Christ, Judith Plaskow, 2016-08-01 In Goddess and God in the World leading theologians Carol P Christ and Judith Plaskow debate the nature of divinity proposing a new method called embodied theology They agree that the transcendent omnipotent male God of traditional theology must be reimagined Carol proposes that Goddess is the intelligent embodied love that is in all being Judith counters that God is an impersonal power of creativity that includes both good and evil Rooting their views in experience and questioning each other they offer a fruitful model of theological conversation across difference Gender and the Journal Cinthia Gannett, 1992-02-06 This book explores the gendered historical and social contexts and discursive traditions that have characterized journals and diaries in academic discourse The tension between the term journal which has a variety of positive public and scholarly connotations and the term diary which is currently understood as a feminized trivial and confessional kind of writing inappropriate for school is a critical part of the problem This book uses the developing and shifting notions of diary and journal to explore several critical questions about the larger relations between gender language canonicity and academic discourse
