Feminist Narratives And The Sociology Of Religion A Global Philosophy:

Narrative, Identity and Ethics in Postcolonial Kenya Eleanor Tiplady Higgs, 2021-06-03 Can a Christian organization with colonial roots work towards reproductive justice for Kenyan women and resist sexist interpretations of Christianity How does a women s organization in Africa navigate controversial ethical dilemmas while dealing with the pressures of imperialism in international development Based on a case study of the Young Women s Christian Association YWCA in Kenya this book explores the answers to these questions It also introduces a theoretical framework drawn from postcolonial feminist critique narrative identity theory and the work of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians everyday Christian ethics The book evaluates the theory s implications as a cross disciplinary theme in feminist studies of religion and theology Eleanor Tiplady Higgs argues that Kenya YWCA s narratives of its Christian history and constitution sustain a link between its ethical perspective and its identity The ethical insights that emerge from these practices proclaim the relevance of the value of fulfilled lives as prescribed in the New Testament for Christian women s experiences of reproductive injustice Subject

Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic Myriam Renaud, William Schweiker, 2020-11-29 Ratified by the Parliament of the World s Religions in 1993 and expanded in 2018 Towards a Global Ethic An Initial Declaration or the Global Ethic expresses the minimal set of principles shared by people religious or not Though it is a secular document the Global Ethic emerged after months of collaborative interreligious dialogue dedicated to identifying a common ethical framework This volume tests and contests the claim that the Global Ethic s ethical directives can be found in the world s religious spiritual and cultural traditions The book features essays by scholars of religion who grapple with the practical implications of the Global Ethic s directives when applied to issues like women s rights displaced peoples income and wealth inequality India s caste system and more The scholars explore their respective religious traditions ethical response to one or more of these issues and compares them to the ethical response elaborated by the Global Ethic The traditions included are Hinduism Engaged Buddhism Shi i Islam Sunni Islam Confucianism Protestantism Catholicism Judaism Indigenous African Religions and Human Rights To highlight the complexities within traditions most essays are followed by a brief response by an expert in the same tradition Multi Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic is of special interest to advanced students and scholars whose work focuses on the religious traditions listed above on comparative religion religious ethics comparative ethics and common morality Post-Christian Feminisms Dr Kathleen

McPhillips, Professor Lisa Isherwood, 2013-05-28 This book explores the impact and contribution of post theories in the field of Christian feminist theology Post theory is an important and cutting edge discursive field which has revolutionized the production of knowledge in both feminism and theology This book fills a gap by providing a text that can make authoritative statements on the use and status of post theory in feminist theology and secondly it makes an on going contribution to the discourse of Christian feminist theology and its liberation agenda Distinguished and established scholars contribute conclusive essays on the most recent and exciting developments in post theory feminism and theology Handbook of Classical Sociological Theory Seth Abrutyn, Omar Lizardo, 2021-11-01 This is the first handbook focussing on classical social theory It offers extensive discussions of debates arguments and discussions in classical theory and how they have informed contemporary sociological theory The book pushes against the conventional classical theory pedagogy which often focused on single theorists and their contributions and looks at isolating themes capturing the essence of the interest of classical theorists that seem to have relevance to modern research questions and theoretical traditions This book presents new approaches to thinking about theory in relationship to sociological methods Peterson's Graduate Programs in the Interdisciplinary Studies 2011
