A Feminist Introduction to Romanticism Elizabeth A. Fay, 1991-01-16 Elizabeth Fay's invaluable book addresses the student in an immediate and direct manner to provide an unequalled introduction to the issues most important for feminist Feminist Introduction to Romanticism Elizabeth Fay, 1998-03-31 Elizabeth Fay s analyses of Romantic literature invaluable book addresses the student in an immediate and direct manner to provide an unequalled introduction to the issues most important for feminist analyses of Romantic literature The Romanticism Handbook Sue Chaplin, Joel Faflak, 2011-03-10 A one stop resource containing introductory material through to practical case studies in reading primary and secondary texts to introducing criticism and new directions in research Romanticism Gendered Andrea Fischerová, 2020-11-09 This study focuses on the six writing men who have been throughout decades regarded as the alpha and omega of British Romanticism Byron Coleridge Keats Scott Shelley and Wordsworth It sees these men as a representative cohort of their time and examines their letters as results of a reading process Although letters are usually seen as additional sources of reference in literary studies in this book they are treated as the dominant information material correspondence enables to reconsider British Romanticism on the basis of the epistolary communication of the first half of the nineteenth century The target information from the letters are references to women writers and to their writings A detailed analysis of the correspondence manages to answer the question whether male Romantics regarded writing women as provoking from time to time as Duncan Wu assumes and whether the gender identity of the woman author influenced the way male readers read her literary works The examination of the correspondence thus takes a gendered perspective on British Romanticism This approach to the target research data discloses a long list of almost 120 names of women writers from different periods and of different literary genres Whereas the male readers in question have acquired a well established stable long term position within literary history the women were often marginalized even forgotten The study presents plentiful examples proving the discrepancies between what the twenty first century reader regards as the core of women s Romantic literary tradition and what the Romantic reader did The following women writers are discussed in the study in detail Susannah Centlivre Anne Finch Lady Winchelsea Ann Radcliffe Mary Robinson Felicia Hemans Mary Shelley Joanna Baillie Maria Edgeworth Maria Jane Jewsbury Catherine Grace Godwin and Emmeline Fisher Real and Imagined Women in British Romanticism Gaura Shankar Narayan, 2010 Real and Imagined Women in British Romanticism uses feminist ideology and deconstructive criticism to reconstruct the cultural context embedded in Romantic canonical texts To achieve this end the book undertakes a close textual study of these texts and places them in the intellectual context of Mary Wollstonecraft's critique of culture As a result of intellectual contextualizing as well as theoretical applications the Romantic imagination as represented by William Wordsworth and John Keats emerges as the place where gender division and gender certitude break down This book intervenes in the traditional critical debates about the Romantic imagination to show that the

Romantic imagination as set forth in these texts registers the vigorous cultural politics of gender and aesthetics that defined the 1790s and continued to exert influence for decades Book Jacket Women in Rock, Women in Romanticism James Rovira, 2022-10-07 Women in Rock Women in Romanticism is the first book length work to explore the interrelationships between contemporary female musicians and eighteenth and nineteenth century art music and literature by women and men The music and videos of contemporary musicians including Erykah Badu Beyonc The Carters H l ne Cixous Missy Elliot the Indigo Girls Janet Jackson Janis Joplin and Big Brother and the Holding Company Natalie Merchant Joni Mitchell Janelle Mon e Alanis Morrisette Siouxsie Sioux Patti Smith St Vincent Annie Clark and Alice Walker are explored through the lenses of pastoral and Afropresentism Gothic female Gothic and the literature of William Blake Beethoven Arthur Schopenhauer Samuel Taylor Coleridge Charlotte Dacre Ralph Waldo Emerson E T A Hoffmann Ann Radcliffe William Shakespeare Mary Shelley her husband Percy Shelley Henry David Thoreau Horace Walpole Jane Williams Mary Wollstonecraft and William Wordsworth to explore how each sheds light on the other and how women have appropriated responded to and been inspired by the work of authors from previous centuries Women & Romanticism Vol1 Roxanne Eberle, 2020-01-08 First published in 2006 Women and Romanticism's first two volumes gather material from the vast body of work produced around the subjects of education and employment VOLUME I covers Education and Employment in the Early Romantic Period Until the 1980s a five volume collection of materials on Women and Romanticism would have been inconceivable since Romantic studies largely restricted itself to a consideration of the major male poets of the period William Blake William Wordsworth Samuel Taylor Coleridge Lord Byron Percy Bysshe Shelley and John Keats When women were present in accounts of Romanticism they were considered in terms of their literary function as objects of representation or in relation to their domestic as mothers daughters wives and lovers of the authors Indeed the first Romantic women writers to enter academic discourse were those with familial connections to the canonized poets Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley and Dorothy Wordsworth Other writers of interest in the 1970s included Frances Burney and Jane Austen Women and Romanticism 5V Roxanne Eberle, 2022-07-30 Demonstrating the breadth and scope of women s writing in the Romantic period this collection covers a variety of topics ranging across polemical treatises private correspondence philosophical and historical disquisitions and poetry and prose fiction Helping to contextualise the areas discussed the collection includes a general introduction by the editor which traces the history of criticism in the field and thus current definitions of Women and Romanticism before going on to discuss the contents of each volume Romanticism Sharon Ruston, 2007-04-05 Introductions to British Literature and Culture provide practical guides to key literary periods Guides in the series help to orientate students as they begin a new module or area of study providing concise information on the historical cultural literary and critical context and acting as an initial map of the knowledge needed to study the literature and culture of a specific period This accessible introduction to Romanticism and its contexts from 1780 1820 includes an overview of the historical cultural and intellectual background including the romantic movement in culture political upheaval philosophy and religion and scientific development a survey of the developments in key genres including discussion of major writers such as Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Keats Shelley Byron Wollstonecraft Hemans and Smith concise explanations of key terms needed to understand the literature and criticism a guide to key critical approaches a chronology mapping historical events and literary works guided further reading including websites and electronic resources The Oxford Handbook of British Romanticism David Duff, 2018-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of British Romanticism offers a comprehensive guide to the literature and thought of the Romantic period and an overview of the latest research on this topic Written by a team of international experts the Handbook analyses all aspects of the Romantic movement pinpointing its different historical phases and analysing the intellectual and political currents which shaped them It gives particular attention to devolutionary trends exploring the English Scottish Welsh and Irish strands in British Romanticism and assessing the impact of the constitutional changes that brought into being the United Kingdom at a time of revolutionary turbulence and international conflict It also gives extensive coverage to the publishing and reception history of Romantic writing highlighting the role of readers reviewers publishers and institutions in shaping Romantic literary culture and transmitting its ideas and values Divided into ten sections each containing four or five chapters the Handbook covers key themes and concepts in Romantic studies as well as less chartered topics such as freedom of speech literature and drugs Romantic oratory and literary uses of dialect All the major male and female Romantic authors are included along with numerous lesser known writers the emphasis throughout being on the diversity of Romantic writing and the complexities and internal divisions of the culture that sustained it The volume strikes a balance between familiarity and novelty to provide an accessible guide to current thinking and a conceptual reorganization of this fast moving field The Politics of Love Maxime Foerster, 2018-04-03 What would love be if heterosexual couples were no longer assigned gender and sexual norms Maxime Foerster examines the heterosexual trouble between men and women in nineteenth century French Romantic and Decadent literature Key works by authors ranging from George Sand to Charles Baudelaire persistently demonstrate that heterosexuality did not work these authors and many others investigated the struggle that men and women alike waged against patriarchal norms Whereas Romantic fiction dedicated itself to the reinvention of love Decadence promoted sexual and gender deviance In expertly evaluating the discord afflicting fictional heterosexual couples male and female dandies and doctors and their female patients Foerster shows the crucial role that literature played in the fashioning of alternative identities A concluding look at Proust's la recherche du temps perdu traces the legacy of heterosexual trouble in the twentieth century How to Study Romantic Poetry Paul O'Flinn,2000-11-09 Romantic poetry deals with the tensions hopes and fears of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries as felt by a disparate group of men and women How though do you approach a Romantic poem What are useful ways to discuss Romantic poetry and what if anything do the poets have in common This completely revised and expanded second edition of How to Study Romantic Poetry shows you in accessible language how to use some of the recent developments in literary theory to think and write about Romantic poetry with confidence The book now includes a new chapter on the work of women Romantic poets including Mary Robinson and Elizabeth Hands Visionary Dreariness Markus Poetzsch, 2013-09-13 Visionary Dreariness Readings in Romanticism's Quotidian Sublime undertakes a reconceptualization of the theoretical and experiential framework of the Romantic sublime by shifting the focus from Burke s and Kant's prescriptions of natural vastness and grandeur to the narrower but no less wondrous spaces objects and experiences of everyday life This shift is defined as a descent from mountaintops to an encounter in William Blake's terms with a World in a Grain of Sand The purpose of this book is to sift the literature of the Romantic everyday both prose and poetry canonical and noncanonical for such grains In order to define the inherently amorphous and subsumptive sphere called everyday life the author draws upon two main theoretical threads the first based on the phenomenological poetics of Gaston Bachelard serves to elucidate the depth and diversity of everyday household space the second comprising the work of Henri Lefebvre and Michel de Certeau defines the generative potential what de Certeau glosses as the everyday creativity of some of the most basic human activities such as walking reading and washing to name but a few The role of the everyday in Romantic literature has in recent years received greater scholarly attention particularly from critics dissatisfied with the perpetuation of what Karina Williamson characterizes as a debased Romanticism which rules there is a category of experience and expression which is poetic and all the rest is ordinary and inadmissible. The present study serves to map the intersections of these categories of experience and expression the sublime and the quotidian and thereby to challenge our assumptions about the aesthetic value of the everyday not only in the Romantic period but also in our own to Romance Corinne Saunders, 2008-04-15 Romance is a varied and fluid literary genre notoriously difficult to define This groundbreaking Companion surveys the many permutations of romance throughout the ages Considers the literary and historical development of the romance genre from its classical origins to the present day Incorporates discussion of the changing readership of romance and of romance s special relation to women readers Comprises 30 essays written by leading authorities on different periods and sub genres Challenges the idea that the appeal of romance is exclusively escapist Draws John Keats R. White, 2010-05-26 At the heart of this Literary on a wide range of specific and influential literary examples Life are fresh interpretations of Keats's most loved poems alongside other neglected but rich poems. The readings are placed in the context of his letters to family and friends his medical training radical politics of the time his love for Fanny Brawne his coterie of literary figures and his tragic early death Romanticism Simon Bainbridge, 2018-03-24 A wide ranging collection of the key contextual documents which inform the Romantic period It includes material on fiercely debated areas such as the French Revolution women the slave trade science and religion Documents are supported by substantial editorial Antigone's Daughters? Hilary Owen, Cláudia Pazos material drawing connections to the major Romantic texts

Alonso, 2011-02-24 Antigone's Daughters provides the first detailed discussion in English of six well known Portuguese women writers working across a wide range of genres Florbela Espanca 1894 1930 Irene Lisboa 1892 1958 Agustina Bessa Lu s 1923 Nat lia Correia 1923 93 H lia Correia 1949 and L dia Jorge 1946 Together they cover the span of the 20th century and afford historical insights into the complex gender politics of achieving institutional acceptance and validation in the Portuguese national canon at different points in the 20th century Although a patrilinear evolutionary model visibly structures national literary history in Portugal to the present day women writers and critics have not generally sought to replace this with a matrilinear feminist counter history. The unifying metaphor that the authors adopt here for the purpose of discussing Portuguese women s ambivalent response to female genealogy is the classical figure of Antigone who paradoxically sacrifices her own genealogical continuity in the name of defending family and kinship while resisting the patriarchal pragmatics of state building Should women writers faced with the absence of a female tradition posit a woman centred place outside the jurisdiction of male genealogy however strategically essentialist that place may be or should they primarily eschew fixed sexual identity to act as unnameable saboteurs undoing the law of patriarchal tradition from within Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature Douglas A. Vakoch, 2022-09-19 The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature explores the interplay between the domination of nature and the oppression of women as well as liberatory alternatives bringing together essays from leading academics in the field to facilitate cutting edge critical readings of literature Covering the main theoretical approaches and key literary genres of the area this volume includes Examination of ecofeminism through the literatures of a diverse sampling of languages including Hindi Chinese Arabic and Spanish native speakers of Tamil Vietnamese Turkish Slovene and Icelandic Analysis of core issues and topics offering innovative approaches to interpreting literature including activism animal studies cultural studies disability gender essentialism hegemonic masculinity intersectionality material ecocriticism postcolonialism posthumanism postmodernism race and sentimental ecology Surveys key periods and genres of ecofeminism and literary criticism including chapters on Gothic Romantic and Victorian literatures children and young adult literature mystery and detective fictions including interconnected genres of climate fiction science fiction and fantasy and distinctive perspectives provided by travel writing autobiography and poetry This collection explores how each of ecofeminism's core concerns can foster a more emancipatory literary theory and criticism now and in the future This comprehensive volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature ecofeminism ecocriticism gender studies and the environmental humanities British Women Writers and the French Revolution A. Craciun, 2005-08-01 British Women Writers and the French Revolution provides an overview of a wide range of British women's writings on the French Revolution from writers sympathetic to the Revolution like Mary Robinson Helen Maria Williams and Charlotte Smith to anti revolutionary writers like Hannah More and Jane West Based on new research in French and British archives and libraries the book uncovers little known writings by British women and argues that these writers developed a distinct antinationalism in some cases even a feminist cosmopolitanism in their responses to the European revolutionary crisis Literature, Memory, Hegemony Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, Nicholas O. Pagan, 2018-06-14 This edited book considers the need for the continued dismantling of conceptual and cultural hegemonies of East and West in the humanities and social sciences Cutting across a wide range of literature film and art from different contexts and ages this collection seeks out the interpenetrating dynamic between both terms Highlighting the inherent instability of East and West as oppositional categories it focuses on the crossings between East and West and this nexus as a highly charged arena of encounter and collision Drawing from varied literary contexts ranging from Victorian literature to Chinese literature and modern European literature the book covers a diverse range of subject matter including material drawn from psychoanalytic and postcolonial theory and studies related to race religion diaspora and gender and investigates topical social and political issues including terrorism nationalism citizenship the refugee crisis xenophobia and otherness Offering a framework to consider the salient questions of cultural ideological and geographical change in our societies this book is a key read for those working within world literary studies
