Be Careful What You Wish for Cheryl Faye, 2012-11-13 How do you measure the worth of a woman Or determine the value of a man In this sexy suspenseful novel Cheryl Faye takes on the hot button issues facing men and women as they struggle to build meaningful lasting relationships Jamilah Parsons and Sabrina Richardson are roommates and unlikely friends Jamilah is a voluptuous down to earth graphic artist who knows what she wants a man to love her for herself Gorgeous and model thin glamorous Sabrina is beset by doubts and insecurities She uses her beauty to reel in the kind of man she thinks will give her the good life without having to give anything in return When Sabrina brings home sexy attorney Darius Thornton the stage is set for conflict and drama Jamilah is attracted to Darius but Darius only has eyes for Sabrina who is determined to keep him at arm's length until she has him right where she wants him Then she meets someone even better or so she thinks What she doesn't know is that beneath this new suitor's suave exterior is a man filled with pain ready to lash out at those closest to him Now Sabrina must discover a courage she never knew she had while Jamilah grapples with her own complicated feelings for both Sabrina and Darius Intense provocative and intricate Be Careful What You Wish For introduces complex flesh and blood characters that readers will relate to root for and remember long after the final page

Doom Patterns Maia Gil'Adí, 2024-11-01 In Doom Patterns Maia Gil Ad takes up speculative fiction as a site for theorizing Latinx identity across national and ethnic borders and shows the vital role of historical trauma in its formation Her analysis moves beyond reparative modes of reading to consider how literary representations of violence destruction and pain also elicit pleasurable affective and aesthetic experiences Gil Ad theorizes the paradox of pleasurable violence through the notion of doom patterns narrative devices that include thematic repetition nonlinear narration character fragmentation and unresolved plots Doom patterns return the reader to instances of historical violence and destruction revealing them as excessive and otherworldly processes that require the tropes of speculative fiction Examining novels by established Latinx authors such as Junot Díaz and Cristina García as well as multiethnic writers such as Colson Whitehead and Sesshu Foster

Gil Ad challenges definitions of what constitutes Latinx literature and notions of the speculative by dismantling generic boundaries and entrenched definitions of race ethnicity and nationhood In so doing she allows for a more capacious consideration of the speculative realism history and the role of violence in literature Black Movements Soyica Diggs Colbert,2017-04-28 Black Movements analyzes how artists and activists of recent decades reference earlier freedom movements in order to imagine and produce a more expansive and inclusive democracy The post Jim Crow post apartheid postcolonial era has ushered in a purportedly color blind society and along with it an assault on race based forms of knowledge production and coalition formation Soyica Diggs Colbert argues that in the late twentieth century race went underground and by the twenty first century race no longer functioned as an explicit marker of second class citizenship The subterranean nature of race manifests itself in discussions of the Trayvon Martin shooting that focus on his hoodie an object of clothing that anyone can choose to wear rather than focusing on structural racism in discussions of the epidemic proportions of incarcerated black and brown people that highlight the individual s poor decision making rather than the criminalization of blackness in evaluations of black independence struggles in the Caribbean and Africa that allege these movements have accomplished little more than creating a black ruling class that mirrors the politics of its former white counterpart Black Movements intervenes in these discussions by highlighting the ways in which artists draw from the past to create coherence about blackness in present and future worlds Through an exploration of the way that black movements create circuits connecting people across space and time Black Movements offers important interventions into performance literary diaspora and African American studies Geologic Life Kathryn Yusoff,2024-03-18 Kathryn Yusoff examines the history of geology as a discipline to theorize how race and racialization emerged from Western production of geologic knowledge Feenin' for That Thug Lovin 2 Mz. Biggs,Createspace Independent Pub,2017-04-20 Leaving Soulja was the best decision Imani could have made or so she thought While everything seemed to be looking up for her Soulja was lurking in the shadows waiting for Imani to get too comfortable in her new life before he made his presence known When she least expected it Soulja appeared once again causing even more turmoil in her life Pierce knew he d found what he wanted in a woman when he ran into Imani Not wanting to get his hopes up he decided to take his time with building a relationship with her Unbeknownst to him the man Imani was running from turned out to be someone Pierce quickly gained as an enemy As the saga continues he will learn that his connection with Soulja was deeper than he really knew Trinity loves Tariq more than she loves herself Being pregnant with what she presumes to be his first child she makes a decision to leave until he can learn to respect her Tariq isn t letting Trinity go without a fight He gives her what he believes is enough time to come to her senses before he goes to bring her home only to find her caught up in Imani s drama Quay can t seem to catch a break as he tries bringing his closest friends together to make more money than they could ever imagine When he learns that his friends can t work together his loyalty is questioned and he has to decide who he s rocking with Drama lies secrets and love continues to unfold as Imani continues Feenin For That Thug Lovin Relationships are tested new love is found lives are changed and someone dies Who will make it out on top Hold on tight for the emotional rollercoaster ride you re about to experience with this riveting urban fiction novel AfroSurrealism Rochelle Spencer,2019-12-09 Examining the surrealist novels of several contemporary writers including Edwidge Danticat Tananarive Due Nalo Hopkinson Junot Diaz Helen Oyeyemi and Colson Whitehead AfroSurrealism the first book length exploration of AfroSurreal fiction argues that we have entered a new and exciting era of the black novel one that is more invested than ever before in the cross sections of science technology history folklore and myth Building on traditional surrealist scholarship and black studies criticism the author contends that as technology has become ubiquitous the ways in which writers write has changed writers are producing more surrealist texts to represent the psychological challenges that have arisen during an era of rapid social and technological transitions For black writers this has meant not only a return to Surrealism but also a complete restructuring in the way that both past and present are conceived as technology rather than being a means for demeaning and brutalizing a black labor force has become an empowering means of sharing information Presenting analyses of contemporary AfroSurreal fiction this volume examines the ways in which contemporary writers grapple with the psychology underlying this futuristic technology presenting a cautiously optimistic view of the future together with a hope for better understanding of the past As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural media and literary studies with interests in the contemporary novel Surrealism and black fiction

The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Anthropology of Sound Holger Schulze,2020-12-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Anthropology of Sound presents the key subjects and approaches of anthropological research into sound cultures What are the common characteristics as well as the inconsistencies of living with and around sound in everyday life This question drives research in this interdisciplinary area of sound studies it propels each main chapter of this handbook into a thoroughly different world of listening experiencing receiving sensing dreaming naming desiring and crafting sound This handbook is composed of six sections sonic artifacts sounds and the body habitat and sound sonic desires sounds and machines and overarching sensologies The individual chapters explore exemplary research objects and put them in the context of methodological approaches historical predecessors research practices and contemporary research gaps This volume offers therefore one of the broadest most detailed and instructive overviews on current research in this area of sensory anthropology
