Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

The Rise of the Cult of Rembrandt Alison McQueen, 2003 Rembrandt's life and art had an almost mythic resonance in nineteenth century France with artists critics and collectors alike using his artistic persona both as a benchmark and as justification for their own goals This first in depth study of the traditional critical reception of Rembrandt reveals the preoccupation with his perceived authenticity naturalism and naiveté demonstrating how the artist became an ancestral figure a talisman with whom others aligned themselves to increase the value of their own work And in a concluding chapter the author looks at the play Rembrandt staged in Paris in 1898 whose production and advertising are a testament to the enduring power of the artist's myth Noir Lee Hendrix, 2016-02-09 Due to the technological advances of the nineteenth century an abundance of black drawing media exploded onto the market Charcoal conte crayon and fabricated black chalks and crayons fixatives various papers and many lifting devices gave rise to an unprecedented amount of experimentation Indeed innovation became the rule as artists developed their own unique and often experimental processes The exploration of black media in drawing is inextricably bound up with the exploration of black in prints and this volume presents an integrated study that rises above specialization in one over the other Noir brings together such diverse artists as Francisco de Goya Maxime Lalanne Gustave Courbet Odilon Redon and Georges Seurat and explores their inventive works on paper Sidelineing labels like conservative or avant garde the essays in this book employ all the tools that art history and modern conservation have given us inviting the reader to look more broadly at the artists methods and materials This volume accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from February 9 to May 15 2016 Félix Buhot Félix Hilaire Buhot, 1981
