Feminist Ethics And The Catholic Moral Tradition:

Feminist Ethics and the Catholic Moral Tradition Charles E. Curran, Margaret A. Farley, Richard A. McCormick, 1996 Three of the most eminent Catholic moral theologians in this country have gathered together in one volume a valuable collection of 25 of the most important articles in the field of feminist ethics and the Catholic moral tradition Feminist Ethics and Natural Law Cristina L. H. Traina, 1999-04-28 Heated debates over such issues as abortion contraception ordination and Church hierarchy suggest that feminist and natural law ethics are diametrically opposed Cristina L H Traina now reexamines both Roman Catholic natural law tradition and Anglo American feminist ethics and reconciles the two positions by showing how some of their aims and assumptions complement one another After carefully scrutinizing Aquinas's moral theology she analyzes trends in both contemporary feminist ethics theological as well as secular and twentieth century Roman Catholic moral theology Although feminist ethics reject many of the methods and conclusions of the scholastic and revisionist natural law schools Traina shows that a truly Thomistic natural law ethic nonetheless provides a much needed holistic foundation for contemporary feminist ethics On the other hand she offers new perspectives on the writings of Josef Fuchs Richard McCormick and Gustavo Gutierrez arguing that their failure to catch the full spirit of Thomas's moral vision is due to inadequate attention to feminist critical methods This highly original book proposes an innovative union of two supposedly antagonistic schools of thought a new feminist natural law that would yield more comprehensive moral analysis than either existing tradition alone This is a provocative book not only for students of moral theology but also for feminists who may object to the very notion of natural law ethics suggesting how each might find insight in an unlikely place Moral Theology of John Paul II Charles E. Curran, 2006-01-01 Provides a systematic analysis of the moral theology that underlies Pope John Paul II moral teachings and its astonishing influence This book focuses on the authoritative statements specifically the fourteen papal encyclicals the pope has written to examine how well the pope has addressed the broad issues and problems in the Church A Gendered African Perspective on Christian Social Ethics Joseph Loïc Mben, S.J., 2021-03-09 Combining Catholic social teaching feminist and African liberation theology and the social sciences Joseph Loïc Mben SJ develops a contextual gendered African Christian social ethic that addresses the oppression and marginalization of working women in Sub Saharan Africa He focuses primarily on African women from working and poor classes living in either urban or rural settings particularly in Cameroon and thus shows the necessity of inflecting Catholic social teaching along the differential of gender Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 Global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction call for a twenty first century Christian response which links cross cultural and interreligious cooperation for change to the Gospel This book demonstrates why just action is necessarily a criterion of authentic Christian theology and gives grounds for Christian hope that change in violent structures is really possible Lisa Sowle Cahill argues that theology and biblical interpretation are already embedded in and indebted to ethical political practices and choices Within this ecumenical study she explores the use of the historical Jesus in constructive theology the merits of Word and Spirit Christologies the importance of liberation and feminist theologies as well as theologies from the global south and also the possibility of qualified moral universalism The book will be of great interest to all students of theology religious ethics and politics and biblical studies Introduction to Catholic Theological Ethic

Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a philosophical hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology The Church in the Modern World Erin Brigham, 2014-12-31 The Church in the Modern World Fifty Years after Gaudium et Spes commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the Second Vatican Council's Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Featuring scholars from the Joan and Ralph Lane Center for Catholic Studies and Social Thought this book offers a future orientated analysis by highlighting contemporary social issues through the lens of Gaudium et Spes In part I authors examine the historical political and social significance of the document Part II presents interdisciplinary perspectives on current social issues in light of Gaudium et Spes and contemporary Catholic social thought The book covers such topics as immigration women in the Church environmental ethics human rights economic justice the Church in Africa and liberation theology Just Love Margaret Farley, 2008-02-15 Winner of the 2008 Grawemeyer Award in Religion This long awaited book by one of American Christianity's foremost ethicists proposes a framework for sexual ethics whereby justice is the criterion for all loving including love that is related to sexual activity and relationships It begins with historical and cross

Marriage Charles E. Curran, Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2009 A collection of the best contemporary essays on the theology and ethics of marriage

Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-10-07 What are contemporary theology s challenges What are its fruitful approaches Who are its promising contributors The contributions to this collection of essays try to find answers to these questions by making references to the Dutch Dominican scholar Edward Schillebeeckx using his theology as a starting point for an up to date investigation and discussion The theological work of Edward Schillebeeckx marks the transition from a pre modern to a modern approach to Christian faith Church and theology Already more than two generations of theologians have been trained in dialogue with his thought Contemporary theology testifies often implicitly to the enduring relevance of many of Schillebeeckx s insights while in other instances it pushes his thinking to its limits in order to deal with the current challenges for faith and society

Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino, Robert J. Rivera, 2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland s theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland s lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women s bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today s world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland s focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland s contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland s development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political. The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland's work is at the forefront of that multi-layered polyvalent intersectional theological work.

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology. The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one. The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular. After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before, during and soon after the Second World War. The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical. Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual. Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ. Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere: classical gatekeepers censoring innovation. But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians. At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience. In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation. Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents. In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism; in Latin America liberation theology; in North America feminism and Black Catholic theology; and in Asia and Africa a deep post-colonial interculturalism. At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally.

Historical Dictionary of Feminism Janet K. Boles, Diane Long Hoeveler, 2004 This Second Edition is an essential resource for librarians, scholars and students. This succinct handbook includes more than 1,000 entries covering the persons, organizations, campaigns and court cases, goals and achievements and current and future directions of the feminist movement, 75 percent of which are new and revised from the first edition. This second edition also features a more internationally focused introduction that provides an overview of the history and development of feminism as a movement and as a philosophy. Rounding out this new edition are an expanded chronology and an updated bibliography that brings attention to many feminist online resources and periodicals and emphasizes global and third wave feminism. Both new developments in the field since the publication of the first edition. Paying tribute to the struggles of the women and men who have worked to change and to improve the living conditions for women in the world, this book promises a comprehensive historical overview for readers of all interest levels.

Facing Ethical Issues Patrick T. McCormick, Russell B. Connors, 2002 Pat McCormick and Russ Connors build on the insights of fundamental Christian ethics and apply them in making concrete judgments about a number of very specific contemporary moral problems relating to the economy war and violence medicine sexuality and the environment Facing Ethical Issues is must reading for anyone wishing to make sense of our increasingly complex world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Compassion Maureen H. O'Connell,2015-02-19 Kinship Across Borders Kristin E. Heyer,2012-10-02 The failure of current immigration policies in the United States has resulted in dire consequences a significant increase in border deaths a proliferation of smuggling networks prolonged family separation inhumane raids a patchwork of local ordinances criminalizing activities of immigrants and those who harbor them and the creation of an underclass none of which are appropriate or just outcomes for those holding Christian commitments Kinship Across Borders analyzes contemporary US immigration in the context of fundamental Christian beliefs about the human person sin family life and global solidarity Kristin Heyer expertly demonstrates how current US immigration policies reflect harmful neoliberal economic priorities and why immigration cannot be reduced to security or legal issues alone Rather she explains that immigration involves a broad array of economic issues trade policies concerns of cultural tolerance and criminal justice and at root an understanding of the human person In Kinship Across Borders Heyer has developed a Christian immigration ethic grounded in scriptural anthropological and social teachings and rooted in the experiences of undocumented migrants that calls society to promote concrete practices and policies reflecting justice and solidarity
