Postfeminist News Mary Douglas Vavrus, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2003 Diamond Anniversary Book Award presented by the National Communication Association In the media saturated decade of the 1990s news reports shaped public sentiment about women in electoral politics and beyond Mary Douglas Vavrus explores the process of representing political women in media and argues that contemporary news accounts promote a postfeminist politics that encourages women's private consumer lifestyles and middle class aspirations while it discourages public life and political activism The author discusses the Anita Hill Clarence Thomas hearings of 1991 the 1991-92 Year of the Woman in politics the 1996 presidential campaign's use of soccer moms and Hillary Rodham Clinton's campaign for Senate in 2000 Vavrus assesses the logic that emerges in these narratives recurrent themes about gender and explores their significance for women and for feminism ultimately arguing that feminism has been supplanted by postfeminism in news accounts of political women

Sex, Feminism and Lesbian Desire in Women's Magazines Kate Farhall, 2020-09-14 This book examines evolving pop culture representations of sex and relationships from the 1970s onwards to demonstrate parallels between the strength of the feminist movement and positive portrayals of women's sexuality In charting changes in the sex and relationship content of women's magazines over time this analysis reveals that despite surface level changes in sexual and relationship content the underlying paradigm of hetero monogamy remains unchanged Despite a seemingly more diverse empowered and liberated sexuality for women in contemporary magazines in reality such feminist rhetoric masks an enduring model of sexuality which rests on women's sexual and emotional maintenance of male partners and their own self objectification and self surveillance Where substantive changes can be identified they rise and fall in tandem with feminism By demonstrating this empirical relationship between cultural products and feminist organising the book validates an assumption that has rarely been tested that a feminist social milieu improves cultural narratives about sexuality for women Sex Feminism and Lesbian Desire builds on ground breaking feminist texts such as Susan Faludi's Backlash to present an empirically focused comprehensive study interrogating changes in content over the lifetime of women's magazines By charting the representation of sex and relationships in two women's magazines Cosmopolitan and Cleo since the 1970s through an analysis of over 6 500 magazine pages and 1 500 articles this timely work interrogates and ultimately complicates the apparent linear progression of feminism This book is suitable for researchers and students in women's and gender studies queer studies LGBT studies media studies cultural studies and sociology
