Feminism Beyond Modernism:

Feminism Beyond Modernism Elizabeth A. Flynn, 2002 Feminist Rhetorical Resilience Elizabeth A Flynn, Patricia Sotirin, Ann Brady, 2012-06-16 Although it is well known in other fields the concept of resilience has not been addressed explicitly by feminist rhetoricians This collection develops it in readings of rhetorical situations across a range of social contexts and national cultures Contributors demonstrate that resilience offers an important new conceptual frame for feminist rhetoric with emphasis on agency change and hope in the daily lives of individuals or groups of individuals disempowered by social or material forces Collectively these chapters create a robust conception of resilience as a complex rhetorical process redeeming it from its popular association with individual heroism through an important focus on relationality community and an ethics of connection Resilience in this volume is a specifically rhetorical response to complicated forces in individual lives Through it Feminist Rhetorical Resilience widens the interpretive space within which rhetoricians can work Feminist Connections Katherine Fredlund, Kerri Hauman, Jessica Ouellette, 2020-09-29 Highlights feminist rhetorical practices that disrupt and surpass boundaries of time and space In 1917 Alice Paul and other suffragists famously picketed in front of the White House while holding banners with short pithy sayings such as Mr President How long must women wait for Liberty Their juxtaposition of this short phrase with the image of the White House a symbol of liberty and justice relies on the same rhetorical tactics as memes a genre contemporary feminists use frequently to make arguments about reproductive rights Black Lives Matter sex positivity and more Many such connections between feminists of different spaces places and eras have yet to be considered let alone understood Feminist Connections Rhetoric and Activism across Time Space and Place reconsiders feminist rhetorical strategies as linked intergenerational and surprisingly consistent despite the emergence of new forms of media and intersectional considerations Contributors to this volume highlight continuities in feminist rhetorical practices that are often invisible to scholars obscured by time new media and wildly different cultural political and social contexts Thus this collection takes a nonchronological approach to the study of feminist rhetoric grouping chapters by rhetorical practice rather than time content or choice of media By connecting historical contemporary and future trajectories this collection develops three feminist rhetorical frameworks revisionary rhetorics circulatory rhetorics and response rhetorics A theorization of these frameworks explains how feminist rhetorical practices past and present rely on similar but diverse methods to create change and fight oppression Identifying these strategies not only helps us rethink feminist rhetoric from an academic perspective but also allows us to enact feminist activist rhetorics beyond the academy during a time in which feminist scholarship cannot afford to remain behind its hallowed yet insular walls

Feminist Rhetorical Practices Jacqueline Jones Royster, Gesa E Kirsch, 2012-02-10 This book reviews major developments in feminist rhetorical studies in recent decades and explores the theoretical methodological and ethical impact of this work on rhetoric composition and literacy studies The authors argue that there has been a dramatic shift in what is studied diverse populations settings contexts communities etc how these communities are studied methodologically epistemologically and how work in the field is evaluated new criteria are required for new kinds of studies The New Modernist Studies Douglas Mao,2021-02-04 This is the first book specifically devoted to the new modernist studies Bringing together a range of perspectives on the past present and future of this vibrant complicated scholarly enterprise the collection reconsiders its achievements and challenges as both a mode of inquiry and an institutional formation In its first section the volume offers a fresh history of the new modernist studies origins amid the intellectual configurations of the end of the twentieth century and changing views of the value influence and scope of modernism In the second section a dozen leading scholars examine recent trends in modernist scholarship to suggest possible new paths of research showing how the field continues to engage with other areas of study and how it makes a case for the ongoing meaning of modernist literature and art in the contemporary world Post-colonial Intertexts Geetha Ramanathan,2023-02-27 Using Kamel Daoud s The Meursault Investigation and Juan Gabriel V squez s The Secret History of Costaguana this book asks you to serve as the jury on euro modernism specifically the canonical texts Camus s The Stranger and Conrad s Nostromo The book reveals the extent to which euro modernist aesthetics was culpable in rationalising colonialism Literary Modernism and Beyond Richard Lehan,2012-01-09 Early modernists turned to theories of consciousness and aestheticism to combat what they saw as the hostility of naturalism and to find new ways of thinking about reality This consciousness took various forms including a Jamesian sense of moral ambiguity Proustian time spots and Bergsonian intuition but the Nietzschean theory that reality depends on perception connected them all This modernist movement reached a distinguished level of achievement with novelists Thomas Mann Marcel Proust and James Joyce but a succession of counterinfluences transformed it after World War II when elitism and a desire for a homogeneous culture gave way to diversity and elements of mass culture In Literary Modernism and Beyond Richard Lehan tracks the evolution of the movement from its emergence in the late nineteenth century to its recent incarnations In this wide ranging study Lehan demonstrates how and why the originary vision of modernism changed radically after it gained prominence With critical discussions on a wide variety of major modernist writers intellectuals and artists and their works including Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein T S Eliot Wallace Stevens Andre Gide Franz Kafka Zora Neale Hurston Ian Fleming and J K Rowling Lehan examines the large scale changes that came as critical authority moved from one generation to another Both popular culture and literary criticism especially critical theory acted as key agents of change and structuralism poststructuralism and concerns with gender and race also greatly influenced the movement Along with a process of decline and a nihilism that emerged from the modernist movement these changes created a new literary reality and with it a new textuality Literary Modernism and Beyond treats modernism s major innovations of myth symbol and structure not as individual pieces but as interrelated contributions to a historical process the product of three generations of transformations Lehan s analysis provides a more complete understanding than ever before

of the movement itself Rhetorical Feminism and This Thing Called Hope Cheryl Glenn, 2018-09-04 Rhetoric and feminism have yet to coalesce into a singular recognizable field In this book author Cheryl Glenn advances the feminist rhetorical project by introducing a new theory of rhetorical feminism Clarifying how feminist rhetorical practices have given rise to this innovative approach Rhetorical Feminism and This Thing Called Hope equips the field with tools for a more expansive and productive dialogue Glenn s rhetorical feminism offers an alternative to hegemonic rhetorical histories theories and practices articulated in Western culture This alternative theory engages addresses and supports feminist rhetorical practices that include openness authentic dialogue and deliberation interrogation of the status quo collaboration respect and progress Rhetorical feminists establish greater representation and inclusivity of everyday rhetors disidentification with traditional rhetorical practices and greater appreciation for alternative means of delivery including silence and listening These tenets are supported by a cogent reconceptualization of the traditional rhetorical appeals situating logos alongside dialogue and understanding ethos alongside experience and pathos alongside valued emotion Threaded throughout the book are discussions of the key features of rhetorical feminism that can be used to negotiate cross boundary mis understandings inform rhetorical theories advance feminist rhetorical research methods and methodologies and energize feminist practices within the university Glenn discusses the power of rhetorical feminism when applied in classrooms the specific ways it inspires and sustains mentoring and the ways it supports administrators especially directors of writing programs Thus the innovative theory of rhetorical feminism a theory rich with tactics and potentially broad applications opens up a new field of research theory and practice at the intersection of rhetoric and feminism Beyond the Victorian/ Modernist Divide Anne-Florence Gillard-Estrada, Anne Besnault-Levita, 2018-03-08 Beyond the Victorian Modernist Divide contributes to a new phase in the Victorian modern debate of traditional periodization through the perspective lens of literature and the visual arts Breaking away from conventionally fixed discourses and dichotomies this book utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to examine the existence of overlaps and unexplored continuities between the Victorians the post Victorians and the modernists including the fields of music architecture design science and social life Furthermore the book remaps the cultural history of two critical meta narratives and their interdependence the myth of high modernism and the myth of Victorianism by building on recent scholarly work and addressing the question of the turn of the century break theory with a new set of arguments and contributions The essays presented within acknowledge the existence of a break theory in modernism but question this theory by re contextualising it while uncovering long masked continuities between artists genres and forms across the divide The collection offers a new approach to modernism Edwardianism and Victorianism utilizing the cross fertilisation of interdisciplinary approaches and by combining contributions that look forward from the Victorians with other contributions that look backward from the modernists While literary modernism and its vexed relationships with the nineteenth century is a central subject of the book further analysis includes artistic discourses and theories stemming from history the visual arts science music and design Each chapter offers a fresh interpretation of individual artists navigating away from characteristic classifications of works authors and cultural phenomena Ultimately the volume argues that though periodization and genre categories play substantial roles in this divide it is also essential to be critically aware of the way cultural history has been and continues to be constructed Feminist Rhetorical Science

Studies Julie Jung, Amanda Booher, 2018-01-30 This edited collection disrupts tendencies in feminist science studies to dismiss rhetoric as having concern only for language and it counters posthumanist theories that ignore human materialities and asymmetries of power as co constituted with and through distinctions such as gender sex race and ability The eight essays of Feminist Rhetorical Science Studies Human Bodies Posthumanist Worlds model methodologies for doing feminist research in the rhetoric of science Collectively they build innovative interdisciplinary bridges across the related but divergent fields of feminism posthumanism new materialism and the rhetoric of science Each essay addresses a question How can feminist rhetoricians of science engage responsibly with emerging theories of the posthuman Some contributors respond with case studies in medical practice fetal ultrasound patient noncompliance medical science the neuroscience of sex differences and health policy drug trials of the U S Food and Drug Administration others respond with a critical review of object oriented ontology and a framework for researching women technical writers in the workplace The contributed essays are in turn framed by a comprehensive introduction and a final chapter from the editors who argue that a key contribution of feminist posthumanist rhetoric is that it rethinks the agencies of people things and practices in ways that can bring about more ethical human relations Individually the contributions offer as much variety as consensus on matters of methodology Together they demonstrate how feminist posthumanist and materialist approaches to science expand our notions of what rhetoric is and does yet they manage to do so without sacrificing what makes their inquiries distinctively rhetorical A Feminist Legacy Suzanne Bordelon, 2009-03-10 The first book length investigation of a pioneering English professor and theorist at Vassar College A Feminist Legacy The Rhetoric and Pedagogy of Gertrude Buck explores Buck s contribution to the fields of education and rhetoric during the Progressive Era By contextualizing Buck s academic and theoretical work within the rise of women s educational institutions like Vassar College the social and political movement toward suffrage and Buck s own egalitarian political and social ideals Suzanne Bordelon offers a scholarly and well informed treatment of Buck s achievements that elucidates the historical and contemporary impact of her work and life Bordelon argues that while Buck did not call herself a feminist she embodied feminist ideals by demanding the full participation of her female students and by challenging power imbalances at every academic social and political level A Feminist Legacy reveals that Vassar College is an undervalued but significant site in the history of women s argumentation and pedagogy Drawing on a rich variety of archival sources including previously unexamined primary material A Feminist Legacy traces the beginnings of feminist theories of argumentation and pedagogy and their lasting legacy within the fields of education and rhetoric Beyond

Feminist Aesthetics Rita Felski, 1989 Beyond Feminist Aesthetics has a dual focus First Rita Felski gives a critical account of current American and European feminist literary theory and second she offers an analysis of contemporary fiction by women drawing in particular on the genres of the autobiographical confession and the novel of self discovery in order to show that this literature raises questions for feminism that cannot be answered in terms of a purely gender based analysis Felski argues that the idea of a feminist aesthetic is a nonissue that feminists have needlessly pursued she suggests in contrast that it is impossible to speak of masculine and feminine subversive and reactionary literary forms in isolation from the social conditions of their production and reception The political value of such works of literature from the standpoint of feminism can be determined only by an investigation of their social functions and effects in relation to the interests of women in a particular historical context This leads her to argue for an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of literature which can integrate literary and social theory and to develop such an approach by drawing upon the model of a feminist counter public sphere Rita Felski has produced a closely reasoned stimulating book that creates a new framework for discussing the relationship between literature and feminist politics It will interest students and teachers of women s studies comparative literature cultural studies and fiction

Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse Magali Cornier Michael, 1996-07-03 Michael analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction While much has been written on various aspects of postmodernism and postmodern fiction and of feminism and feminist fiction very little attention has been given to the postmodern aesthetic strategies that surface in post World War II feminist fiction Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse examines ways in which many widely read and acclaimed novels with feminist impulses engage and transform subversive aesthetic strategies usually associated with postmodern fiction to strengthen their feminist political edge The author discusses many examples of recent feminist postmodern fiction and explores in greater depth Doris Lessing s The Golden Notebook Marge Piercy s Woman on the Edge of Time Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale and Angela Carter s Nights at the Circus She shows that feminist postmodern fiction s emphasis on the material historical situation the link to activist politics and commitment to enacting concrete changes in the world and thus the need to reach a large reading public often results in a blending and transformation of postmodern and realist aesthetic forms Moreover feminist fiction uses deconstructive strategies not only to disrupt the status quo but also to create a space for reconstruction particularly of recreating new forms of female subjectivities and feminist aesthetics

Rereading Modernism Lisa Rado, 2012-08-21 Until about 1986 feminists generally considered modernism a reactionary misogynist and hegemonic mire not worth investigating Since then enough studies of modernism have appeared that 17 feminist critics can now review and debate their treatment of the period They evaluate the progress and goals of the new era of modernist scholarship As the authors in this volume suggest instead of condemning writers for not practicing or portraying an acceptable politics of gender we ought instead to show how their assumptions about the nature of the sexes inform their texts both in their creation and in their reception This also allows examination of the complex and changing relationship between human subjectivity and aesthetics This volume is a highly reflective dialogue introspective and evaluative at a moment of crisis within modernist studies and feminist studies The analysis of critical work on early twentieth century literature not only helps reread and redefine a definition of modernism it also intends to redirect and reintegrate feminist theory

Woolfian Boundaries Anna Burrells, Steve Ellis, 2023-12-15 Woolfian Boundaries explores Woolf's work from perspectives beyond the boundary of her own positions and attitudes taking her coolness toward the provinces and prejudice against the regional novel Letters 6 381 as the starting point for considering her writing in the light of its own limits self declared and otherwise Chapter topics range from Woolf's connections with the Birmingham School of novelists in the 1930s to her interests in environmentalism portraiture photography and the media and her endlessly fascinating relationship with the writings of her contemporaries and predecessors

Feminism, Postfeminism and Legal Theory Dorota Gozdecka, Anne Macduff, 2018-12-19 There is much debate about postfeminism what it is and its role in feminist politics Whilst postfeminism has become increasingly influential in the study of literature popular culture and philosophy it has so far received comparatively little attention in law This book aims to remedy this situation The book brings together feminist legal scholars working in different contexts to examine the idea of postfeminism and assess its contemporary relevance It explores a range of questions including the following Does postfeminism describe an age that follows modernism an age where identity politics has realised its goals and feminism is no longer needed Or does postfeminism describe the feminism of a postmodernist age where identity can mean anything at all

Or differently again does the term capture a new feminism that discredits feminism and attempts to reshape its political consciousness And what might the answers to these questions mean for law and legal theory and a feminist politics of law reform

The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Winifred Bryan Horner, 2010-03-15 Through two previous editions The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has not only introduced new scholars to interdisciplinary research but also become a standard research tool in a number of fields and pointed the way toward future study Adopting research methodologies of revision and recovery this latest edition includes all new material while still following the format of the original and is constructed around bibliographical surveys of both primary and secondary works addressing the Classical Medieval Renaissance and eighteenth through twentieth century periods within the history of rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric doesn't simply update but rather recasts study in the history of rhetoric The authors experienced and well known scholars in their respective fields redefine existing strands of rhetorical study within the periods expand the scope of rhetorical engagement and include additional figures and their works The globalization and expansion of rhetoric are demonstrated in each of these parts and seen clearly in the inclusion of more female rhetors discussions of historical and contemporary electronic resources and examinations of rhetorical practices falling outside the academy and the traditional canon New to this edition is a cumulative review of twentieth century rhetoric along with a thematic index designed to facilitate interdisciplinary or specialized study and scholarly research across the traditional historical periods As programs incorporating rhetorical studies continue to expand at the university level students and researchers are in need of up to date bibliographical resources No other work matches the scope and approach of The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric which carries scholarship on rhetoric into the twenty first century

New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2006 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society
