Female Writers:

Outsiders Lyndall Gordon, 2019-03-19 Prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer As society's outsiders the exceptional subjects of this study inspired a new breed of women and one another Finalist of the PROSE Award for Best Book in Literature by the Association of American Publishers Mary Shelley Emily Bront George Eliot Olive Schreiner and Virginia Woolf they all wrote dazzling books that forever changed the way we see history In Outsiders award winning biographer Lyndall Gordon shows how these five novelists shared more than talent In a time when a woman's reputation was her security each of these women lost hers They were unconstrained by convention writing against the grain of their contemporaries prophetically imagining a different future We have long known the individual greatness of each of these writers but in linking their creativity to their lives as outcasts Gordon throws new light on the genius they share All five lost their mothers in childbirth or at a young age With no female role model present they learned from books and sometimes from an enlightened mentor Crucially each had to imagine what a woman could be in order to invent a voice of her own The passion in their own lives infused their fiction Writing with passionate intelligence of her own Gordon reveals that these renegade writers inspired a new breed of women who wished to change a world locked in war violence exploitation and sexual abuse Gordon's biographies have always shown the indelible connection between life and art an intuitive exciting and revealing approach that has been highly praised In Outsiders she crafts nuanced portraits of Shelley Bront Eliot Schreiner and Woolf naming each of these writers as prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer and shows how they came they saw and they left us changed Today following the tsunami of women's protest at widespread abuse we do more than read them we listen and live with their astonishing bravery and eloquence

John O. Jordan, Robert L. Patten, 2003-07-28 This wide ranging and innovative collection of essays addresses important issues in cultural studies and the history of the book Multidisciplinary in approach the essays consider different aspects of the production circulation and consumption of printed texts throughout the nineteenth century Topics studied include market trends modes of publication the use of pseudonyms by women writers readerships and reading ideologies and copyright law and the book examines a wide range of printed materials from valentines advertisements illustrations and fashionable annuals to the more traditional literary genres of poetry fiction and periodical essays The authors under discussion include Dickens the Brontës George Eliot Meredith and Walter Pater Contributors draw on speech act reader response and gender theory in addition to various historical narratological materialist and bibliographical perspectives

Medieval Women Writers Katharina M. Wilson, 1984 This is one of the first anthologies devoted to the writings of women in the Middle Ages The fifteen women whose works are represented span seven centuries eight languages and ten regions or nationalities Many are recognized taught and anthologized in their own countries but have been inaccessible to students in English Others are little read today because their literary fortunes have paralleled fluctuations in literary taste and literary patronage Katharina M Wilson's introduction to the volume places these writers in historical context and explores the question of the female imagination and who these women were who were writing at a time when very few women were literate and most literature sacred and secular was penned by men Each of the fifteen chapters has been written by a different scholar and includes a biographical and critical introduction to the writer a representative selection of her works in translation and a bibliography

Nineteenth-Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question Catherine Ramsey-Portolano, 2020-10-01 Nineteenth Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question focuses on the literary journalistic and epistolary production of Italian woman writer Neera pseudonym for Anna Radius Zuccari one of the most prolific and successful women writers of late nineteenth century Italy This study proposes to bring Neera out of the shadows of literary marginality to which she has long been confined by analyzing her contribution to literary and cultural debates as testimony to the pivotal role she played in the creation of a female literary voice within the Italian fin de siècle context Drawing from the Anglo American feminist critical tradition modern Italian feminist theory on the maternal order and sexual difference and a close reading of

Neera's literary theoretical and epistolary writings this volume examines Neera's work from a three pronged perspective as promoter of a maternal order in contrast to the existent paternal order as one of few women writers to participate actively in Italy's verismo movement and as epistolary correspondent of leading representatives within fin de siècle Italian literary and journalistic circles Nineteenth Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question represents the first monographic volume in English dedicated exclusively to this important Italian woman writer repositioning her within the Italian literary landscape and canon

Journey of Gujarati Women Writers: from Regionalism to Globalism Dr. Pratixa Parekh, 2024-08-28 For my research I have conducted a comparative study of the select fiction by Gujarati women writers in its original Gujarati and in English translation The primary texts considered for the same consists of some of the famous fiction by well know Gujarati authors Saat Pagla Akashma by Kundanika Kapadia Vaad by Ila Arab Mehta Andhari Galima Safed Tapka by Himanshi Shelat and two anthologies of Gujarati short stories translated in English Speech and Silence by Rita Kothari and New Horizons of Women's Writing by Amina Amin and Manju Verma For this comparative study I have applied Andre Lefevere's 1945 1996 conceptual framework of Translation as a Rewriting of the Original and his concepts of four constraints namely Ideology Poetics Patronage and Universe of Discourse Apart from this another important aim of my research was to examine the representation of female gender and scrutinize any instance of manipulation to create a different and more acceptable image of the women of Gujarat Often it has been observed that the translator's personal prejudices and cultural background affect the meaning of the original text as well as the character portrayal to suit the convenience of the target language culture readers The book also involved a study of the literature of Gujarat with particular focus on the arrival and contributions of women writers to the Gujarati literary spectrum a comparative analysis of the representation of women in fiction by male and female writers of the state Along with mainstream literature folk and tribal literatures too have been considered especially the gender images they portray I have scrutinised select excerpts from both the original fiction and their translations of the primary texts to examine any instances of misrepresentation or ambiguity at socio cultural linguistic front as well as in the representation of female self with a theoretical background of general translation theory and Lefevere's theory in particular with fascinating findings at the end of the research endeavour In recent years translation studies has emerged as a major academic discipline along with the rise of translation industry with the availability of multiple foreign language texts available in English as well as Indian languages and vice versa This booming industry also promised ample opportunities to translators assuring not only prestige but also financial security However the point under scrutiny is that does the commercialization of the translation industry promote quality translations In such circumstances it is essential to conduct a survey to analyse the quality of translations produced and to provide a better guideline to the aspiring translators to make them better equipped with translation technique and theory to help them produce good quality translations while overcoming various hurdles at linguistic cultural and stylistic levels which are capable to represent the region culture society writer and literature of the original language This research focuses on this relatively new and less paved area and it is a humble initiative in this direction with an aim to spread awareness towards this much neglected aspect of translation activity
