Feminist Visions Of Development Gender Analysis And Policy:

Feminist Visions of Development Cecile Jackson, Ruth Pearson, 2005-07-27 Key issues in gender studies and development today are explored in detail from rural and urban poverty to population and family planning resulting from the 1995 UN Conference on Women Gender, Development, and Poverty Caroline Sweetman, 2002 This work examines how gender inequalities impact on men s women s and children s experiences of poverty and demonstrates the importance of integrating gender analysis into every aspect of development initiatives Senegal Robin Sharp, 1994 Up to date view of Senegal from the perspective of the poor Controversy and Coalition Myra Marx Ferree, Beth Hess, 2002-05-03 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nationbuilding processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics Gender and Practice Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, Kristy E. Kelly, 2019-09-30 In Gender and Practice Insights from the Field twelve chapters contribute to the creation of an accessible body of knowledge that looks to provide gender practitioners with examples of what works and what doesn t in the attainment of gender equality Gender and Agriculture in Turkey Emine Erdogan, 2020-10-15 How have attempts to integrate Turkish agriculture into the global economy impacted rural populations This book reveals the extent to which the increasingly authoritarian political regime in Turkey and the neoliberal economy impacts minority ethnic groups and women The tomato industry in Turkey has the highest export rate amongst fresh and processed fruit and vegetables But Emine Erdogan shows here that global production is gendered relying on the labour of unpaid or poorly paid women and based on a system of what she calls intersectional patriarchy The book is based on participant observation and interviews to foreground the stories of the those involved in production including local rural workers Kurdish seasonal migrant workers women factory workers and factory managers as well as the landowning families This provides a detailed picture of the transformation of rural Turkey and the inequalities of gender class ethnicity and age A detailed ethnographic account the book in unique in providing an intersectional and feminist analysis on processes of capitalization Handbook of International Relations Walter Carlsnaes, Thomas Risse, Thomas Risse-Kappen, Beth A Simmons, 2002 NEW IN PAPERBACK FEBRUARY 2005 The most systematic and wide ranging survey of the multi faceted field of International Relations yet produced It is sure to become a standard reference work and teaching text and is unlikely to be superseded at any time in the near future It should be considered as essential reading International Affairs The Handbook of International Relations published 2002 in hardback quickly established itself as the benchmark volume providing a state of the art review and indispensable guide to the study of international relations It is now released in paperback in order to be accessible to students in classroom use Divided into three parts the volume reviews both the historical philosophical analytical and normative roots to the discipline and the key contemporary topics of research and debate today The first part introduces the major approaches within the field and unpacks many of the on going debates within the discipline including those between rationalist and constructivist approaches The second part moves on to explore the key concepts and contextual factors important to the subject from concepts like the state and power to international and transnational actors debates around globalization and contending feminist perspectives The final part reviews a number of the key substantive issues in international relations and is designed to complement the analytical tools and perspectives presented in Parts I and II Examples of the many topics included are foreign policy war and peace security nationalism and ethnicity finance trade development the environment and human rights Gender, Generation and Poverty Sylvia H. Chant, 2007-01-01 The feminisation of poverty is viewed as a global trend and of particular concern in developing regions Yet although popularisation of the term may have raised women s visibility in development discourses and gone some way to en gender policies for poverty reduction the construct is only weakly substantiated This work covers this topic Legislating Gender and Sexuality in Africa Lydia Boyd, Emily Burrill, 2020-05-26 In recent decades a more formalized and forceful shift has emerged in the legislative realm when it comes to gender and sexual justice in Africa This rigorous timely volume brings together leading and rising scholars across disciplines to evaluate these ideological struggles and reconsider the modern history of human rights on the continent Broad in geographic coverage and topical in scope chapters investigate such subjects as marriage legislation in Mali family violence experienced by West African refugees sex education in Uganda and statutes criminalizing homosexuality in Senegal These case studies highlight the nuances and contradictions in the varied ways key actors make arguments for or against rights They also explore how individual countries draft and implement laws that attempt to address the underlying problems Legislating Gender and Sexuality in Africa details how legal efforts in the continent can often be moralizing enterprises illuminating how these processes are closely tied to notions of ethics personhood and citizenship The contributors provide new appraisals of recent events with fresh arguments about the relationships between local and global fights for rights This interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars in African

This volume provides an insightful understanding of the ground realities of primary education programmes particularly those run by the District Primary Education Programme DPEP Combining secondary research with field studies conducted in six states the contributors explore gender and social equity issues in primary education They conclude that there is a subtle but nevertheless discernible hierarchy of access to education which has resulted in new forms of segregation in primary schools
