The Language of the Night Ursula K. Le Guin, 1979 John Brunner Jad Smith, 2013-01-30 Under his own name and numerous pseudonyms John Brunner 1934 1995 was one of the most prolific and influential science fiction authors of the late twentieth century During his exemplary career the British author wrote with a stamina matched by only a few other great science fiction writers and with a literary quality of even fewer importing modernist techniques into his novels and stories and probing every major theme of his generation robotics racism drugs space exploration technological warfare and ecology In this first intensive review of Brunner s life and works Jad Smith carefully demonstrates how Brunner s much neglected early fiction laid the foundation for his classic Stand on Zanzibar and other major works such as The Jagged Orbit The Sheep Look Up and The Shockwave Rider Making extensive use of Brunner s letters columns speeches and interviews published in fanzines Smith approaches Brunner in the context of markets and trends that affected many writers of the time including Brunner s uneasy association with the New Wave of science fiction in the 1960s and 70s This landmark study shows how Brunner s attempts to cross fertilize the American pulp tradition with British scientific romance complicated the distinctions between genre and mainstream fiction and between hard and soft science fiction and helped carve out space for emerging modes such as cyberpunk slipstream and biopunk

Building Imaginary Worlds Mark J.P. Wolf, 2014-03-14 Mark J P Wolf s study of imaginary worlds theorizes world building within and across media including literature comics film radio television board games video games the Internet and more Building Imaginary Worlds departs from prior approaches to imaginary worlds that focused mainly on narrative medium or genre and instead considers imaginary worlds as dynamic entities in and of themselves Wolf argues that imaginary worlds which are often transnarrative transmedial and transauthorial in nature are compelling objects of inquiry for Media Studies Chapters touch on a theoretical analysis of how world building extends beyond storytelling the engagement of the audience and the way worlds are conceptualized and experienced a history of imaginary worlds that follows their development over three millennia from the fictional islands of Homer s Odyssey to the present internarrative theory examining how narratives set in the same world can interact and relate to one another an examination of transmedial growth and adaptation and what happens when worlds make the jump between media an analysis of the transauthorial nature of imaginary worlds the resulting concentric circles of authorship and related topics of canonicity participatory worlds and subcreation s relationship with divine Creation Building Imaginary Worlds also provides the scholar of imaginary worlds with a glossary of terms and a detailed timeline that spans three millennia and more than 1 400 imaginary worlds listing their names creators and the works in which they first appeared

Fellowship of the Stars Terry Carr, 1974 The American Indian and the Problem of History Calvin Martin, 1987 North American Indians have traditionally held conceptions of history time and the universe that are vastly different from those of European civilizations How then can Western historians begin to write accurately and without bias about societies who shunned history and who performed in our Western vision and errand of history only through coercion Here eighteen prominent authors wrestle with the phenomenon that in writing about Indian white relations they are perforce trying to mesh two fundamentally different world views In pieces written expressly for this volume the contributors who include a cross section of historians anthropologists professional writers and native Americans cover such diverse topics as cultural pluralism and ethnocentrism native American dancing and ritual the experiences of native American women and attitudes toward the environment In considering the deep and chronic issues of Indian white relations these controversial essays look anew at Indian cultural ideals and restore them to their proper place in American history

Multispecies Storytelling in Intermedial Practices Ida Bencke, Jørgen Bruhn, 2022-03-08 Multispecies Storytelling in Intermedial Practices is a speculative endeavor asking how we may represent relay and read worlds differently by seeing other species as protagonists in their own rights What other stories are to be invented and told from within those many tongued chatters of multispecies collectives Could such stories teach us how to become human otherwise Often the human is defined as the sole creature who holds language and consequently is capable of articulating representing and reflecting upon the world And yet the world is made and remade by ongoing and many tongued conversations between various organisms reverberating with sound movement gestures hormones and electrical signals Everywhere life is making itself known heard and understood in a wide variety of media and modalities Some of these registers are available to our human senses while some are not Facing a not so distant future catastrophe which in many ways and for many of us is already here it is becoming painstakingly clear that our imaginaries are in dire need of corrections and replacements How do we cultivate and share other kinds of stories and visions of the world that may hold promises of modest yet radical hope If we keep reproducing the same kind of languages the same kinds of scientific gatekeeping the same kinds of stories about our place in nature we remain numb in the face of collapse

Multispecies Storytelling in Intermedial Practices offers steps toward a self critical multispecies philosophy which interrogates and qualifies the broad and seemingly neutral concept of humanity utilized in and around conversations grounded within Western science and academia Artists activists writers and scientists give a myriad of different interpretations of how to tell our worlds using different media and possibly gives hints as to how to change it too Hot Equations Jesse S. Cohn, 2024-04-23 Inspired by the new diversity of science fiction fantasy and horror in the twenty first century Hot Equations Science Fantasy and the Radical Imagination on a Troubled Planet confronts the kinds of literary and political realism that continue to suppress the radical imagination Alluding both to the ongoing climate catastrophe and to Tom Godwin's The Cold Equations that famous touchstone of hard science fiction Hot Equations reads the crises of our post normal moment via works that increasingly subvert genre containment and spill out into the public sphere Drawing on archives and contemporary theory author Jesse S Cohn argues that these imaginative works of science fiction fantasy and horror strike at the very foundations of modernity calling its basic assumptions into question They threaten the modern order with a simultaneously terrible and promising anarchy pointing to ways beyond the present medical ecological and political crises of pandemic climate change and rising global fascism Examining books ranging from well known titles like The Hunger Games and The Caves of Steel to newer works such as Under the Pendulum Sun and The Stone Sky Cohn investigates the ways in which science fiction fantasy and horror address contemporary politics social issues and more The cold equations that established normal life in the modern world may be in shambles Cohn suggests but a New Black Fantastic makes it possible for the radical imagination to glimpse viable possibilities on the other side of crisis Book Review Index, 1985 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 When a Human Gives Birth to a Raven Rafael Rachel Neis, 2023-06-14 This book investigates rabbinic treatises relating to animals humans and other lifeforms Through an original analysis of creaturely generation and species classification by late ancient Palestinian rabbis and other thinkers in the Roman empire Rafael Rachel Neis shows how rabbis blurred the lines between the human and other beings This they did even as they were intent on classifying creatures and delineating the contours of the human Recognizing that life proliferates via multiple mechanisms beyond sexual copulation between two heterosexual male and female individuals of the same species the rabbis produced intricate alternatives This expansive view of generation included humans Likewise in parsing the variety of creatures the rabbis attended to the overlaps and resemblances across seemingly distinct species upsetting in turn unmitigated claims of human distinctiveness Intervening in conversations in animal studies queer theory trans theory and feminist science studies When a Human Gives Birth to a Raven provincializes sacrosanct ideals of reproduction in favor of a broader range of generation kinship and species offering powerful historical alternatives to the paradigms associated with so called traditional ideas Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror ,1991 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language

History as a Translation of the Past Luigi Alonzi,2023-09-21 This volume considers how the act through which historians interpret the past can be understood as one of epistemological and cognitive translation The book convincingly argues that words images and historical and archaeological remains can all be considered as objects deserving the same treatment on the part of historians whose task consists exactly in translating their past meanings into present language It goes on to examine the notion that this act of translation is also an act of synchronization which connects past present and future disrupting and resetting time as well as creating complex temporalities differing from any linear chronology Using a broad deep interpretation of translation History as a Translation of the Past brings together an international cast of scholars working on different periods to show how their respective approaches can help us to better understand and translate the past in the future Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature R. Reginald,Douglas Menville,Mary A. Burgess,2010-09-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature A Checklist 1700 1974 Volume one of Two contains an Author Index Title Index Series Index Awards Index and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index Ursula K. Le Guin, a Primary and Secondary Bibliography Elizabeth Cummins Cogell,1983 The Best of Pamela Sargent Pamela Sargent,1987 Pamela Sargent is one of the most respected contemporary SF writers Ursula LeGuin has praised her writing as extremely realistic humane and well proportioned These 14 short stories written over a span of 13 years explore new ground in the relation between the sexes Genreflecting Diana Tixier Herald,1995 A guide for understanding popular reading tastes organized to define each genre and its subgenres Luna Monthly ,1974
