Femicide In Global Perspective:

Femicide in Global Perspective Diana E. H. Russell, Roberta A. Harmes, 2001 Diana E H Russell acclaimed author and researcher on sexual violence against girls and women and co editor Roberta Harmes have produced a groundbreaking volume on femicide the killing of females by males because they are female Dr Russell has contributed seven provocative original chapters to Femicide in Global Perspective This anthology includes chapters on woman killing in Algeria Australia Canada China Israel South Africa other Southern African countries the United States and brief testimony from other nations Together the authors brilliantly demonstrate how naming femicide helps to expose and bring attention to this most extreme yet neglected form of violence against women and the urgent need to put femicide on local national and international action agendas

Towards a Global Femicide Index Sandra Walklate, Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Jude McCulloch, Jane Maree Maher, 2019-12-16 Increasingly there is global attention on the prevalence of women's deaths resulting from intimate partner violence Campaigns such as Counting Dead Women in Australia the Femicide Census in England the Canadian Femicide Observatory and the emergence of family violence death review teams globally build on the work of agencies such as the United Nations and the World Health Organisation highlighting the fatal consequences of intimate partner violence for women around the world This book considers the need for and the steps to be taken towards creating a meaningful framework for a global index of women's deaths from intimate partner violence While there are global indices for deaths that relate to public violence such as terrorism there is to date no systematic global count of killings of women by their intimate partners It considers the possibilities and challenges that arise in counting intimate femicide It argues that such an exercise needs to avoid narrow empiricism and instead be part of a broader feminist political project aimed at ending violence against women This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology sociology law policing and politics
