War, Citizenship, Territory Deborah Cowen, Emily Gilbert, 2024-11-01 For all too obvious reasons war empire and military conflict have become extremely hot topics in the academy Given the changing nature of war one of the more promising areas of scholarly investigation has been the development of new theories of war and war s impact on society War Citizenship Territory features 19 chapters that look at the impact of war and militarism on citizenship whether traditional territorially bound national citizenship or transnational citizenship The editors argue that while there has been an explosion of work on citizenship and territory Western academia s avoidance of the immediate effects of war among other things has led them to ignore war which they contend is both pervasive and well nigh permanent

This volume sets forth a new geopolitically based theory of war's transformative role on contemporary forms of citizenship and territoriality and includes empirical chapters that offer global coverage

Gender Relations in Global Perspective Nancy Cook, 2007 Faced with an increasingly diverse student population an expanding field of gender scholarship and an academic emphasis on multidisciplinary social science professors often struggle to address and integrate such a broad array of gender issues in their courses This book addresses that challenge by increasing students understandings of gender relations in multiple social fields across time and space Gender Relations in Global Perspective is truly multidisciplinary It is partially drawn from the work of sociologists but articles written by gender scholars from the disciplines of cultural studies history political science geography and literary theory are also included The readings examine historically persistent cross culturally relevant and empirically grounded concerns such as men's position in the family and women's relationship to work media and the global economy as well as the gendered problems of violence sexuality and reproduction and racism This book presents an engaging range of comparative and cross cultural gender analyses from various world regions including the Middle East South Asia South East Asia Europe the Americas and Africa As the articles are dialogically situated in this text readers will be able to analyse gender similarities and differences around the globe and learn about the diversity of gender experiences across cultures and regions This range of analyses demonstrates how a global perspective enriches feminist analyses Students will quickly learn that to investigate gender dynamics adequately attention must be paid simultaneously to the processes of racialization class colonialism and imperialism and sexuality that interweave with gender to produce complex forms of oppression *Canadian Books in Print.
