Feed The Children First Irish Memories Of The Great Hunger:

Feed the Children First Mary E. Lyons, 2012-09-06 The great Irish potato famine the Great Hunger was one of the worst disasters of the nineteenth century Within seven years of the onset of a fungus that wiped out Ireland's staple potato crop more than a quarter of the country's eight million people had either starved to death died of disease or emigrated to other lands Photographs have documented the horrors of other cataclysmic times in history slavery and the Holocaust but there are no known photographs whatsoever of the Great Hunger In Feed the Children First Mary E Lyons combines first person accounts of those who remembered the Great Hunger with artwork that evokes the times and places and voices themselves The result is a close up look at incredible suffering but also a celebration of joy the Irish took in stories and music and helping one another all factors that helped them endure

The Irish Potato Famine Jill Sherman, 2016-08-01 In the mid 1840s potato blight ruined the crops of impoverished farmers across Ireland Many families went hungry without their main source of food Disease struck down people weakened by starvation as the government struggled to address the problem Would the country ever recover To understand the impact of a disaster you must understand its causes How did the system of landlords and tenants contribute to the disaster How did British views of the Irish keep leaders from providing suitable aid Investigate the disaster from a cause and effect perspective and find out
