A Decolonial Black Feminist Theory of Reading and Shade Andrea N. Baldwin, 2021-11-04 This book uses a decolonial Black feminist lens to understand the contemporary significance of the practices and politics of indifference in United States higher education It illustrates how higher education institutions are complicit in maintaining dominant social norms that perpetuate difference It weaves together Black feminisms affect and queer theory to demonstrate that the ways in which human bodies are classified and normalized in societal and scientific terms contribute to how the minoritized and marginalized feel White higher education spaces The text espouses a Black Feminist Shade y Theoretics to read the university by considering the historical positioning of the modern university as sites in which the modern body is made and remade through empirically reliable truth claims and how contemporary knowledges and academic disciplinary inheritances bear the fingerprints of racist sexist science even as the academy tries to disavow its inheritance through so called inclusive practices and policies today This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in Black feminism Gender and women's studies Black and ethnic studies sociology decoloniality queer studies and affect theory Feminist

Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non-Ideal Lisa Tessman, 2009-07-30 Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy Theorizing the Non Ideal is a collection of feminist essays that self consciously develop non idealizing approaches to either ethics or social and political philosophy or both Characterizing feminist ethics and social and political philosophy as marked by a tendency to be non idealizing serves to thematize the volume while still allowing the essays to be diverse enough to constitute a representation of current work in the fields of feminist ethics and social and political philosophy Each of the essays either serves as an instance of work that is rooted in actual non ideal conditions and that as such is able to consider any of the many questions relevant to subordinated people or reflects theoretically on the significance of non idealizing as an approach to feminist ethics or social and political philosophy The volume will be of interest to feminist scholars from all disciplines to academics who are ethicists and political philosophers as well as to graduate students

Gender and Sexuality Chris Beasley, 2005-04-19 This accessible introduction to gender and sexuality theory offers a comprehensive overview and critique of the key contemporary literature and debates in feminism sexuality studies and men s studies Chris Beasley s clear and concise introduction combines a wide ranging survey of the major theorists and key concepts in an ever growing and often passionately debated field The book contextualizes a wide range of feminist perspectives including modernist liberal postmodern queer and gender difference feminism and in the realm of sexuality studies covers modernist liberationism social constructionism transgender theorising and queer theory In men s studies Chris Beasley examines areas of debate ranging from gender and masculinity to questions of race ethnicity imperialism and gay masculinities Interconnections between the subfields are highlighted and Beasley considers the implications of body theory for all three Key theorists covered include

Altman Brod Butler Califia Carbado Connell Dowsett Grosz Halberstam Hook Jackson Jagose Nussbaum Rich Seidman Spivak Stoltenberg Weeks Whittle Wolf Wollstonecraft The only book of its kind to draw together all the important strands of gender analysis Gender and Sexuality is a timely and impressive overview that is invaluable to students and academics taking courses on gender and feminist theory sexuality and masculinity Capitalism, Democracy, Socialism: Critical Debates Albenaz Azmanova,James Chamberlain,2022-09-07 This book critically analyzes the current historical conjuncture of neoliberal capitalism with an eye to its emergent alternatives Can democracy and capitalism thrive together Is socialism a viable and a desirable alternative What are the forms of emancipatory action and critical thought that can effectively chart a way forward Focusing on nine critical debates it provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the tensions contradictions and latent emancipatory potential of contemporary global capitalism The specific debates are as follows capitalism s relationship with democracy privatization and governance of the commons the financialization of capitalism technology and the future of work varieties of neoliberal capitalism cosmopolitanism international development and human rights feminist theory and social solidarity sustainability and climate change and theories of capitalist crisis Gender and Peacebuilding Maureen P. Flaherty,Thomas G. Matyók,Sean Byrne,Hamdesa Tusó,2015-10-16 The twenty first century has brought with it a shift from the notion of human security being located in secure national borders to the need to secure the safety freedom and dignity of all Despite efforts to equalize women s status in the world evidenced by changes in many international projects requiring a gender focus women and men experience most of the world in very different ways according to gender Further the reality is that humans who do not all fall neatly into one of these categories male or female often find their lives further challenged In the 1980s Peace and Conflict Studies first began to acknowledge and study the different experiences males and females have during war and peace Since then there have been books about women and war women working at grassroots levels to build peace women and transitional justice women and peace education and women s views of human security All of these works have contributed to the discourse of our changing world This book brings together some of those themes and voices and adds more with the final product being more than the sum of its parts We add to the conversation a book that considers foundational fundamental issues that span from the interpersonal to the global Many of the chapters describe empirical research completed with author and community shared here for the first time Part One is a collection of case studies documenting challenges and responses to peacebuilding by women from various parts of the world Part Two focuses on Peace and Conflict Studies PACS as a discipline examining not only what is but also what should be taught This section critiques today s efforts at teaching Peace and Conflict Studies and provides suggestions of how this important work might be shared in more open and equitable ways Part Three enters territory found even less in the PACS literature In this section our authors confront patriarchy engage in a discussion about the contribution queer theory makes to PACS and tussle with the notion of inclusivity with considerations of both gender and disability It then ends with a discussion about the contribution feminist methodologies make to PACS
