Female Jungle:

Phantom Ladies Tim Snelson, 2014-11-15 Defying industry logic and gender expectations women started flocking to see horror films in the early 1940s The departure of the young male audience and the surprise success of the film Cat People convinced studios that there was an untapped female audience for horror movies and they adjusted their production and marketing strategies accordingly Phantom Ladies reveals the untold story of how the Hollywood horror film changed dramatically in the early 1940s including both female heroines and female monsters while incorporating elements of women's genres like the gothic mystery Drawing from a wealth of newly unearthed archival material from production records to audience surveys Tim Snelson challenges long held assumptions about gender and horror film viewership Examining a wide range of classic horror movies Snelson offers us a new appreciation of how dynamic this genre could be as it underwent seismic shifts in a matter of months Phantom Ladies therefore not only includes horror films made in the early 1940s but also those produced immediately after the war ended films in which the female monster was replaced by neurotic psychotic or hysterical women who could be cured and domesticated Phantom Ladies is a spine tingling eye opening read about gender and horror and the complex relationship between industry and audiences in the classical Hollywood era The Supergirls Mike Madrid, 2010-06-29 A cultural history of comic book heroines Is their world of fantasy different from our own or an alternative saga of modern American women Film Noir Guide Michael F. Keaney, 2015-05-20 More than 700 films from the classic period of film noir 1940 to 1959 are presented in this exhaustive reference book such films as The Accused Among the Living The Asphalt Jungle Baby Face Nelson Bait The Beat Generation Crossfire Dark Passage I Walk Alone The Las Vegas Story The Naked City Strangers on a Train White Heat and The Window For each film the following information is provided the title release date main performers screenwriter's director's type of noir thematic content a rating based on the five star system and a plot synopsis that does not reveal the ending Wild Cats of the World Luke Hunter, 2015-10-22 Wild Cats of the World provides detailed accounts for all 38 species of wild cat accompanied by magnificent artwork and stunning photography From the rabbit sized Black footed Cat of southern Africa to bear killing Amur tigers of the Russian Far East the 38 members of the Cat Family include some of the world's most fascinating and magnificent species on earth Supremely adapted for the kill all cats are obligate carnivores they survive only by preying upon other animals and they have become one of evolution's most successful predatory lineages of mammals Wild Cats of the World explores the spectacular Cat Family in unprecedented depth Drawing on thousands of scientific papers and direct observations in the field each species is profiled at length covering all aspects of felid behaviour and ecology The book is profusely illustrated with colour plates black and white sketches showing important aspects of cat life and accurate images of every species skull Over 400 spectacular photographs are included many of them showing extremely rare and little known cats published here for the first time Each profile includes an up to date range map and explains the most current science on how cats are classified and related to each other including some very recent surprising discoveries Despite their great evolutionary success the challenges facing felids in the modern world are profound Only one the ubiquitous domestic cat does not require dedicated conservation action to ensure survival for the next century The book also explores the current conservation issues facing wild cats the increasingly perilous status of many species and how they can be saved

REFLECTIONS OF A "B"- MOVIE JUNKIE Jim Driscoll,2008-12-30 Reflections Of A B Movie Junkie is a tribute to the old B Movies of the Saturday Matinees of yesteryear Actually it is more of a homage to them or at least 6 genres of those film types that were so prevalent back in primarily the 40 s and 50 s Their research and discussion however in some instances dates all the way back to the beginning of the talkies of motion picture content and can extend in the other direction into the early 70s These 6 genres include the popular B Western The Comedy Teams The Jungle Adventures Sci Fi Fantasy Horror and the Serial or Chapter Plays so popular with the week end Matinee crowds back then These film types filled up our Saturday afternoons and evenings with exciting adventure curious wonder spine tingling horror and non stop action Often filmed on a shoe string budget and in a limited time frame many of these classics came to be looked upon by many fans as being so truly bad that they were good in a bad sort of way They are thus categorized reviewed and discussed for the most part in a lovingly personal style especially when compared to the film types we are subjected to in today s market They had their place in film history and that time is long since gone But for some of us they have never been equaled which for others may indeed be a good thing

Pirate of the Red Pennant C. P. Willis,2014-07-08 The pirate Bartholomew Roberts is an enigma As a Calvinist Christian he refuses his crew both strong drink and women on his ship Despite his high moral standards however the lovely and seductive Lady Mary Jane Llewellyn with whom he has a love hate relationship is aboard Roberts wears the scarlet cape of a cardinal of the Catholic Church with a large diamond cross blessed by the pope around his neckand yet he conducts Protestant services every Sabbath He confounds all expectations when after attacking the ships of the Royal African Company he routinely sets their black gold slaves free Roberts flies not the black Jolly Roger flag with its skull and crossbones but instead a red pennant upon which are stitched two forms a skeleton and a rover both reaching for a gold chalice Some say it is life and death reaching for a tankard of ale but theyre wrong To Roberts all of creation is a dance between life and death and in the cup the answer awaits those brave enough to chase it For his actions and attitudes both the king and the pope want him dead but Roberts discovered that in death he found the key to life Captive Bodies

Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 1999-04-23 Captive Bodies examines the film industry's fascination with bondage and captivity seeking to revisualize American cinema through the lens of critical discourse on captivity narratives slave narratives and postcolonial critiques of cinematic constructions of whiteness blackness gender and sexuality Captivity is also examined here in relation to both those in front and behind the camera Are we subject to others Are we bound and captive in images Are we captive bodies and captive audiences held hostage to the spectacles of voyeuristic pleasure Are those behind the camera involved in a process not unlike that of the slave system enslaving the body in the image To answer these and other questions Captive Bodies draws upon a wide range of critical methodologies including postcolonial studies feminist film criticism anthropology and phenomenology Evolution of Vulnerability David C. Geary, 2015-07-28 Biologists have known for decades that many traits involved in competition for mates or other resources and that influence mate choice are exaggerated and their expression is influenced by the individual's ability to tolerate a variety of environmental and social stressors Evolution of Vulnerability applies this concept of heightened sensitivity to humans for a host of physical social psychological cognitive and brain traits By reframing the issue entirely renowned evolutionary psychologist David C. Geary demonstrates this principle can be used to identify children adolescents or populations at risk for poor long term outcomes and identify specific traits in each sex and at different points in development that are most easily disrupted by exposure to stressors Evolution of Vulnerability begins by reviewing the expansive literature on traits predicted to show sex specific sensitivity to environmental and social stressors and details the implications for better assessing and understanding the consequences of exposure to these stressors Next the book reviews sexual selection mate competition and choice and the mechanisms involved in the evolution of condition dependent traits and the stressors that can undermine their development and expression such as poor early nutrition and health parasites social stress and exposure to man made toxins Then it reviews condition dependent traits physical behavioral cognitive and brain in birds fish insects and mammals to demonstrate the ubiquity of these traits in nature The focus then turns to humans and covers sex specific vulnerabilities in children and adults for physical traits social behavior psychological wellbeing and brain and cognitive traits The sensitivity of these traits is related to exposure to parasites poor nutrition social maltreatment environmental toxins chemotherapy and Alzheimer's disease among others The book concludes with an implications chapter that outlines how to better assess vulnerabilities in children and adults and how to more fully understand how why and when in development some types of environmental and social stressors are particularly harmful to humans Describes evolved sex differences providing predictions on the traits that will show sex specific vulnerabilities Presents an extensive review of condition dependent traits in non human species greatly expanding existing reviews published in scientific journals and more critically extending these to humans Applies condition dependent traits to humans to identify children adolescents or populations at risk for poor long term outcomes

Joseph Conrad and the Imperial Romance L. Dryden, 1999-11-24 Linda Dryden places Almayer's Folly An Outcast of the Islands Karain and Lord Jim in the context of the nineteenth century imperial romance Through the thwarted dreams and aspirations of his central characters she argues that Conrad exposes the empty promises of such fiction and challenges assumptions about the superiority of European imperialists and the imperial venture itself Using illustrations from and references to many well known novels of Empire Dryden demonstrates how Conrad's Malay fiction alludes to the conventions and stereotypes of popular imperial fiction
