti-Discrimination Legislation Vanja Petričević, 2016-01-06 This book provides an in depth and timely analysis of the member states compliance patterns with the key European Union Anti Discrimination Directives It examines the various structural administrative and individual aspects which significantly affect the degree and the nature of compliance patterns in select European Union member states

The Political Economy of Energy, Finance and Security in the United Arab Emirates Karen E. Young, 2014-07-08 This book explores the process of policymaking and implementation in the finance energy and security sectors in the United Arab Emirates It looks at the role of informal advisory networks in a nascent private sector federal politics and historical ties in foreign relations Natural Resources and Conflict Dynamics in Federal Countries Eyene Okpanachi, 2025-07-02 This book examines the dynamics of oil and gas conflicts within the context of federalism in Canada an older federation with broadly a decentralized institutional design governing oil and gas and Nigeria a newer federation with a largely centralized design It traces resource ownership control or regulation and revenue sharing conflict processes over time and provides a focused comparison of conflict over the role of oil in intergovernmental fiscal transfers in both countries In so doing the book provides a much needed corrective to conventional static notions of oil conflict as either violent or nonviolent outcomes by carefully analyzing the evolution and ebbs and flows of conflicts hidden within conflict patterns that appear to be self reinforcing and entrenched The book demonstrates that de centralization dynamics especially the continuities and shifts in federal institutional structural and ideational rules about oil itself are central to the concept of conflict dynamics It highlights the endogenous processes of federal institutional development and lends credence to the historical institutionalists emphasis on the entanglement of institutions in their own transformation Yet the book also reveals that conflict dynamics did not emerge solely from the initial compromise between federal and provincial state actors regarding the allocation of competence over oil The renegotiation and reinterpretation of these rules over time which entails a redistribution of power resources in response to historical temporalities and shocks political agency and changing socioeconomic realities also generated unique patterns of conflict and conflict resolution within the federal institutional arenas The Last Post-Cold War Socialist Federation Semahagn Gashu Abebe,2016-03-03 After the fall of the Berlin wall and the disintegration of the former USSR and Yugoslavia it has widely been assumed that socialist federations have become a thing of the past Ethiopia s ethnic federal system however is essentially a socialist federal system based on the notion of the right to self determination of nationalities and a Marxist Leninist organization of the state and party This book assesses the Ethiopian ethnic federal system from the perspective of the principles of socialist federations and other Marxist oriented policies pursued by the ruling Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF Exploring how the application of these ideological principles has impacted on the structure and function of the Ethiopian federal system the research examines the ways in which these ideological policies of the ruling party affect national consensus protection of human rights the rights of minority groups separation of power principles and the relationship between the federal and regional governments It also explores the extent to which ideological principles have had an impact on the democratization process rule of law and in building up institutions such as parliamentary democracy the judiciary the media and civil society organizations in the country Approaching the Ethiopian federal system from the perspective of the fundamental ideological principles of the party in power allows a deeper insight into the structure and function of the ethnic federal system The Kurds and the Politics of Turkey Deniz Çifçi,2019-08-08 The Kurds constitute the largest stateless nation in the world Their position in Turkey attracts attention both within the country and internationally particularly focusing on the demand for Kurdish independence Yet since the 1990s new Kurdish parties have formed within Turkey who have a variety of ideologies and demands that go beyond and differ in opinion on the question of independence Much of the present literature on the topic looks at the Kurds of Turkey as a homogenous group with unified political demands which over simplifies their position within the political backdrop of Turkey This book seeks to provide nuance and depth to the current debate on Kurdish political agency and presence in Turkey Presently the Kurds political demands can be classified into four categories democratic autonomy their cultural rights to be granted federalism territorial autonomies and independence creation of a Kurdish nation state In a broad sense these models can also be ordered into two categories territorial political models federalism and independence and non territorial political models democratic autonomy and cultural rights Considering the diversity within the Kurdish community intertwinement of tribal ethnic and national identity and differences in their language religion and ideology there are several contributing factors for the emergence of the current varied political demands of Kurds By explaining variation among the Kurds political demands through close analysis of existing at emerging parties this study challenges a deterministic approach to the Kurds which currently dominates the discourse
