The Elgar Companion to Feminist Economics Janice Peterson, Margaret Lewis, 2001-01-01 Comprehensive reference work introducing readers to the field of feminist economics It addresses key concepts as well as feminist economic critiques and reconstructions of major economic theories and policy debates

International Human Rights, Decolonisation and Globalisation Shelley Wright, 2003-09-02 Covering a diverse range of topics case studies and theories the author undertakes a critique of the principal assumptions on which the existing international human rights regime has been constructed She argues that the decolonization of human rights and the creation of a global community that is conducive to the well being of all humans will require a radical restructuring of our ways of thinking researching and writing In contributing to this restructuring she brings together feminist and indigenous approaches as well as postmodern and post colonial scholarship engaging directly with some of the prevailing orthodoxies such as universality the individual self determination cultural relativism globalization and civil society

The Palgrave Handbook of Social Fieldwork Nasir Uddin, Alak Paul, 2023-04-14 This handbook offers epistemologically and ontologically important personal accounts of academic and professional researchers having long term intensive comprehensive and ethnographic fieldwork in various social settings and versatile regional contexts across the globe The accounts are cross disciplinary including anthropology sociology geography political sciences gender studies forestry and environmental studies economics and international relations They are also trans regional covering the globe including South Asia Southeast Asia Africa Europe Latin America and North America The book offers a comprehensive portrait of multifaceted challenges that social researchers experience while doing fieldwork in various social settings The accounts provide both challenges of doing fieldwork in the 21st century and the ways how to address redress them in the field by complying with the codes of ethics and the politics of fieldwork Readers will benefit from the handbook by understanding methodological issues from both disciplinary relevance and regional specificity across time and spaces

The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo, Lynne Chester, Carlo D'Ippoliti, 2017-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the latest work on economic theory and policy from a pluralistic heterodox perspective Contributions throughout the Handbook explore different theoretical perspectives including Marxian radical political economics Post Keynesian Sraffian economics institutionalist evolutionary economics feminist economics social economics Regulation theory the Social Structure of Accumulation approach and ecological economics They explain the structural properties and dynamics of capitalism as well as propose economic and social policies for the benefit of the majority of the population This book aims firstly to provide realistic and coherent theoretical frameworks to understand the capitalist economy in a constructive and forward looking manner Secondly it delineates the future directions as well as the current state of heterodox economics and then provides both heat and light on controversial issues drawing out the commonalities and differences among different heterodox economic approaches The volume also envisions transformative economic and social policies for the majority of the population and explains why economics is and should be treated as a social science This Handbook will be of compelling interest to those including students who wish to learn about alternative economic theories and policies that are rarely found in conventional economics textbooks or discussed in the mainstream media and to critical economists and other social scientists who are concerned with analyzing pressing socio economic issues The Ocean, Blue Spaces and Outdoor Learning Mike Brown,2024-07-24 This book explores the educational dimension of people s engagement with the ocean Across formal informal and nonformal learning contexts it examines how experiences of the ocean and blue spaces help us to understand ourselves others and our place within the natural environment and the place of the ocean in our sociocultural and political life Drawing on creative projects from around the world the book introduces topics as diverse as ocean sailing migrants experiences of learning to surf experiencing seascapes through sounds and the importance of fostering connections with the sea It provides examples of innovative teaching and learning practices and the pedagogical possibilities that engagement with the ocean offers to outdoor studies scholars and practitioners in terms of education and the enhancement of our well being and the environment This is fascinating reading for advanced students researchers teachers and educational practitioners with an interest in outdoor studies experiential and outdoor learning leisure and recreation studies environmental studies or geography

Discourses of Ageing in Fiction and Feminism J. King,2012-11-13 This book explores the way older women are represented in society Through close readings of novels by major 20th century novelists compared with the more dominant representations of female ageing to be found in popular culture it suggests that they offer a feminist understanding of the invisible woman sometimes lacking in feminism itself Gender Replay Freeden Blume Oeur,C. Gender Research in Africa Vivian Ojong, R. Sooryamoorthy, 2025-09-30 This book considers how methodologies theories and analytical frameworks from gender studies can be applied to African societies cultural social and historical contexts The book advocates for the importance of feminist research practices which highlight women and their lived experiences within a gendered world in Africa Gender studies has grown in prominence over recent decades rooted in an awareness that gender is no longer just an issue in the margins but core to the analysis of the interaction of power identity and social relations in the world This book considers how the field can evolve further in a postcolonial context integrating indigenous and local knowledge systems and practices Covering how gender is contested in African settings the book outlines how researchers can approach the ways in which social and racial categories class ethnicity and socioeconomic status intersect to produce gender based violence Overall this book shows how gender sensitive methodologies can help researchers to gain deeper insights into discrimination inequalities and gender based violence and thus contribute to better adapted social and legal reforms

Women and the Economy: A Reader Ellen Mutari, Deborah M. Figart, 2015-03-26 This reader is designed for use as a primary or supplementary text for courses on women s role in the economy Both interdisciplinary and heterodox in its approach it showcases feminist economic analyses that utilize insights from institutionalism as well as neoclassical economics Including both classic and newer selections from a broad range of areas each section includes an introduction with background material as well as discussion questions exercises and lists of key terms and further readings

Human Rights of the Transgender Community in India Somabha Bandopadhyay, 2025-07-01 This book records real life experiences of transgender violence and victimisation analysing the legal lacunae in granting protection to the historically vulnerable community and their perspective of the law and safety It is an outcome of extensive empirical legal research conducted in the state of West Bengal India With exploration of global scenario of violence a systematic pattern of victimisation has been identified leading to a reasonable conclusion of internationalisation of transgender violence and victimisation that is largely ignored and is bereft of any legal protection Premised on the fact that without safety and protection against grave crimes no amount of civil rights protection is effective the book provides an account of the ever increasing gravity of transgender violence and victimisation Recognising that there is a paucity of research on type of targeted violence against transgender persons yet even with that scarcity of consistent and reliable reporting to official law enforcement sources the data that is available from governments public interest groups and community surveys about SOGI motivated violence reveals that precarity prevalence violence and the harm caused are graver as against other types of crimes and crimes against LGB population the author deliberately chose to focus on unearthing violence and victimisation The culturally sensitive approach to the problem is first of its kind in the legal landscape and expects to contribute to the developing jurisprudence The book navigates through the transgender jurisprudence to conclude that attempts made by the law makers across the world is only tokenistic and that the real pulse of the community is far from being recognised in law The in depth interviews with law enforcement bodies and transgender activists and victims reveal gaps between laws and realities whose impact assessment has been attempted in the book to suggest possible best practices to reduce vulnerability and auger empowerment The book expects to open doors for more legal and interdisciplinary research in India and abroad by scholars of law sociology victimology and others Snakes and Ladders: Reviewing Feminisms at Century's End ,2001-12 This book reviews the current state of feminist thinking in the run up to the millenium its priorities and concerns drawing critical attention to the losses as well as the gains of contemporary feminist work Marx, Veblen, and the Foundations of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo,Frederic Lee,2015-07-30 John F Henry is an eminent economist who has made important contributions to heterodox economics drawing on Adam Smith Karl Marx Thorstein Veblen and John Maynard Keynes His historical approach offers radical insights into the evolution of ideas ideologies and theories giving rise to and or induced by the changes in capitalist society Essays collected in this festschrift not only evaluate John Henry s contributions in connection to Marx s and Veblen s theories but also apply them to the socio economic issues in the 21st century In Part I leading heterodox economists in the traditions of Marxism Post Keynesianism and Institutionalism critically examine Marx s and Veblen s theoretical frameworks and their connections to each other that have become the foundations of heterodox economics Chapters in Part II showcase alternative theoretical explanations inspired by Marx Veblen and Henry Topics in this Part include financial crisis financialization capital accumulation economics teaching and the historical relationship between money and class society Part III is devoted to John Henry s heterodox economics encapsulated in his farewell lecture interview and bibliography Essays in this book individually and collectively make an important point that the history of economic thought or historical analysis of economic theory and policy is an integral part of developing heterodox economics as an alternative theoretical framework Anyone who is troubled by the recurring failure of capitalism as well as mainstream economics will find this book well worth reading All Change! Marketing and Consuming the Menopause Transition Jennifer Takhar,Anna Schneider-Kamp,Shona Bettany,2025-08-26 This book critically examines the marketisation of the menopause transition a phenomenon that in recent years has given rise to an array of products services investment opportunities and the supposed empowerment of women navigating midlife transitions As venture capitalists and well being brands converge on this new frontier in marketing opportunity our book critically assesses the issues that accompany the latest menopause market trends and evolving consumer predilections These include biomedical possibilities rebranding feminism the rise of menopause influencers celebrity and social media enabled menopause advocacy novel advertising rhetoric and corporeal representations that challenge the public s expectations of ageing women s bodies and attitudes The chapters in this book adopt interdisciplinary perspectives to reveal how sociocultural narratives influence menopause marketing strategies and suggest how they may be utilised to rethink advertising rhetoric to faithfully represent lived experiences of the menopause This book addresses an international readership of scholars and practitioners of marketing consumer behaviour advertising rhetoric life course representation gender and health studies This book will be beneficial for scholars researchers and practitioners across a range of fields including marketing consumer behaviour advertising gender studies health studies and sociology The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Marketing Management Integrating Gender Catherine Hoskyns,1996-04-17 This study seeks to discern the contrasts and common patterns in the feminist movements across the industrialized world It draws the conclusion that feminism has been far more successful in the sphere of institutional reform than it has been in the personal areas of women s lives
