Feeling About Friends Values Feelings:

Emotion as Feeling Towards Value Jonathan Mitchell, 2021 Much of what we take to be meaningful and significant in life is inextricably linked with our capacity to experience emotions Here Jonathan Mitchell considers emotional experiences as sui generis states to be given their own place within our mental economy and proposes an original view of emotional experiences as feelings towards values

The Ethics of Discernment Patrick H. Byrne, 2016-01-01 In The Ethics of Discernment Patrick H Byrne presents an approach to ethics that builds upon the cognitional theory and the philosophical method of self appropriation that Bernard Lonergan introduced in his book Insight as well as upon Lonergan s later writing on ethics and values Extending Lonergan s method into the realm of ethics Byrne argues that we can use self appropriation to come to objective judgements of value The Ethics of Discernment is an introspective analysis of that process in which sustained ethical inquiry and attentiveness to feelings as intentions of value leads to a rich conception of the good Written both for those with an interest in Lonergan s philosophy and for those interested in theories of ethics who have only a limited knowledge of Lonergan s work Byrne s book is the first detailed exposition of an ethical theory based on Lonergan s philosophical method

Ethics Harry J. Gensler, 2006-08-21 Ethics introduces the issues and controversies of contemporary moral philosophy to undergraduate students who have already done an introductory course in philosophy It will help students to think more clearly about how to form their moral beliefs in the wisest and most rational way The basic approaches to metaethics and normative ethics are related to specific issues particularly those of racism education and abortion Written in a clear and concise way by an experienced textbook author Ethics will also be of interest to the general reader Unique features of the textbook boxed key ideas Glossary of philosophical terms Chapter summaries and study questions Annotated further reading and Internet Web resources There is an associated website for teachers and students at www.routledge.com/routledge/philosophy/cip/ethics.htm

The Pathways to Peace Anger Management Workbook William Fleeman, 2003 This anger workbook is unique It is the official guide for Pathways to Peace a program which provides self help anger management and violence prevention instruction for individuals and communities Anger is a drug which often turns into a full blown addiction This pattern of anger abuse is reinforced socially People learn to abuse anger from the examples of parents peers the media The book helps people to unlearn these destructive patterns It shows chronically angry people how to replace their anger habit with peaceful alternatives and respond to their anger triggers in non violent ways This workbook will help the reader Discover how he learned his or her anger pattern Find new nonviolent ways to experience personal power Learn to change abusive and violent behaviors Focus on values and goals that support a nonviolent rage free lifestyle Identify and change negative attitudes and beliefs that keep a person stuck Avoid relapsing back into angry behavior Maintain recovery from chronic anger and rage The workbook is easy to understand Each of the eighteen chapters includes personal stories and questions for the reader

present and our past are manifestly intertwined Memories are not identical simulations of the past but are stories shaped by our current perspectives of others the world and ourselves As a result the gathering of early recollections can be used as a projective technique that indicates our strengths goals lines of movement fears and a host of other relevant psychological data Early Recollections are a quick accurate and cost effective personality assessment demonstrated to have similar reliability and validity to other personality measures Both a comprehensive and accessible text Early Recollections Interpretative Method and Application presents a constructivist approach and systematic development of early recollection theory Mosak and Di Pietro invite students to think and actively engage in problem solving rather than merely read for content Supported by step by step examples this book also offers a perspective suitable for application by Adlerian practitioners non Adlerian clinicians and all other mental health professionals and students seeking a new framework for evaluating personality

Value-- and what Follows Joel Kupperman,1999 How can we know what is worth seeking or avoiding in life Is there anything to know If so is it in some sense personal This fresh and engaging work by noted philosopher Joel Kupperman addresses these questions as it examines the epistemology of value Kupperman looks first at how judgments of values manifest themselves whether there can be evidence for them and whether a realistic account is appropriate Focusing on emotional states he rejects the notion that there is one primary value arguing instead for a pluralistic understanding of value He contends that value is strongly contextual the value of a particular set of experiences in one s life can depend heavily on how they fit in with or provide contrast to other elements Kupperman argues both for a realistic account of value some things really do have a value about which we can have reasonable confidence and for skepticism about how much we can actually know about value The study moves on to explore the relations between judgments of value and moral or social policy decisions of how we should behave Acknowledging strong objections to the attempt by any group to impose its vision of a good life in a pluralistic society Kupperman nevertheless argues that proper attention to value leads to perfectionism in social policy Emphasizing the importance of detail in ethics he focuses on variations among cases and examines the weight cultural values can have in the social policy of a liberal society Going further than previous works in determining what counts as evidence for a judgment of value this book fills a substantial gap in the literature of ethical philosophy Tackling difficult issues in an accessible manner it will interest philosophers and students of ethics epistemology and social theory

Explorations of Value ,2022-01-04 The essays in Explorations of Value are drawn from work first presented at the 20th Conference of Value Inquiry They are not mere records of conference presentations The authors have reflected on their initial presentations They have re thought arguments in light of discussions at the conference They have revised their work All of this has combined to bring fresh ideas on important issues into carefully considered discussions The nineteen authors of the essays do not share a common viewpoint on all problems of value inquiry They are certainly not in agreement in their conclusions Their concerns however cluster around a recognizable body of questions Several of the authors raise fundamental questions on the nature of values and the possibility of giving them an objective status Some of the authors raise questions about where value inquiry becomes value advocacy They are also ready to ask whether or not advocacy is in the legitimate purview of philosophers A number of authors set out to examine conditions of moral practice and of harming or benefiting people in general Other authors show a concern for juxtaposing moral values and aesthetic values in some cases to observe similarities in some differences Finally a few authors focus on particular notions such as forgiveness intimacy and love that are central to our lives

The Marketing Power of Emotion John O'Shaughnessy, Nicholas J. O'Shaughnessy, 2003 How does one choose between a brand name and a generic named product Why does one choose an item with a slightly lower price than the other The answer is emotion The Marketing Power of Emotion provides a complete original and anecdote rich account of the marketing power of emotion This book is written by two of the leading practitioners in the field and is complete with thorough references and real life examples to follow Emotions whether it is realized or not is one of the central factors in our buying behavior Emotions energizes the motivation to buy and certain persuasive techniques are more effective than others are when marketers are trying to resonate emotionally with consumers This book covers all the essential topics including the scope of emotion in marketing and how in response to these emotions customers make product appraisals Finally this volume covers branding and how emotions play a role in how consumers become loyal to brands Publisher's description

Nease,2001     Ungolden Silence Lydia E. Brew,2007-12-13 A few years ago two teenage girls were kidnapped and their names were given on the national news Luckily they were found alive It was determined that they had been sexually assaulted and their names were not given after that What is wrong with this picture We hear the name of every crime victim except the name of people that are sexually assaulted We are protecting their privacy as if they have done something wrong Rape is a crime just like murder stealing robbing a bank carjacking and any and every other crime that we have to deal with as a society Sometimes a rape victim is shown on television but her face is not shown because she is frightened that her rapist will come back to hurt her This is understandable However when the rapist is in jail and the victim is on television her face is still hidden Why Another question is why are rape victims reluctant to come forward and report that someone has just raped them Could the reason be that the rapist is the victims boss teacher colleague boyfriend a family member a casual acquaintance or maybe a stranger Ungolden Silence is an exploration of how rape is treated in the United States It is imperative to change the way that society looks and deals with this social taboo Ungolden Silence is a novel that will leave the reader with many questions It will also attempt to answer some of the questions that society asks but never seem to want to answer We must look at the history of how men have been allowed to treat women It is important not to just know the information it is important to act on it Ungolden Silence will explore the world of rape and expose the myths through articles that are based on facts The main questions that needs to be answered in why one human being would rape another human being These reasons are explored in the story When any crime takes place the families of the victims as well as the criminal are involved Ungolden Silence will illustrate that the criminal is a real person and rarely do they commit crimes just for the fun of it It is important to know that rape is a part of violence Through the characters of Ungolden Silence it is hoped that society will begin to find a way to eliminate the acceptance of violence which includes the act of rape It is imperative that society understands that rape does not stand on an island by itself Rape is a room in the house of violence When looking into the house of violence we cannot just go into the front door and head to the rape room We must look at other rooms One room we must look into is the room of abuse When we enter the room we see that there are different kinds of abuse They are sexual physical and mental Again the main question is why a man or a woman will rape another person While the answer is far too complex Ungolden Silence will attempt to give some possible explanation The answers are not simple or exact Each rape case is as unique as the persons involved both perpetrator and the victim Ungolden Silence looks at this social taboo in a unique way The Calloway Firm where the owners and employees are African Americans sends two women to Washington D C to begin a campaign to create awareness about the disabled Elaine Wilson who is disabled is in charge of the project Beatrice James is her partner and goes with her Their client Mrs Stevens is impressed with the professionalism that Beatrice and Elaine show as they share their ideas for the campaign to increase the awareness of the disabled Mrs Stevens is amazed to see that Elaine really is in charge of the project The story changes when Mr Thomas Paige a very influential African American in the city comes into the picture Mrs Stevens though an extremely rich and influential American woman of European descent is very excited to have Mr Paige on the project Beatrice is ex
