Dotseth,Barbara C. Anderson,Mark A. Roglan,2008-03-30 One of the most important art works produced in late fifteenth century Spain is the group of twenty six panels from the main altarpiece of the cathedral of Ciudad Rodrigo in Castile This publication sheds light on the altarpiece and its context and includes essays on the provenance of the altarpiece BOOK JACKET Fernando Gallego and His Workshop Amanda W. Dotseth,2008 One of the most important art works produced in late fifteenth century Spain is the group of twenty six panels from the main altarpiece of the cathedral of Ciudad Rodrigo in Castile This publication sheds light on the altarpiece and its context and includes essays on the provenance of the altarpiece BOOK JACKET Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic Imagining the Passion in a Multiconfessional Castile Cynthia Robinson,2013 An interdisciplinary reassessment of the creation and reception of religious imagery and of its place in the devotional practices of Castilian Christians situated against the broader panorama of Spanish culture in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Provided by publisher Fernando Gallego Robert M. Quinn,1960 Sobre el retablo de Ciudad Rodrigo por Fernando Gallego y sus colaboradores ,1958 Breve historia de la pintura española Enrique Lafuente Ferrari,1987-01-01 Early History of the Southwest Through the Eyes of German-Speaking Jesuit Missionaries Albrecht Classen,2013 The history of the United States has been deeply determined by Germans throughout time but hardly anyone has noticed that this was the case in the Southwest as well known as Arizona Sonora today in the eighteenth century as Pimer a Alta This was the area where the Jesuits operated all by themselves and many of them at least since the 1730s originated from the Holy Roman Empire hence were identified as Germans including Swiss Austrians Bohemians Croats Alsatians and Poles Most of them were highly devout and dedicated hard working and very intelligent people achieving wonders in terms of settling the native population teaching and converting them to Christianity However because of complex political processes and the effects of the black legend all Jesuit missionaries were expelled from the Americas in 1767 and the order was banned globally in 1773 As this book illustrates a surprisingly large number of these German Jesuits composed extensive reports and even encyclopedias not to forget letters about the Sonoran Desert and its people Much of what we know about that world derives from their writing which proves to be fascinating lively and highly informative reading material The J.
