The Care Dilemma David Goodhart, 2024-10-24 A FINANCIAL TIMES AND THE SPECTATOR BOOK OF THE YEAR Important Financial Times Serious and thought provoking The Critic Brave Richard Reeves Family life has changed dramatically over the past 60 years Greater choice and autonomy especially for women and a more equal domestic sphere have brought great gains for human freedom However argues David Goodhart there have been losses and unintended consequences too in family instability children s declining mental health and the ever rising demands on the welfare state and social care system Sharply falling birthrates also present major challenges For many people especially in the bottom half of the income spectrum the costs are now too high The Care Dilemma argues that we need a new policy settlement that supports gender equality while also recognising the importance of stable families and community life and that sees having children as a public as well as private good

The XX Factor Alison Wolf, 2013-10-01 Noted British academic and journalist Alison Wolf offers a surprising and thoughtful study of the professional elite and examines the causes and limits of women's rise and the consequences of their difficult choices. The gender gap is closing. Today for the first time in history tens of millions of women are spending more time at the boardroom table than the kitchen table. These professional women are highly ambitious and highly educated, enjoying the same lifestyle prerogatives as their male counterparts. They are working longer and marrying later if they marry at all. They are heading Fortune 500 companies and appearing on the covers of Forbes and Businessweek. They represent a special type of working woman, the kind who doesn't just punch a clock for a paycheck but derives self-worth and pleasure from wielding professional power. At the same time that the gender gap is narrowing, the gulf is widening among women themselves. While blockbuster books such as Lean In focus only on women in high-pressure jobs, in reality there are four women in traditionally female roles for every Sheryl Sandberg. In this revealing and deeply intelligent book, Alison Wolf examines why more educated women work longer hours, why having children early is a good idea, and how feminism created a less equal world. Her ideas are sure to provoke and surprise as she challenges much of what the liberal and conservative media consider to be women's best interests.

The Real Wealth of Nations Riane Tennenhaus Eisler, 2007      This Is Not How I Thought It Would Be Kristin Maschka, 2009-10-06. An important look at motherhood and family dynamics in the 21st century by the national spokesperson of Mothers More. Kristin Maschka, past president of Mothers More, a national organization with more than 140 chapters across the country, shines a spotlight on the complex issues mothers face at work, in their homes, their lives, and with their partners, and shows how the hidden assumptions that society, the media, public policy, and women themselves hold about motherhood can sabotage a mother's happiness. Maschka weaves together her own story, anecdotes from mothers all over the country, and a deep knowledge of history and society to offer mothers a comforting, often funny read that helps them see themselves and the world around them in a whole new way. At the same time, she provides specific actions women can take today to remodel motherhood to live the lives they always thought they would.

Only Hope Vanessa L. Fong, 2004. This is the first book to examine the high-pressure lives of teenagers born under China's one-child family policy. Based on a survey of 2,273 students and 27 months of participant observation in Chinese homes and schools, it explores the social, economic, and psychological consequences of the one-child policy.
