Fertility Current South African Issues Of Poverty Hiv Aids And Youth Seminar Proceedings:

Fertility ,2003 Based on the 2002 conference Fertility The Current South African Issues of Poverty HIV AIDS and Youth emanating from the partnership between the Department of Social Development the South African Regional Poverty Network SARPN and the Human Sciences Research Council HSRC this book examines the underlying link between fertility and socio economic development The complex features in the current fertility trends in post apartheid South Africa are examined including the demographic fertility profile of South Africa s population determinants of fertility related behaviours such as sexual initiation in the context of AIDS contraceptive use and the broader regional fertility issues Fertility ,2003

Social Demography of South Africa Clifford O. Odimegwu,John Kekovole,2015-08-27 This edited collection investigates what progress has been made in the field of social demography in South Africa since the democratic dispensation in the country Contributors offer a compilation of in depth analytical studies of substantive technical and contemporary issues in the South African demographic landscape Accessible and topical it is a useful reference guide to those working in disciplines such as sociology geography statistics and economics and to all those trying to understand the role of national statistical agency in national development planning in Africa This book project is funded by Statistics South Africa Pretoria South Africa

Fragmented Families, Poverty, and Women's Reproductive Narratives in South Africa Kammila Naidoo,2009-08-30 Fragmented Families addresses a central question in the demographic debates on poverty and fertility transition in southern Africa In what ways do women s recurrent encounters with poverty serve to shape their sexual unions social relationships and reproductive practices The book focuses on the lives of a group of mothers and daughters from fifteen families in a demarcated part of the Winterveld area in South Africa and draws attention to historical socio cultural political and economic concerns in order to place in context or make sense of reproductive dynamics and family life at the micro level Vignettes drawn from fieldwork highlight the particularities of the area the persistence of historical tensions diverse livelihoods and complex gender relationships The intergenerational stories of the women suggest that they live with immense and increasing adversity and that strategies to contend with them sometimes include attempts to assert control over sexual encounters and reproductive outcomes The book contributes to a continuing debate on how changing socio economic conditions could influence prospects for and the nature of fertility transition in African countries The study concurs with alternative arguments that shifts toward lower levels of fertility might be due in certain contexts to experiences of severe hardship rather than favourable economic circumstances Instead of seeking security and risk aversion through bearing many children the response of indigent women in this area has been largely to resist reproduction at particular stages of their lives whilst using sexual relationships and child bearing as strategies to manipulate and secure resources In reflecting on methodological approaches the book draws attention to the limitations of survey research in efforts to elicit accurate representations of reproductive behaviour and fertility preferences and emphasises the usefulness of more engaged qualitative and long term fieldwork endeavours in building substantive insights on women's familial and reproductive lives

Intercountry Adoption Karen Smith Rotabi, 2016-12-05 Intercountry adoption represents a significant component of international migration in recent years up to 45 000 children have crossed borders annually as part of the intercountry adoption boom Proponents have touted intercountry adoption as a natural intervention for promoting child welfare However in cases of fraud and economic incentives intercountry adoption has been denounced as child trafficking The debate on intercountry adoption has been framed in terms of three perspectives proponents who advocate intercountry adoption abolitionists who argue for its elimination and pragmatists who look for ways to improve both the conditions in sending countries and the procedures for intercountry transfer of children Social workers play critical roles in intercountry adoption they are often involved in family support services or child relinquishment in sending countries and in evaluating potential adoptive homes processing applications and providing support for adoptive families in receiving countries social workers are involved as brokers and policy makers with regard to the processes procedures and regulations that govern intercountry adoption Their voice is essential in shaping practical and ethical policies of the future Containing 25 chapters covering the following five areas policy and regulations sending country perspectives outcomes for intercountry adoptees debate between a proponent and an abolitionist and pragmatists guides for improving intercountry adoption practices this book will be essential reading for social work practitioners and academics involved with intercountry adoption Global Families,

Inequality and Transnational Adoption Riitta Högbäck, 2017-01-18 This book looks at the simultaneous processes of making and un making of families that are part of the adoption practice Whereas most studies on transnational adoption concentrate on the adoptive family the author identifies not only the happy occasion when a family gains a child but also the sorrow and loss of the child to its family of origin Situating transnational adoption in the context of the Global North South divide Högbäck investigates the devastating effects of unequal life chances and asymmetrical power relations on the adoption process and on the mothers whose children are adopted Based on unique primary material gathered in in depth interviews with South African families of origin and Finnish adoptive families the book investigates the decision making processes of both sets of parents and the encounters between them The first mothers narratives are juxtaposed with those of the adopters and of the adoption social workers who act on the principles of the wider adoption system Concluding with a critique of the Global Northism that exemplifies current practices Högbäck sketches the contours of a more just approach to transnational adoption that would shatter rather than perpetuate inequality The book can also be read as an expose of the consequences of current inequalities for poor families Global Families Inequality and Transnational Adoption will be of interest to students and scholars of adoption studies family and kinship sociology anthropology social work and development

Families and Kinship in Contemporary Europe Riitta Jallinoja, 2011-02-08 Instead of seeing the family as a monolithic entity as though separate from its surroundings this new approach draws attention to assemblages of various types that in different constellations and through different transactions relate people to each other as families and kin Children and Youth in Africa Ntarangwi, Mwenda, 2014-06-12 This annotated bibliography provides a summary of scholarly work on children and youth in Africa published between 2001 and 2011 It draws from journal articles monographs and book chapters This rich resource for scholars presents publications with a wide range of approaches to child and youth studies Some scholars question certain views of children especially when it comes to their own agency and full participation in socioeconomic production at the household level The idea that children are vulnerable social subjects is the predominant view that shaped much of the research reported on in this volume Western restrictions on specific age limits that govern children's participation in work or labour whether paid or not and the subsequent rights that go along with them are often not easily translatable to many African contexts This creates a kind of separation between African and Western scholars in their study and understanding of children The overwhelming focus of research published on HIV AIDS and orphans violence and child soldiers children's rights and street children demonstrates the continued interest regarding children as vulnerable and in need of adult protection Focusing on the vulnerability of children in Africa appears to be a result of the construction of childhood in terms of modern mostly Western perceptions which are based on chronological age mainly This book is very important for all scholars working on children and the youth in Africa Families and Households in Post-apartheid South Africa Acheampong Yaw Amoateng, Tim B. Heaton, 2007 Prior to South Africa's democratic transition in 1994 studies of families and households were limited by the structure of apartheid and the lack of adequate social and economic data Large social changes since that time have had a profound effect on public policy planning and service delivery and this monograph takes a new look at the lingering effects of colonialism and apartheid on South African families as well as their economic gains Experts from the fields of demographics economics psychology and sociology report their findings on living arrangements across rural and urban divides on access to toilets electricity water and housing on rates of marriage and divorce on fertility and infant mortality and on the housework and other chores performed by children South Africa Yearbook, 2006 The African Book Publishing Record, 2006 International African Bibliography, 2004
