Feminism And Institutions Dialogues On Feminist Theory:

Feminism and Institutions: Theoretical Dialogues Linda Kauffman, 1989 Women's Studies in the 1990s Joanna de Groot, Mary Maynard, 2016-07-27 This interdisciplinary collection is concerned with important theoretical and methodological issues facing women's studies. Drawing on feminist theory and politics, it addresses a range of questions raised for women's studies by work conducted in history, literature, politics, and sociology. The editors provide a context for these debates in their introductory essay, which gives an overview of the development of women's studies and reflects on its current position. In their concluding chapter, they also suggest a framework from which women's studies might move forward.

Feminism Without Women Tania Modleski, 2014-09-03 In a series of essays scrutinizing feminist and post-structuralist positions, Tania Modleski examines the myth of postfeminism and its operation in popular culture, especially popular film and cultural studies. First published in 1991. Feminisms Redux Diane Price Herndl, 2009 Special Delivery Linda S.

Kauffman, 1992-03 Though letter writing is almost a lost art, twentieth-century writers have mimed the epistolary mode as a means of reevaluating the theme of love. In Special Delivery, Linda S. Kauffman places the narrative treatment of love in historical context, showing how politics, economics, and commodity culture have shaped the meaning of desire. Kauffman first considers male writers whose works testing the boundaries of genre and gender imitate love letters: Viktor Shklovsky's Zoo, Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita, Roland Barthes's A Lover's Discourse, and Jacques Derrida's The Post Card. She then turns to three novels by women who are more preoccupied with politics than passion: Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook, Alice Walker's The Color Purple, and Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale. By juxtaposing these women's productions with the men's production of Woman, Special Delivery dismantles the polarities between male and female theory and fiction, high and low culture, male critical theory and feminist literary criticism. Kauffman demonstrates how all seven texts mercilessly expose the ideology of individualism and romantic love; each presents alternate paradigms of desire wrested from Oedipus, grounded in history and politics, giving epistolarity a distinctively postmodern stamp. Engendering the Subject Sally

Robinson, 1991-01-01 Viewing the novels of Doris Lessing, Angela Carter, and Gayle Jones through feminist critical theory, argues that female subjectivity is engendered by women characters engaging systems that rely on the figure of the woman for coherence. Paper edition, unseen. 14/95. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR. Black Women,

Writing and Identity Carole Boyce-Davies, 2002-09-11 Black Women Writing and Identity is an exciting work by one of the most imaginative and acute writers around. The book explores a complex and fascinating set of interrelated issues, establishing the significance of such wide-ranging subjects as re-mapping, re-naming, and cultural crossings; tourist ideologies and playful world travelling; gender, heritage, and identity; African women's writing and resistance to domination; marginality, effacement, and decentering gender; language and the politics of location. Carole Boyce-Davies is at the forefront of attempts to broaden the discourse surrounding the representation of and by black women and women of colour. Black Women Writing and Identity represents an extraordinary achievement in this field taking our understanding of identity location and representation to new levels Postmodernism - Local Effects, Global Flows Vincent B. Leitch, 1996-07-01 Through informative original and incisive case studies in postmodern economics philosophy literary criticism feminism pedagogy poetry painting historiography and cultural studies this book demonstrates that disorganization and disaggregation characterize postmodern times Postmodern phenomena Leitch argues resemble imploded geological formations with historical strata in kaleidoscopic disarray and that neither economics nor politics nor culture escapes this novel form Among the influential figures analyzed are Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard John Caputo Jacques Derrida Sandra Gilbert Susan Gubar Henry Giroux Stanley Aronowitz Linda Hutcheon Fredric Jameson J Hillis Miller Pentti Saarikoski and Julian Schnabel

Out of Context Daniel Balderston, 1993-03-12 By providing the historical context for some of the writer's best loved and least understood works this study gives us a new sense of Borges place within the context of contemporary literature

Raising the Dead Sharon Patricia Holland, 2000-03-29 Through a series of literary and cultural readings argues that African Americans have a special relation to death arising from their death like social marginality Gender in Real Time Kath Weston, 2018-10-24 After decades of innovative scholarship that galvanized a field and shattered a world of preconceptions the study of gender now appears to languish It has been a long while since the publication of a provocative and influential text like Judith Butler's Gender Trouble Kath Weston argues that the problem is one of time For too long gender studies has been preoccupied with the visual with ample attention given to issues of performativity and embodiment all at the expense of time Gender in Real Time makes a provocative and important new argument that will revolutionize the field of gender studies Introducing temporality into the equation and examining the ways gender exists Weston uses the tools of political economy the history of mathematics Darwinian evolution and a bit of physics to propel gender studies toward the future Startling new concepts like zero gender and the meaning of time claims are introduced Moreover the impact of our time sensitive society with its ever increasing need for speed and accelerated development is explored for its effect on the production of gender With chapter titles including Unsexed The Ghosts of Gender Past and The Global Economy Next Time this book offers a pioneering addition to the field that will forever change our notion of gender Deconstruction

Christopher Norris, 2003-12-16 Deconstruction Theory and Practice has been acclaimed as by far the most readable concise and authoritative guide to this topic Without oversimplifying or glossing over the challenges Norris makes deconstruction more accessible to the reader The volume focuses on the works of Jacques Derrida which caused this seismic shift in critical thought as well as the work of North American critics Paul de Man Geoffrey Hartman J Hillis Miller and Harold Bloom In this third revised edition Norris builds on his 1991 Afterword with an entirely new Postscript reflecting upon recent critical debate The Postscript includes an extensive list of recommended reading complementing what was already one of the most useful bibliographies available Feminist Theory Joan Nordquist, 1992 Canetti and Nietzsche Harriet

Murphy,1997-01-01 This first full length study investigates the profound implications of the peculiarly original sense of humor found in Elias Canetti s single novel a facetiousness understood in a Nietzschean sense as a revolutionary aesthetic
