Female Bildungsroman In English:

The Female Bildungsroman in English Laura Sue Fuderer, 1990 Fuderer's introductory essay traces the academic discussion of the topic from the early 1970s to the present the bibliography lists 133 books articles and dissertations that deal either with the genre of the female bildungsroman or with novels described as such and written by women

Margaret Atwood and the Female Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams, 2017-03-02 Examining Margaret Atwood's work in the context of the complex history of the Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams explores how the genre has been appropriated by women writers in the second half of the twentieth century She demonstrates that Atwood's early work her own coming of age fiction including unpublished works as well as The Edible Woman Surfacing and Lady Oracle both engages with and works against the paradigms of identity which are traditionally associated with the genre Making extensive use of unpublished manuscripts in the Atwood Collection at the University of Toronto McWilliams uncovers influences that shaped Atwood's fashioning of identity in her early novels paying particular attention to Atwood's preoccupation with survival as a key symbol of Canadian literature culture and identity She also considers the genre's afterlife on display in Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace The Blind Assassin and Moral Disorder in which the formulations of selfhood and identity in Atwood's early fiction are revisited and developed Atwood emerges as a writer who self consciously invokes and then undercuts the traditions of the Bildungsroman a turn that may be read as a means of at once interrogating and perpetuating the form McWilliams's book furthers our understanding of subjectivity in Atwood's fiction and contributes to ongoing conversations about the role gender and cultural contexts play in reframing generic boundaries

Unbecoming Women Susan Fraiman, 1993 Unbecoming Women unpacks the ideological baggage of the Bildungsroman and turns to conduct books and novels of development by women for a new poetics of growing up In subtle readings of works by Frances Burney Jane Austen Charlotte Bronte and George Eliot Fraiman argues that a heroine's progress toward masterful selfhood is by no means assured Focusing on counternarratives in which girls do not enter the world so much as flounder on its doorstep Fraiman suggests that becoming a woman involves de formation disorientation and the loss of authority Written with grace and theoretical mastery Unbecoming Women emphasises the dialectical as well as subversive aspects of a genre long considered homogeneous The result is a compelling contribution to feminist genre criticism that charting female destiny in Georgian and Victorian texts also postmodernizes the novel of development

Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics

Jeannette Armstrong and her Feminism of Decolonisation Fátima SUSANA AMANTE, 2014-05-09 Desde un punto de vista cuantitativo los estudios culturales ocupan sin duda un espacio menor Sin embargo los tres artículos aquí presentados dan cuenta de la variedad de perspectivas posibles dentro de este apartado No solo abarcan estos estudios diferentes géneros literarios sino que recorren diferentes pocas históricas desde el renacimiento hasta nuestros días As destaca la recepción de la obra de Shakespeare adaptada a los principios estéticos del siglo XVIII español la aparición de un problema tan actual como la violencia doméstica en el teatro y el cine de mediados del siglo XX o la vinculación de posicionamientos contraculturales de la generación Beat en la música de Bob Dylan Todos estos estudios exploran pues la relación entre las prácticas culturales la vida diaria y los contextos históricos en los que se producen Como suele ser habitual gran parte de las contribuciones presentadas en este volumen se centran en el estudio del aprendizaje del inglés como segunda lengua una de las principales preocupaciones del sistema educativo español en estos momentos tanto en la etapa preuniversitaria como universitaria Es lógico por tanto que estos jóvenes investigadores muestren interés por un asunto que atañe a un elevado número de estudiantes en la sociedad actual Los estudios van desde el análisis de libros de texto utilizados en la enseñanza del inglés para comprobar si estos textos adoptan correctamente las cuatro destrezas básicas listening speaking speaking writing al aprendizaje de la lengua desde el punto de vista de una aproximación comunicativa hasta la relación de la prosodia y la utilización de audífonos por parte de personas sordas o la percepción que tienen los estudiantes de la pronunciación del inglés. Como se ve, problemas muy cercanos a la realidad pedagógica. Las contribuciones literarias se centran exclusivamente en autores del siglo XX, incluida una adaptación al Londres actual de una obra de Shakespeare pero recorren todos los géneros literarios así como el cine. En general, estos estudios se fijan en obras concretas y las analizan desde perspectivas culturales, sociológicas o psicológicas. Podemos encontrar autores consagrados como Theodore Roethke y Ted Hughes o escritoras más localistas como la canadiense Jeannette Armstrong y sobresalen miradas postmodernistas tanto en el ámbito de la novela como del cine. En definitiva, se trata de una selección de artículos altamente prometedora que supone un claro desafío al futuro de los Estudios Ingleses. Por todo ello, hay que felicitar a todos los participantes y sobre todo a los editores de este volumen que han demostrado una enorme capacidad de trabajo y entusiasmo.

Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008-02-14

In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives. The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions: the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World. Through its combination of chapters on thematic, generic and discursive features, Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization.

SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set: order 5 vols. The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration. The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves into Modernism. A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series' total contents.

Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams. Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large, fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd. Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

Chick Lit and Postfeminism Stephanie Harzewski, 2011 The author offers a scholarly dissection of chick lit from a post feminist perspective She analyzes the novel Bridget Jones Diary and the HBO series Sex and the City while making parallels back to writings of Jane Austen and the Victorian novel in general She looks at what these works say about women in society and whether they are just an escape or a serious reflection of women's concerns
