Catholic and Feminist Mary J. Henold, 2012-06-01 In 1963 as Betty Friedan's Feminine Mystique appeared and civil rights activists marched on Washington a separate but related social movement emerged among American Catholics says Mary Henold Thousands of Catholic feminists both lay women and women religious marched strategized theologized and prayed together building sisterhood and confronting sexism in the Roman Catholic Church In the first history of American Catholic feminism Henold explores the movement from the 1960s through the early 1980s showing that although Catholic feminists had much in common with their sisters in the larger American feminist movement Catholic feminism was distinct and had not been simply imported from outside Catholic feminism grew from within the church rooted in women's own experiences of Catholicism and religious practice Henold argues She identifies the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 as an inspiring but overtly sexist event that enraged and exhilarated Catholic women in equal measure as a catalyst of the movement within the church Catholic feminists regularly explained their feminism in terms of their commitment to a gospel mandate for social justice liberation and radical equality They considered feminism to be a Christian principle Yet as Catholic feminists confronted sexism in the church and the world Henold explains they struggled to integrate the two parts of their self definition Both Catholic culture and feminist culture indicated that such a conjunction was unlikely if not impossible Henold demonstrates that efforts to reconcile faith and feminism reveal both the complex nature of feminist consciousness and the creative potential of religious feminism

Women Embracing Islam Karin van Nieuwkerk,2009-07-21 Many Westerners view Islam as a religion that restricts and subordinates women in both private and public life Yet a surprising number of women in Western Europe and America are converting to Islam What attracts these women to a belief system that is markedly different from both Western Christianity and Western secularism What benefits do they gain by converting and what are the costs How do Western women converts live their new Islamic faith and how does their conversion affect their families and communities How do women converts transmit Islamic values to their children These are some of the questions that Women Embracing Islam seeks to answer In this vanguard study of gender and conversion to Islam leading historians sociologists anthropologists and theologians investigate why non Muslim women in the United States several European countries and South Africa are converting to Islam Drawing on extensive interviews with female converts the authors explore the life experiences that lead Western women to adopt Islam as well as the appeal that various forms of Islam as well as the Nation of Islam have for women The authors find that while no single set of factors can explain why Western women are embracing Islamic faith traditions some common motivations emerge These include an attraction to Islam s high regard for family and community its strict moral and ethical standards and the rationality and spirituality of its theology as well as a disillusionment with Christianity and with the unrestrained sexuality of so much of Western culture Bury the Dead Laurel Dykstra,2013-09-09 Bury the Dead is a collection of personal encounters with death stories of Alzheimer s AIDS cancer hospice suicide murder systemic violence genocide and war In this book a teenager tenderly washes her mother s body a community organizer cries outrage over his blood soaked comrade a father builds a coffin for his infant son martyrs are honored by a former political prisoner a young scholar s experiences in Palestine shape her reading of the Exodus narrative and a community of gardeners plant trees at urban core murder sites Drawing from sources such as the peace movement the Catholic Worker and Occupy these stories make connections between medicine delivery labor picket lines and PICC lines between jazz funeral secondlines and the front lines of countless struggles Part pastoral theology part movement history this book powerfully demonstrates that resisting

Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille,Stephanie Corigliano,2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America: Women in North American Catholicism Rosemary Skinner Keller,Rosemary Radford Ruether,Marie Cantlon,2006 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life Religious and Philosophical Conversion in the Ancient Mediterranean Traditions ,2022-03-07 The interest in interdisciplinary research on the experience of religious conversion or spiritual transformation grows progressively In light of this burgeoning area of study this volume explores conversion or converting experience in the ancient Mediterranean with attention to early Judaism early Christianity and philosophy in the Roman empire The contributions include both historical and philological reconstructions relying on source material and utilizing interdisciplinary approaches Similarly the authors analyze the literary use of the motif of conversion the topic of philosophical conversion as well as ritual social and embodied aspects of spiritual transformation

Integral Ecology for a More Sustainable World Matthew Eaton,Dennis O'Hara,Michael T. Ross,2019-10-25 Laudato Si insists on a revolutionary human response to the public challenges of our time concerning the ecological crisis The volume takes up the revolutionary spirit of Pope Francis and speaks to the economic technological political educational and religious changes needed to overcome the fragile relationships between humans and Earth This volume identifies various systemic factors that have produced the anthropogenic ecological crisis that threatens the planet and uses the ethical vision of Laudato Si to promote practical responses that foster fundamental changes in humanity s relationships with Earth and each other The essays address not only the immediate behavioral changes needed in individual human lives but also the deeper societal changes required if human communities are to live sustainable lives within Earth s integral ecology Thus this volume intentionally focuses on a plurality of cultural contexts and proposes solutions to problems encountered in a variety of global contexts Accordingly the contributors to this volume are scholars from a breadth of interdisciplinary and cultural backgrounds each exploring an ethical theme from the encyclical and proposing systemic changes to address deeply entrenched injustices Collectively their essays examine the social political economic gender scientific technological educational and spiritual challenges of our time as these relate to the ecological crisis Hispanic Muslims in the United States Victor Hugo Cuartas,2020-03-31 The empirical case in this study is that of the Hispanic Catholic converts to Islam in the Washington DC Metropolitan and New Jersey areas of the United States The central research question is To what extent do Hispanic Muslim converts play a role in making different choices regarding religious commitment and practice The argument is that not only do both the more and less active converts play a central role in making choices during the pre affiliation and post affiliation stages but that these choices can often be strategic in nature as they practice the new religion in the United States These choices are shaped by multiple factors This contributes to a new understanding of the prevailing debates among Muslims in Europe and the United States on the nature of Muslim minorities in the West that Muslims here are not merely transplanted but are active participants of diverse expressions of local Islam The evidence in my research shows that being less active does not mean converts do not play a role or make choices Both more active and less active converts make choices based on multiple factors This is especially significant as the main aim of this thesis is to show that the converts make choices and play a role in the post affiliation stage and that these often have strategic elements

Contemporary Feminist Theory and Activism Wendy Lynne Lee, 2009-12-30 In this book Wendy Lynne Lee sets out to demonstrate how feminist theorizing is relevant to issues that may seem less directly about the status and emancipation of women but that are vital she argues to forming connections with other important twenty first century movements Lee shows how a feminist approach to crafting these connections can shed light on the economic disparity and entrenched gender inequality of global markets the role technology plays in our conception of reproductive rights sexual identity and gender the rise of religious fanaticism and the relationship between our conceptions of gender nonhuman animals and the environment Timely politically passionate and forcefully argued Contemporary Feminist Theory and Activism will reinvigorate feminist thought for the twenty first century
