Festing Field Marshall:

The Collection of Field Marshal Sir Francis Festing Dispersed Han (Bing Siong.),1995 The British Field Marshals, 1736-1997 T. A. Heathcote,2012-10-24 Whether any advantage or benefit will be drawn from the suspension or effective abolition of the rank of Field Marshal is debatable What is certain however is that Dr Tony Heathcotes idea of compiling a definitive biographical dictionary of holders of this illustrious rank since its introduction by George II in 1736 is opportune and inspired Those readers who anticipate a dry recitation of bare facts and statistics are in for a disappointment A reference work this may be but the author by dint of his depth of knowledge has created a shrewd and highly readable commentary as well As General Sir Charles Guthrie the first soldier to be denied promotion to Field Marshal on appointment to Chief of Defense Staff observes in his Foreword this book embraces the history of the British Army over the last 250 300 years It covers not only the careers of key individuals but provides an understanding of their contribution to the successes and failures of our military past The diversity of personalities who have only the honor of wearing the coveted crossed batons in common is fascinating Alongside the household names of the great strategists and distinguished leaders lie little known and forgotten figures who gained their exalted rank by either luck accident of birth or diplomatic gesture The British Field Marshals merits a place on the bookshelf of any military historian but is likely to be found on his or her bedside table Whether or not the rank is ever resurrected as it has been in the past and as many will hope it will be again this delightful and useful book will remain the authoritative guide to all those who have held the highest military rank in the British Army

British Generalship on the Western Front 1914-1918 Simon Robbins,2004-12-21 This book explores the British Army s response on the Western Front to a period of seminal change in warfare In particular it examines the impact of the pre war emphasis on worldwide garrison occupation and policing duties for the Empire s defence of the mindset of the Army s leadership and its lack of preparation for a continental war involving a massive unplanned increase in men and material The reasons for the poor performance in the early years of the war notably professionalism within the British Army including poor staff work trade unionism careerism within the high command and the tendency of an overconfident hierarchy to ignore the need for reform to tackle the tactical stalemate prior to 1916 are analysed The high command rapidly learnt from the defeats of 1915 16 and performed much better in 1916 18 an especially formative period resulting in the promotion of a younger more professional leadership and the development of the first truly modern system of tactics which has dominated wars ever since During 1917 18 the Army s commanders and staff evolved and improved these new methods developing a doctrine of combined arms to overcome the tactical stalemate bedevilling Allied offensives Festing--Field Marshall Lyall Wilkes,1991 The Army List Great Britain. Army,1960 Ambiguity and Deterrence John Baylis,1995 This text focuses on the disagreements which existed in British political and military circles over nuclear strategy directly after World War II Based on recently released documents it argues that British policy in this important area was much more ambiguous than is commonly supposed The Challenges of High Command G. Sheffield, G. Till, 2002-12-13 The command and control of military operations is a difficult art The Challenges of High Command explores British ideas of how this should be done and with the guidance of some of Britain's leading military historians looks at the practicalities of British experience in the First and Second World Wars The contributors cast new light on themes as diverse as the trench warfare of the First World War the conduct of the Gallipoli and Norway campaigns and the command performance of Bomber Harris and Bill Slim The Challenges of High Command concludes with a major review of how military operations should be conducted in the new political and technological conditions of today and includes an informal and frank commentary by General Sir Mike Jackson on his experience in Bosnia and Kosovo The Last Great Cavalryman Richard Mead, 2013-01-19 Dick McCreery was commissioned into the 12th Royal Lancers in 1915 and served on The Western Front winning the MC and surviving wounds In 1938 he joined the staff of 1st Division under Alexander before being given command of 2 Armored Brigade He won the DSO for his leadership during the retreat to Dunkirk May June 1940 In North Africa McCreery was sacked by Auchinleck with whom he had major differences but while waiting for a plane home he was spotted by Alexander who made him his Chief of Staff He is credited by many but not Montgomery the two did not get on for the solution to the El Alamein victory He was promoted to command X Corps at Salerno which he commanded during the advance to the Gothic Line He relieved Leese as Commander 8th Army in September 1944 and it was his brilliant plan that seized the Argenta Gap and drove the Germans back across the River Po into Austria He became British High Commissioner in Austria C in C British Army of the Rhine and British Military Representative at the UN retiring in 1949 Although not a public figure McCreery was key figure in the development of armored warfare a brilliant tactician and among the most important British fighting generals of the Second World War This is an overdue acknowledgment of his contribution to victory Denis Compton Tim Heald, 2015-05-04 Description Denis Compton was one of England's indeed cricket's greatest batsmen In the summer of 1947 alone he scored 18 hundreds A flashing strokeplayer who could take any bowling attack apart he also played football at the highest level winning an FA Cup winners medal with Arsenal The original Brylcreem Boy perhaps British sport's first true media personality Compton cut a dashing figure and when he died was mourned as the kind of cricketer whose like we shall never see again Never have I been so deeply touched on a cricket ground as I was in this heavenly summer when I went to Lord's to see a pale faced crowd existing on rations the rocket bomb still in the ears of most folk see this worn dowdy crowd watching Compton The strain of long years of anxiety and affliction passed from all hearts at the sight of Compton in full sail There were no rations in an innings by Compton Neville Cardus Compton was not the last of the double internationals but he was the greatest Michael Parkinson Intelligent Warfare Frank Kitson, 2025-01-30 As this superb memoir bears out General Sir Frank Kitson's 41 year career ranks among the most distinguished and eventful of the post 1945 era Commissioned into the Rifle Brigade at the end of the Second World War he distinguished himself during the vicious Mau Mau campaign His highly innovative tactics and personal courage earned him his first Military Cross The second quickly followed in Malaya at the height of the Emergency In typically understated style the Author describes his role planning the fight against communist aggression in Oman and his two tours in Cyprus the second when commanding 1st Battalion The Royal Green Jackets His effective uncompromising approach while commanding 39 Infantry Brigade in Belfast in the early 1970s was to have life long security implications for Kitson and his family Despite controversy he was marked out for high command As GOC 2nd Armoured Division in BAOR and Commandant of The Staff College his forensic brain and experience made a significant impact at a time of change His final appointment was Commander in Chief UK Land Forces How fortunate that this gifted gallant and inspiring leader was persuaded by his ever supportive wife Elizabeth to record his career and military thinking albeit on the condition it would only be published after his death The result is a highly readable wide ranging work which will appeal to all interested in late 20th Century military history 'That Astonishing Infantry' Michael Glover,Jonathon Riley,2007-11-15 The Royal Welch Fusiliers were present at all Marlborough s great victories they were one of the six Minden regiments they fought throughout the Peninsula and were present at Wellington s final glorious victory at Waterloo In The Great War their officers included the writer poets Siegfried Sassoon and Robert Graves their 22 battalions fought not just on the Western Front but at Gallipoli in Egypt Palestine Salonika Mesopotamia and Italy In WW2 they won battle honours from the Reichswald to Kohima More recently they have served with distinction in the war against terror in the Middle East Like so many famous regiments the RWF are no longer in the British Army s order of battle having been amalgamated into the Royal Regiment of Wales But this fine book is the lasting memorial to a fiercely proud and greatly admired regiment 'General Ne Win' Robert Taylor,2015-05-25 Robert Taylor one of the most prominent scholars in Myanmar studies has written an illuminating study of Ne Win the most enigmatic and controversial of the first generation of post independence Southeast Asian leaders and how he steered a then largely unknown country Burma now Myanmar through the Cold War years This book by perhaps the only foreign political analyst to live in Burma under Ne Win is a significant contribution to the historiography of Myanmar and its unnoticed role in the Cold War in Asia Associate Professor Ang Cheng Guan Head of Graduate Studies S Rajaratnam School of International Studies Nanyang Technological University Singapore This book fills a major gap in the literature on Myanmar by providing the first scholarly account of the life of General Ne Win its enigmatic ruler for over 25 years It will be of interest not only to professional Myanmar watchers who have long awaited a detailed and comprehensive study of this important historical figure but to anyone who wants to learn more about this troubled Southeast Asian country where Ne Win s legacy is still being felt today Andrew Selth Adjunct Associate Professor Griffith Asia Institute The Colonel Ne Win of World War II and General Ne Win of post independent Myanmar was not the same as Chairman Ne Win of the BSPP Nor was the context of those days similar to the context by which he is normally judged today The present work and Taylor s scholarship in general is acutely aware of such anachronistic projections backward made to commensurate with certain desired academic and political consequences Taylor examines Ne Win's life and career in the context of when it occurred This book returns Ne Win to the period to which he belonged Michael Aung Thwin Professor of South East Asian History University of Hawaii It is difficult to imagine that this study of Ne Win the dominant figure in the politics of Burma through most of the second half of the twentieth century will ever be surpassed Immensely detailed insightful and impressively understanding this is an outstanding work of scholarship Ian Brown Emeritus Professor of the Economic History of South East Asia School of Oriental and African Studies London

Fighting with the Fourteenth Army in Burma James Luto, 2013-11-27 The Fourteenth Army was one of the most successful British and Commonwealth forces of the Second World War It was not only the largest of the Commonwealth armies but was also the largest single army in the world with around half a million men under its command Operating in the most inhospitable terrain it drove the previously undefeated Japanese Army from the Indian border and out of Burma in an unrelenting offensive The Fourteenth Army often referred to as the Forgotten Army was made up from units that came from all corners of the Commonwealth and was composed of thirteen divisions from East and West Africa as well as Britain and India After the defeat of the Japanese these divisions compiled a summary of its actions and it is these unique documents that form the basis of this new book Presented here together then for the first time is the story of war against the Japanese as told by each of the divisions that fought in that bitter conflict the original and authentic accounts untouched by the pens of historians These accounts can never be supplanted and will be an invaluable source of information for generations to come It will also help the many millions of relatives of those men that fought with the Fourteenth Army understand the complex campaign of 1943-1945 The Fighting Divisions of the Fourteenth Army is completed with citations for those actions which saw the award of the Victoria Cross and detailed Orders of Battle throughout the Fourteenth Army's existence to make this the most detailed study of its kind The Cumulative Book Index, 1992 A world list of books in the English language

Military Leadership and Counterinsurgency Victoria Nolan, 2011-12-18 Offering a unique and original perspective on Britain's Small Wars leadership culture this title is an essential reading for serving soldiers and scholars of military studies It is based on original archival research It offers a fascinating survey of counterinsurgency operations with relevance for today's military and security Between 1948 and 1960 the British army conducted three important counterinsurgency operations in Malaya Kenya and Cyprus During that time military leaders inspired the evolution of a distinct organisational culture known as small wars culture which affected learning discipline and attitudes towards leadership and fellow soldiers Using a synthesis of organisational theory and archival research this book explores how military leaders embedded and transmitted this particular military organisational culture within the British army and provides an analysis of leaders characteristics their support networks and past experiences This book will be of interest to counterinsurgency specialists the British Army and military historians and sociologists as well as to serving military forces

Mountbatten, Cold War and Empire, 1945-79 Adrian Smith, 2022-11-17 Mountbatten Cold War and Empire 1945 79 focuses upon Admiral Lord Mountbatten as a commanding if controversial figure in the history of Britain and its empire from Churchill's wartime coalition through to the Labour governments of the 1960s and forms a sequel to Mountbatten Apprentice War Lord Written in three parts focusing on the premierships of Churchill and Attlee Eden Macmillan Douglas Home and Wilson this book examines the debates over Mountbatten's record in Southern Asia in 1943 6 and 1947 8 Additional chapters focus on Mountbatten's position at the heart of the British state and his pivotal role at key moments in the immediate post war era most notably the partition of India the Suez Crisis and the renewal of an ostensibly independent nuclear deterrent This book also considers Mountbatten's relationship with Anthony Eden both during and following the Suez Crisis as well as detailing Mountbatten's achievements as First Sea Lord and Chief of the Defence Staff under Harold Macmillan and his immediate successors Smith acknowledges Mountbatten's centrality to the history of Britain and its empire in the immediate post war era and in doing so presents a fascinating picture of one of the most prominent figures of the 20th century Smith's scrupulous examination of primary sources including those available in the Broadlands Archives results in a thorough examination of a controversial figure by eschewing often baseless speculation about Mountbatten's personal life Smith creates the first comprehensive overview of Admiral Lord Mountbatten's career from 1943 to the mid sixties

Sources in British Political History, 1900-1951 C. Cook, P. Jones, J. Sinclair, Jeffrey Weeks, 2015-12-30 From 1970 to 1977 a major project to uncover source material for students of contemporary British history and politics was undertaken at the British Library of Political and Economic Science Financed by the Social Science Research Council and under the direction of Dr Chris Cook this project has attempted a unique and systematic operation to locate and then to make readily available those archives that provide the indispensable source material for the contemporary historian This volume the fifth in the series provides a guide to the papers of propagandists who were influential in British public life Included in this volume are the papers of such persons as newspaper editors leading economists social reformers socialist thinkers trade unionists industrialists and a variety of theologians and philanthropists In all this volume not only completes the findings of the project but opens up the archive sources of a hitherto neglected area of research into contemporary social and political history

The Duel Giles Hunt, 2008-01-30 The fateful duel of 1809 between Lord Castlereagh and George Canning is one of the great puzzles of 19th century British politics What made these two titans of the political scene close colleagues and both highly effective members of the Cabinet draw arms against each other Canning was Foreign Secretary while Castlereagh was Secretary of State for War and the Colonies what were they thinking on that ominous morning and what was important enough to provoke two Cabinet ministers to such extraordinary behaviour This detailed history of the famous duel is the first to examine fully the careers of these two great men and the political conflicts that brought them to fire shots at each other on Putney Heath Drawing on previously overlooked private papers Giles Hunt traces what happened on that eventful day and its consequences for British politics Castlereagh is traditionally depicted as an old fashioned Tory reactionary Canning as a brilliant but ambitious liberal The Duel analyses how much truth there is in these descriptions and examines the roots of the political and personal rivalry which led these two men to face each other with pistols early in the morning of 21st September 1809 in one of the strangest and most significant duels of history Samurai Swords - A Collector's Guide Clive Sinclair, 2018-01-30 ING_08 Review quote
