Western Europe Margaret Murray, 2023-12-10 In The Witch Cult in Western Europe Margaret Murray presents a provocative examination of the historical underpinnings and cultural manifestations of witchcraft across the continent. Arguing for the existence of a pre-Christian pagan religious structure, Murray employs ethnographical analysis and interdisciplinary methodologies to engage with the intersections of folklore, anthropology, and early modern history. Her literary style is both rigorous and accessible, drawing on a wide array of primary sources to create a compelling narrative that challenges the dominant narratives of witch hunts and societal repression of the era. Margaret Murray, a pioneering British archaeologist and anthropologist, influenced the field of witchcraft studies significantly through her role as a scholar and as a member of the feminist movement. Her comprehensive research into ancient religious practices and rituals was significantly motivated by a desire to uncover and restore women's roles within societal structures often relegated to obscurity. Her background in the study of ancient civilizations and folklore informed her perspective and methodology in crafting this groundbreaking work. This book is highly recommended for readers interested in the historical dynamics of gender, religion, and folklore. Murray's compelling argument for an organized witch cult invites readers to reconsider preconceived notions of witchcraft in Western Europe, making it an essential text for anyone exploring the complexities of cultural history and the evolution of societal norms.

Opera Companies and Houses of Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand Karyl Lynn Zietz, 2024-10-15 Although books have been written about various opera houses throughout the world, no one work has covered more than a relatively small number of the larger, well-known companies and houses, and none have made more than brief mention of the smaller houses. No book has comprehensively listed opera repertoires. Little in sum has been written about any of the smaller companies and houses located in non-English speaking countries. This is the most comprehensive reference book ever written on opera companies and houses in Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand, over 300 from the well-known to the smaller. Each entry includes a history of the opera house or company, the works, title, and composer, and type of productions offered, company staff, world and country premieres, repertory, and practical information on the theater's address, nearby hotel accommodations, and how to order tickets. Most entries conclude with a bibliography.

Queer Festivals Konstantinos Eleftheriadis, 2025-10-01 To what extent is queer anti-identitarian? And how is it experienced by activists at the European level? At queer festivals, activists, artists, and participants come together to build new forms of sociability and practice their ideals through anti-binary and inclusive idioms of gender and sexuality. These ideals are moreover channelled through a series of organisational and cultural practices that aim at the emergence of queer as a collective identity. Through the study of festivals in Amsterdam, Berlin, Rome, Copenhagen, and Oslo, Queer Festivals: Challenging Collective Identities in a Transnational Europe thoughtfully analyses the role of activist practices in the building of collective identities for social movement studies, as well as the role of festivals as significant repertoires of collective action and sites of identitarian explorations in contemporary Europe.

Architectures of Festival in Early Modern Europe J.R.

Mulryne, Krista De Jonge, Pieter Martens, R.L.M. Morris, 2017-10-25 This fourth volume in the European Festival Studies 1450 1700 series breaks with precedent in stemming from a joint conference Venice 2013 between the Society for European Festivals Research and the PALATIUM project supported by the European Science Foundation The volume draws on up to date research by a Europe wide group of academic scholars and museum and gallery curators to provide a unique intellectually stimulating and beautifully illustrated account of temporary architecture created for festivals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries together with permanent architecture pressed into service for festival occasions across major European locations including Italian French Austrian Scottish and German Appealing and vigorous in style the essays look towards classical sources while evoking political and practical circumstances and intellectual concerns from re shaping and re conceptualizing early sixteenth century Rome through providing for the well being and political allegiance of Medici era Florentines and exploring the teasing aesthetics of performance at Versailles to accommodating players and spectators in seventeenth century Paris and at royal and ducal events for the Habsburg French and English crowns The volume is unique in its field in the diversity of its topics and the range of its scholarship and fascinating in its account of the intellectual and political life of Early Modern Europe

Event Religion and European Festival Experience Sára E. Heidl, 2025-11-14 This book contributes to empirical research on festivals and presents a model of event religion for interpreting festival experiences from a religious studies perspective It features a comparison of three Hungarian case studies with different backgrounds a mindfulness festival a Catholic event and a rock metal music festival The author suggests that examining event experiences along the four dimensions of spatiotemporality symbols community and inward experience provides a conceptual framework for understanding contemporary alternative religious beliefs behaviours and experiences She also utilises religionesque as an umbrella term for the various concepts that describe religion related experiences and approaches The book will be of interest to scholars of religion sociology anthropology and others with a focus on events and festivals
