Feminization Of Famine Exprebions Of The Inexprebible:

The Feminization of Famine Margaret Kelleher, 1997 Contemporary media depictions of famine disaster display a striking prevalence female images The Feminization of Famine is a unique study of the tradition of female representations in famine literature from nineteenth century accounts of the Irish famine to the present day It examines the many novels and short stories written about the Irish famine over the last 150 years from the novels of William Carleton Anthony Trollope and Maria Edgeworth through to the writings of Liam O Flaherty and John Banville These literary works are read in the context of a rich variety of other sources including contemporary eyewitness accounts of the Great Irish Famine women s memoirs and journalistic writings and famine historiography The recurring motifs used to depict famine are highlighted the prevalence of images of mother and child the scrutiny of women s starved bodies efforts to express the inexpressible The author investigates the effect of famine representations and their crucial role in shaping viewers and readers interpretations of the famine The Feminization of Famine provides a significant critique of how famine has been represented and suggests important parallels with the current presentation of emergency and disaster

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben, 2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary

Neo-Victorianism and Medievalism, 2024-04-30 Bringing together

neo Victorian and medievalism scholars in dialogue with each other for the first time this collection of essays foregrounds issues common to both fields The Victorians reimagined the medieval era and post Victorian medievalism repurposes received nineteenth century tropes as do neo Victorian texts For example aesthetic movements such as Arts and Crafts which looked for inspiration in the medieval era are echoed by steampunk in its return to Victorian dress and technology Issues of gender identity sexuality imperialism and nostalgia arise in both neo Victorianism and medievalism and analysis of such texts is enriched and expanded by the interconnections between the two fields represented in this groundbreaking collection

Systems of Life Richard A. Barney, Warren Montag, 2018-11-06 Systems of Life offers a wide ranging revaluation of the emergence of biopolitics in Europe from the mid eighteenth to the mid nineteenth century In staging an encounter among literature political economy and the still emergent sciences of life in that historical moment the essays collected here reopen the question of how concepts of animal vegetable and human life among other biological registers had an impact on the Enlightenment project of thinking politics and economics as a joint enterprise The volume s contributors consider politics economics and the biological as distinct semi autonomous spheres whose various combinations required inventive sometimes incomplete acts of conceptual mediation philosophical negotiation disciplinary intervention or aesthetic representation

Hunger and Postcolonial Writing Muzna Rahman, 2022-08-17 Hunger and Postcolonial Writing explores contemporary postcolonial fiction and life writing from various geo political contexts The focus of this work is hunger individuated in the self imposed starvation of the hunger protester and on a mass scale in the form of famine and food insecurity It considers the hungry colonial and postcolonial body examines its textual forms and historical trajectories and situates it within the food security context of imperialism and its legacies This book is the first monograph length study of hunger within a postcolonial world literary context Its transcolonial focus produces comparative readings across postcolonial writings facilitating productive analyses of the operations of imperialism and its aftereffects across heterogenous zones of colonialism This project reads hunger as defined by the social cultural historical and economic engagements produced by colonial and postcolonial encounters Examining the starving colonized body through Cartesian models of somatic subjectivity and considering how this body is mediated by post Enlightenment discourses of Modernity and progress this work interrogates the contradictions produced by the starving colonial body as it is positioned between the possibility of radical protest and prescriptive colonial discourse This book will be of interest to Gastrocritical and Postcolonial scholars and students and to Food scholars more broadly

Feminist Consequences Elisabeth Bronfen, Misha Kavka (red), 2001 Exploring the status of feminism in this postfeminist age this sophisticated meditation on feminist thinking over the past three decades moves away from the all too common dependence on French theorists and male thinkers and instead builds on a wide ranging body of feminist theory written by women These writings address the question Where are we going as well as Where have we come from As evidenced in the essays compiled here the multiplicity of directions available to this new feminism ranges from poststructuralist academic theory through cultural activism to re readings of law literature and representation Contributors include Mieke Bal Lauren Berlant Rosi Braidotti Elisabeth Bronfen Judith Butler Rey Chow Drucilla Cornell Ann Cvetkovich Jane Gallop Beatrice Hanssen Claire Kahane Ranjana Khanna Bidy Martin Juliet Mitchell Anita Haya Patterson and Valerie Smith Feminist Consequences representing the forefront of international feminist thought marks a new and long desired stage of feminist criticism where women are themselves making theory rather than reacting to male production Dealing with Disasters from Early Modern to Modern Times Hanneke Asperen, Lotte Jensen, 2025-10-01 Disasters are as much cultural as natural phenomena For centuries news about catastrophic events has been disseminated through media such as chronicles pamphlets newspapers poems drawings and prints Nowadays we are overwhelmed with news about the cataclysmic effects of recent forest fires floods and storms Due to the ongoing climate crisis extreme weather events will likely have ever greater impacts on our lives This volume addresses cultural representations of catastrophes such as floods epidemics and earthquakes over the centuries In the past as now artists and authors try to make sense of disasters grasp their impact and communicate moral religious or political messages These creations reflect and shape how people learn and think about disasters that occur nearby or far away both in time and space The parallels between past and present underline how this book contributes to modern debates about cultural and creative strategies in response to disasters The Tourist's Gaze Glenn Hooper, 2001 Travel literature has been described by Jonathan Raban as literature's red light district It defies people's beliefs confuses expectations crosses disciplinary boundaries and is linked to ethnography journalism and biography Yet for all that has managed to remain not only a visible but also an increasingly popular literary genre This anthology makes an entertaining and insightful contribution to this engaging field It includes extracts from well known writers such as Thackeray Boll and Chesterton but also presents less familiar figures from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The seventy pieces collected here both offer sharp observations of the country and are equally revealing about the travelers themselves Each extract where possible is prefaced by a brief biography of its author For readers interested in the origins and historical role of travel writing in general and how they relate to Ireland the editor offers an illuminating introduction This anthology presents illuminating snapshots of Ireland over two hundred years It also provides insights into the varied perspectives of the travelers themselves a perspective often influenced by contemporary political events such as the Great Famine Home Rule the Civil War and the Troubles This anthology leaves the reader with an enduring image of Ireland's ability to fascinate and stimulate visitors through two centuries The Literary Afterlives of Roger Casement, 1899-2016 Alison Garden, 2020 This book explores the literary and cultural afterlives of Ireland's most enigmatic shape shifting and controversial son Roger Casement Drawing upon a transnational selection of modern and contemporary texts alongside significant archival research this book positions Casement as a vital and fascinating figure in the compromised and contradictory terrain of Anglo Irish history The Routledge Research Companion to Anthony Trollope Deborah Denenholz

Morse, Margaret Markwick, Mark W. Turner, 2016-09-01 Bringing together leading and newly emerging scholars The Routledge Research Companion to Anthony Trollope offers a comprehensive overview of Trollope scholarship and suggests new directions in Trollope studies The first volume designed especially for advanced graduate students and scholars the collection features essays on virtually every topic relevant to Trollope research including the law gender politics evolution race anti-Semitism biography philosophy illustration aging sport emigration and the global and regional worlds Ireland Beyond Boundaries Liam Harte, Yvonne Whelan, 2006-11-20 This is an authoritative up to date account of the development of Irish Studies over the past two decades The authors examine the key debates that have underpinned recent scholarship and analyse critical concerns that have shaped the subject's remarkable growth They trace the institutional fortunes of Irish Studies in Ireland the USA Canada Australia and Britain and features in depth critical accounts of specific trends and themes within Irish historiography literary criticism religion migration music cultural geography sport and media culture Gender Justice and the Law Elaine Wood, 2020-11-16 Gender Justice and the Law presents a collection of essays that examines how gender as a category of identity must continually be understood in relation to how structures of inequality define and shape its meaning It asks how notions of justice shape gender identity and whether the legal justice system itself privileges notions of gender or is itself gendered Shaped by politics and policy Gender Justice essays contribute to understanding how theoretical practices of intersectionality relate to structures of inequality and relations formed as a result of their interaction Given its theme the collection's essays examine theoretical practices of intersectional identity at the nexus of gender and justice that might also relate to issues of sexuality race class age and ability
