Feminism And The New Democracy Resisting The Political:

Third Wave Feminism S. Gillis, G. Howie, R. Munford, 2007-04-17 This revised and expanded edition new in paperback provides a definitive collection on the current period in feminism known by many as the third wave Three sections genealogies and generations locales and locations politics and popular culture interrogate the wave metaphor and through questioning the generational account of feminism indicate possible future trajectories for the feminist movement New to this edition are an interview with Luce Irigaray a foreword by Imelda Whelehan as well as newly commissioned chapters

Feminists Doing Development Marilyn Porter, Ellen R. Judd, 1999 Has feminism transformed development studies What happens to feminist theory and practice within the development industry This book brings together a variety of feminist activists and academics from both North and South engaged in development to answer these questions Each describes her project and its feminist rationale and analyses it through three fundamental challenges the problem of making a feminist agenda work within development agencies including the difficulties of finding funding and the constraints imposed by funders the ethical and methodological issues raised by feminism including the differences between women and the legitimacy of studying the Other the challenge of international feminism looking for new ways to work together for global change without imposing Western feminism on Southern women Including feminist projects from the South in the North the book explores how global feminism actually works in a variety of ways through both activism and academic research It is a fascinating insight into the challenges and rewards of feminist theory in practice As such it is necessary reading for practitioners policy makers activists and academics in gender and development as well as all students and academics of women's studies

Globalization and Social Movements P. Hamel, H. Lustiger-Thaler, J. Pieterse, S. Roseneil, 2001-10-16

An inspiring collection that uses case studies and theoretical reflection to contextualise the linkages between collective action theories social movement practices and the phenomenon of globalisation All of the perspectives presented will force a rethink of the exact meaning of globalisation and the way in which such insights can be used to advance understanding of basic transformations occurring in the diverse world of the twenty first century

Gender, Governance and Islam Deniz Kandiyoti, 2019-08-05 Following a period of rapid political change both globally and in relation to the Middle East and South Asia this collection sets new terms of reference for an analysis of the intersections between global state non state and popular actors and their contradictory effects on the politics of gender The volume charts the shifts in academic discourse and global development practice that shape our understanding of gender both as an object of policy and as a terrain for activism Nine individual case studies systematically explore how struggles for political control and legitimacy determine both the ways in which dominant gender orders are safeguarded and the diverse forms of resistance against them

The Contested Politics of Mobility Vicki Squire, 2010-11-19 Irregular migration has emerged as an issue of intensive political debate and governmental practice over recent years Critically intervening in debates around the governing of irregular migration The Contested Politics of Mobility explores the politics of mobility through what is defined as an analytic of irregularity It brings together authors who address issues of mobility and irregularity from a range of distinct perspectives to focus on the politics of control as well as the politics of migration The volume develops an account of irregularity as a produced ambivalent and contested socio political condition showing how this is activated through wide ranging borderzones that pull between migration and control Covering cases from across contemporary North America and Europe and examining a range of control mechanisms such as biometrics deportation and workplace raiding the volume refuses the term illegal to describe movements of people across borders In so doing it highlights the complexity of relations between different regions and between a politics of migration and a politics control and makes a timely intervention in the intersecting fields of critical citizenship migration and security studies This book will be of interest to students and scholars of politics international relations sociology migration and law

Gender Works Fenella Porter, Ines A. Smyth, Caroline Sweetman, 1999 Covers the challenges of implementing Oxfam's innovative gender policy of promoting gender aware development and emergency work of influencing organisational culture and of working with the international women's movement to promote gender equality

Public Affairs Paul Apostolidis, Juliet A. Williams, 2004-01-14 Collection of essays analyzing political sex scandals and U S political culture from a variety of theoretical angles including feminism cultural studies Marxist critical theory queer theory and critical race theory

Sex Discrimination in Uncertain Times Margaret Thornton, 2010-09-01 This collection of essays arose from a conference held to mark the silver anniversary of the Australian Sex Discrimination Act 1984 The collection has two aims first to honour the contributions of both the spirited individuals who valiantly fought for the enactment of the legislation against the odds and those who championed the new law once it was passed secondly to present a stock take of the Act within the changed socio political environment of the 21st century The contributors present clear eyed appraisals of the legislation in addition to considering new forms of legal regulation such as Equality Act and the significance of a Human Rights Act The introduction of a proactive model which would impose positive duties on organisations is explored as an alternative to the existing individual complaint based model of legislation The contributors also pay attention to the international human rights framework particularly the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People The essays are illuminated by recourse to a rich vein of historical and contemporary literature Regard is also paid to the comparative experience of other jurisdictions particularly the UK and Canada

Pregnant with the Stars Renée Ann Cramer, 2015-10-21 Check out that baby bump Online and print magazines television shows and personal blogs are awash with gossip and speculation about pregnant celebrities What drives our cultural obsession with celebrity baby bumps Pregnant with the Stars examines the American fascination with and judgment of celebrity pregnancy and exposes how our seemingly innocent interest in baby bumps actually reinforces troubling standards about femininity race and class while increasing the surveillance and regulation of all women in our society This book charts how the American understanding of pregnancy has evolved by examining pop culture coverage of the pregnant celebrity body Investigating and comparing the media coverage of pregnant celebrities including Jennifer Garner Angelina Jolie Beyonc Knowles Kristen Bell M I A Jodie Foster and Mila Kunis Ren e Cramer shows us how women are categorized and defined by their pregnancies Their stories provide a paparazzi sized lens through which we can interpret a complex set of social and legal regulations of pregnant women Cramer exposes how cultural ideas like the rockin post baby body are not only unattainable they are a means of social control Combining cultural and legal analysis Pregnant with the Stars uncovers a world where pregnant celebrities are governed and controlled alongside the recent and troubling proliferation of restrictive laws aimed at women in the realm of reproductive justice and freedom Cramer asks each reader and cultural consumer to recognize that the seeing judging and discussion of the baby bump isn t merely frivolous celebrity gossip it is an act of surveillance commodification and control

Body, Migration, Re/constructive Surgeries Gabriele Griffin, Malin Jordal, 2018-10-03 Bringing together an international range of case studies and interviews with individuals who have had genital re construction Body Migration Re constructive Surgeries explores the socio cultural meanings of clitoral re construction following female genital cutting FGC hymen reconstruction trans and intersex bodily interventions and cosmetic surgery Drawing critical attention to how decisions around such surgeries are affected by social economic and regulatory contexts that change over time and across spaces it raises questions such as How are bodies genderized through surgical interventions How do such interventions express cultural context How do women who have experienced female genital cutting respond to opportunities for clitoral reconstruction How do female to male FtM trans people decide on how and where to undertake body modifications What roles do cultural expectations and official regulations play in how people decide to have their bodies modified Suggesting that conventional gender binaries are no longer adequate to understanding the quest for bodily interventions this insightful volume seeks to give a greater voice to those engaged in gender body modification It will appeal to students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Gender Studies Social Studies Sexuality Studies and Cultural Studies

Gender and the Politics of Possibilities Manisha Desai, 2009 Gender and the Politics of Possibilities explores the lesser known side of globalization beyond the effects of national governments and multinational corporations by taking a look at grassroots movements by women that have and continue to shape globalization today Manisha Desai highlights the significant role that women play in cross border trade in Africa in transborder activism on issues that affect women and in cultural change and social justice

Women's Activism in Latin America and the Caribbean Elizabeth Maier, Nathalie Lebon, 2010-05-06 Women s Activism in Latin America and the Caribbean brings together a group of interdisciplinary scholars who analyze and document the diversity vibrancy and effectiveness of women s experiences and organizing in Latin America and the Caribbean during the past four decades Most of the expressions of collective agency are analyzed in this book within the context of the neoliberal model of globalization that has seriously affected most Latin

American and Caribbean women's lives in multiple ways Contributors explore the emergence of the area's feminist movement dictatorships of the 1970s the Central American uprisings the urban grassroots organizing for better living conditions and finally the turn toward public policy and formal political involvement and the alternative globalization movement Geared toward bridging cultural realities this volume represents women's transformations challenges and hopes while considering the analytical tools needed to dissect the realities understand the alternatives and promote gender democracy Radical Philosophy, 1998

Resistance, Space and Political Identities David Featherstone, 2011-06-20 Utilizing research on networked struggles in both the 18th century Atlantic world and our modern day Resistance Space and Political Identities The Making of Counter Global Networks challenges existing understandings of the relations between space politics and resistance to develop an innovative account of networked forms of resistance and political activity Explores counter global struggles in both the past and present including both the 18th century Atlantic world and contemporary forms of resistance Examines the productive geographies of contestation Foregrounds the solidarities and geographies of connection between different place based struggles and argues that such solidarities are essential to produce more plural forms of globalization

Women and Politics in Wartime China Vivienne Xiangwei Guo, 2018-12-07 Focusing on Chinese elite women as a special socio political group this book places the sophisticated networks they formed in the shifting geographical social cultural and political spaces of wartime China where their political engagement knowledge making and network building in support of national resistance and reconstruction kangzhan jianguo unfolded By examining the emergence development integration and transformation of these networks as an unsettled fragmented process a process that lasted through the extended wars and upheavals in China from the 1930s to the 1950s and that moves beyond party ideologies and geopolitical borders the book seeks to explore the dynamics of war politics and gender in the broader context of the Second World War Masculinities in Politics Elektra Paschali, 2014 This study offers a critical analysis of the construction of masculine subjectivities within political youth organizations in contemporary Greece The analysis reveals the interrelations between socio political structures the political culture and masculinities along with a focus on power dynamics that form gender and gender relations within political organizations The theoretical analysis brings together the topics of gender sexuality violence and power The empirical section of the book offers a detailed analysis of the specific situation of political youth organizations in contemporary Greece Series Gender Diskussion Vol 21

Pedagogies of Resistance Margaret Crocco, Petra Munro Hendry, 1999 The stories of six women for whom a career in education serves as leverage to live their lives as agents of change By profiling women as educational activists the book challenges historical interpretations that have cast women as passive in the face of educational change Women's Studies, and Women's Movement in India Since the 1970s Kusum Datta, 2007

Beyond Mothering Earth Sherilyn Macgregor, 2011-11-01 Women's environmental activism is often described in maternalist terms as if motherhood and caring for the environment go hand in hand While feminists celebrate this connection women and all those who care for people and environments are facing increasing burdens and decreasing time for civic engagement In Beyond Mothering Earth MacGregor argues that celebrations of earthcare as women's unique contribution to the search for sustainability often neglect to consider the importance of politics and citizenship in women's lives Drawing on interviews with women who juggle private caring with civic engagement in quality of life concerns she proposes an alternative a project of feminist ecological citizenship that affirms the practice of citizenship as an intrinsically valuable activity while recognizing the foundational aspects of caring labour and natural processes that allow its specificity to flourish Beyond Mothering Earth provides an original and empirically grounded understanding of women's involvement in quality of life activism and an analysis of citizenship that makes an important contribution to contemporary discussions of green politics globalization neoliberalism and democratic justice It will be of value to scholars and activists interested in the politics of environmental sustainability and the shifting meanings of citizenship in an increasingly vulnerable world

Situating Global Resistance Lara Montesinos Coleman, Karen Tucker, 2013-09-13 The book examines some of the ways in which contemporary forms of political dissent are situated within processes of global ordering Grounded in analysis of concrete practices of discipline and dissent in specific contexts it explores the ways in which resistance can be shaped by dominant ways of thinking seeing or enacting politics and by the multiform relations of power at play in the making of global order The contributions written from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds address themes such as the processes through which particular sorts of resisting subjects are produced the politics of knowledge in which resisting practices are embedded the ways in which visual technologies are deployed within and towards oppositional practices and the politics of gender race and class within spaces of contestation The volume thus opens up space for critical reflection and inter disciplinary dialogue on what it means to be a resisting subject and on the interplay between the power and counter power in global order This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations
