Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin,2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

Art Crafts for Amateurs Fred Miller,1901

Textile Design Theory in the Making Elaine

Igoe,2021-07-15 Textile design inhabits a liminal space spanning art design and craft This book explores how textile design bridges the decorative and the functional and takes us from handcrafting to industrial manufacture In doing so it distinguishes textiles as a distinctive design discipline against the backdrop of today s emerging design issues With commentaries from a range of international design scholars the book demonstrates how design theory is now being employed in diverse scenarios to encourage innovation beyond the field of design itself Positioning textiles within contemporary design research Textile Design Theory in the Making reveals how the theory and practice of textile design exist in a synergistic creative relationship Drawing on qualitative research methods including auto ethnography and feminist critique the book provides a theoretical underpinning for textile designers working in interdisciplinary scenarios uniting theory and texts from the fields of anthropology philosophy literature and material design

Masking in Pandemic U.S. Urmila Mohan,2022-09-19

This anthropological study explores the beliefs and practices that emerged around masking in the U S during the COVID 19 pandemic Americans responded to this illness as unique subjects navigating the flux of social and corporeal boundaries supporting certain beliefs and acting to shape them as compelling realities Debates over health and safety mandates indicated that responses were fractured with varied subjectivities in play people lived in different worlds and bodies were central in conflicts over breathing masking and social distancing Contrasting approaches to practices marked the limits and possibilities of imaginaries signaling differences and similarities between groups and how actions could be passageways between people and possibilities During a time of uncertainty and loss the efficacious intimacy of bodies and materials embedded beliefs values and emotions of care in mask sewing and usage By exploring these practices the author reflects on how American subjects became relational selves and sustained response able communities helping people protect each other from mutating viruses as well as moving forward in a shifting terrain of intimacy and distance connection and containment      Craft Economies

Susan Luckman,Nicola Thomas,2018-02-22 Craft Economies provides a wide ranging exploration of contemporary craft production situating practices of amateur and professional making within a wider creative economy Contributors address a diverse range of practices sites and forms of making in a wide range of regional and national contexts from floristry to ceramics and from crochet to coding The volume considers the role of digital practices of making and the impact of the maker s movement as part of larger trends around customisation on demand production and the possibilities of 3D printing and digital manufacturing      Sight, Sound and Text in the History of Education Jody Crutchley,Stephen Parker,Siân

Roberts,2020-06-29 This volume contributes to the study of new sonic and visual sources and their intertextual relationship with the documentary as well as traditional understandings of text in the history of education It both presents case studies of research and points to new avenues of further research This volume arose from a joint conference of the History of Education Society UK and the Australian and New Zealand History of Education Society held in 2016 on the theme sight sound and text in the history of education The conference drew together educational and media historians as well as archivists and museum professionals to examine methodological issues and a range of examples of sensory and textual histories The event from which this book arose showed that there is so much more to consider in this area This book was originally published as a special issue of History of Education      Dyslexia-Successful Inclusion in the Secondary School Lindsay Peer,Gavin

Reid,2012-10-12 Increasingly dyslexia is becoming a whole school issue The responsibility for addressing the needs of dyslexic students no longer rests with one individual but is the responsibility of all school staff subject specialists and school management This timely book addresses this need by providing specific guidance to secondary school staff on how to support dyslexic students within different subject areas and within the principles and practices of inclusion
