Tonnoma's Story Rebekka Grun, 2021-03-22 This story is based on actual events and experiences of numerous women and directly drew from the results of qualitative research on the factors impeding women's ability to work in Burkina Faso. It offers readers a glimpse into the daily lives of women in rural areas that want to work. Women's Health and Fitness Guide Michele Kettles, Colette L. Cole, Brenda S. Wright, 2006 Examining the benefits of exercise for women from osteoporosis prevention to reducing the risk of cardiovascular disease, this book reviews the physiological fitness differences between men and women. It also helps women to tailor an exercise programme to their stage in life: adolescence, pre-menopause, menopause, post-menopause, and ageing. Women, Culture, and Development World Institute for Development Economics Research, 1995 Community by Seyla Benhabib. Women in Mass Communication Pamela J. Creedon, Judith Cramer, 2007 The effect of feminism on the field of mass communication is more important now than ever. With a particular emphasis on race, culture, and ethnicity, leading scholars in the field provide compelling analyses of the ways in which feminist theory and feminist perspectives affect mass communication. Rebuilding Lives Post-disaster Julie Drolet, 2019 Social workers are increasingly engaged in supporting individuals and communities in long-term disaster recovery. Rebuilding Lives Post Disaster brings together an international team of social work researchers who have investigated the experiences, perspectives, challenges, and complexities in disaster recovery. It features country case studies drawing from field research undertaken in disaster-affected communities in Canada, the United States, Australia, India, Pakistan, Taiwan, Sri Lanka, and China. In so doing, the volume provides a comprehensive perspective on the realities of disaster recovery and explores key concepts such as resilience, community-based disaster risk reduction, and social and gendered construction of vulnerability and capabilities. Undergraduate and graduate students and professionals in the fields of social work, community development, international social work, emergency management, and related fields will find the text to be a helpful resource. Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form? Do different groups develop culture-related themes? Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told? Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories? How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story? Which writers of color should be added to the canon? Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time? How does a person of color write for white publishers, editors, and readers? Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns. It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers. This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America, ranging from African Americans to Native Americans, Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans. The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers, and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies SADC Gender Protocol 2017 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Makamure, Lucia, 2017-10-04 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol its updating implementation and tracking Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015 SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable development Goals SDGs Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016 In July 2017 the Ministers adopted a Monitoring Evaluation and Reporting Framework MERF that will be the basis of future reporting Now in its ninth edition the 2017 Barometer is the first assessment of the Post 2015 SADC Gender Protocol Moving with the times the Alliance has expanded the two key main yardsticks in the Barometer the SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI and the Citizen Score Card CSC The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice choice and control The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region A wealth of data insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi media formats The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50 50 by 2030 The Female Frontier Glenda Riley, 1988 Examines in rich detail the daily lives of pioneer women Journal of American History Anyone interested in women s history and western history will want to read this Pacific Historical Review Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved inquiries that social science researchers can use to examine global public health issues and understand social issues relating to health in different population groups and regions Examples of social science research in global public health areas and concerns as well as population groups The Handbook of Social Sciences and Global Public Health is a useful reference for students researchers lecturers practitioners and policymakers in global health public health and social science disciplines and libraries in universities and health and social care institutions It offers readers a good understanding of the issues that can impact the health and well being of people in society which may lead to culturally sensitive health and social care for people that ultimately will lead to a more equitable society worldwide Literary Theory: The Basics Hans

Bertens,2017-07-14 This third edition of Hans Bertens bestselling book is an essential guide to the often confusing and complicated world of literary theory Exploring a broad range of topics from Marxist and feminist criticism to postmodernism and new historicism Literary Theory The Basics covers contemporary topics including reception theory and reader response theory the new criticism of postmodernism the after theory debate post humanism biopolitics and animal studies aesthetics Literary Theory The Basics helps readers to approach the many theories and debates in this field with confidence Now with updated case studies and further reading this is an essential purchase for anyone who strives to understand literary theory today Literary Theory Johannes Willem Bertens,2001 Providing the ideal first step in understanding the often bewildering world of literary theory this text is an easy to follow and clearly presented introduction to this fascinating area

Supporting Women's Career Advancement ,2006 An e book that addresses some of the issues still facing women in the development and advancement of their managerial careers Inspite of women s parity in higher education and initial success in achieving work experiences they still fall behind in numbers when it comes to senior executive jobs Three of the papers explore the barriers that still exist and another two look at how women do succeed in advancement The last paper looks at how women use role models Together these papers provide a balanced picture of the barriers still facing women managers and the enablers which are helping women Sanity and Success for Working Women Marilyn J. Fettner, MCC, NCC, LCPC

,Linda I. McCabe,2017-03-16 ISIS in Iraq Munqith Dagher,Karl Kaltenthaler,Michele J. Gelfand,Arie Kruglanski,Ian McCulloh,2023 This book explores the social and psychological factors behind how ISIS was able to rise in Iraq control most of it and why most of that population eventually turned on it Synthesized by some of the foremost experts on terrorism the analysis is based on a unique array of public opinion data from surveys focus groups and interviews Turkish Migration 2016 Selected Papers Jeffrey H. Cohen,Deniz Eroglu,Ibrahim Sirkeci,2016-11-15 Turkish Migration 2016 Selected Papers Compiled by Deniz Eroglu Jeffrey H Cohen Ibrahim Sirkeci offers a selection of papers presented at the Migration Conference 2016 held in Vienna Austria The pieces collected here are just a sample of the work that was presented at the 2016 Turkish Migration conference Our meeting the 4th symposium on Turkish migration brought together scholars from around the globe to share their research and debate mobility As in our earlier symposia we explored demography sociology culture and art as they are related to mobility New this year was an increasing awareness of the return of Turks to Turkey from Germany the challenges faced by Syrian refugees who have settled in Turkey or are passing through the country on their way to Europe as well as issues facing Kurdish minorities Roma and other minority groups living in or transiting through Turkey This collection is challenged by two competing poles One pole is centered in xenophobic nationalism Around this pole migrants and refugees are described as criminals religious fanatics and moochers who challenge the working class and the freedoms that come with life in the West The second pole laments the insecurity that migrants and refugees face Around this pole movers are described as victims who lack so much at home In this example migrants and refugees are moving because there are no jobs and few prospects for work civil liberties are proscribed and banned in the face of state imposed limits and there are no opportunities to strike out on a unique path to the future Complicating both poles is the 24 hour news cycle that denies us the opportunity to understand and analyze Instead we are forced to pick one pole or the other In either case the outcome dehumanizes the mover signals their pathos and emphasizes why they are different

Understanding Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2005 Edited by Peter Hunt a leading figure in the field this book introduces the study of children's literature addressing theoretical questions as well as the most relevant critical approaches to the discipline The fourteen chapters draw on insights from academic disciplines ranging from cultural and literary studies to education and psychology and include an essay on what writers for children think about their craft The result is a fascinating array of perspectives on key topics in children's literature as well as an introduction to such diverse concerns as literacy ideology stylistics feminism history culture and bibliotherapy An extensive general bibliography is complemented by lists of further reading for each chapter and a glossary defines critical and technical terms making the book accessible for those coming to the field or to a particular approach for the first time In this second edition there are four entirely new chapters contributors have revisited and revised or rewritten seven of the chapters to reflect new thinking while the remaining three are classic essays widely acknowledged to be definitive Understanding Children's Literature will not only be an invaluable guide for students of literature or education but it will also inform and enrich the practice of teachers and librarians

Organizational Obliviousness Alesha Doan, Shannon Portillo, 2019-06-13 Exploring efforts to integrate women into combat forces in the military we investigate how resistance to equity becomes entrenched ultimately excluding women from being full participants in the workplace Based on focus groups and surveys with members of Special Operations we found most of the resistance is rooted in traditional gender stereotypes that are often bolstered through organizational policies and practices The subtlety of these practices often renders them invisible We refer to this invisibility as organizational obliviousness Obliviousness exists at the individual level it becomes reinforced at the cultural level and in turn cultural practices are entrenched institutionally by policies Organizational obliviousness may not be malicious or done to actively exclude or harm but the end result is that it does both Throughout this Element we trace the ways that organizational obliviousness shapes individuals culture and institutional practices throughout the organization Waging Gendered Wars Paige Whaley Eager,2016-02-24 Waging Gendered Wars examines through the analytical lens of feminist international relations theory how U S military women have impacted and been affected by the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Although women were barred from serving formally in ground combat positions within the U S armed forces during both wars U S female soldiers are being killed in action By examining how U S military women s agency as soldiers veterans and casualties of war affect the planning and execution of war Whaley Eager assesses the ways in which the global world of international politics and warfare has become localized in the life and death narratives of female service personnel impacted by combat experience homelessness military sexual trauma PTSD and the deaths of fellow soldiers Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment in Education Delfín Ortega-Sánchez, Esther Sanz De La Cal, Jaime Ibáñez Quintana, Beatrice Borghi,2022-02-23 African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation Nicholas Oguge, Desalegn Ayal, Lydia Adeleke, Izael da Silva,2021-05-20 This open access book discusses current thinking and presents the main issues and challenges associated with climate change in Africa It introduces evidences from studies and projects which show how climate change adaptation is being and may continue to be successfully implemented in African countries Thanks to its scope and wide range of themes surrounding climate change the ambition is that this book will be a lead publication on the topic which may be regularly updated and hence capture further works Climate change is a major global challenge However some geographical regions are more severely affected than others One of these regions is the African continent Due to a combination of unfavourable socio economic and meteorological conditions African countries are particularly vulnerable to climate change and its impacts The recently released IPCC special report Global Warming of 1.5o C outlines the fact that keeping global warming by the level of 1.5o C is possible but also suggested that an increase by 2o C could lead to crises with crops agriculture fed by rain could drop by 50% in some African countries by 2020 and livestock production could damage water supplies and pose an additional threat to coastal areas The 5th Assessment Report produced by IPCC predicts that wheat may disappear from Africa by 2080 and that maize a staple will fall significantly in southern Africa Also arid and semi arid lands are likely to increase by up to 8% with severe ramifications for livelihoods poverty eradication and meeting the SDGs Pursuing appropriate adaptation strategies is thus vital in order to address the current and future challenges posed by a changing climate It is against this background that the African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation is being published It contains papers prepared by scholars representatives from social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies undertaking research and or executing climate change projects in Africa and working with communities across the African continent Encompassing over 100 contributions from across Africa it is the most comprehensive publication on climate change adaptation in Africa ever produced
