

FEMINIST THEORY IN SOCIOLOGY

Feminist theory in sociology focuses on understanding and challenging the social inequalities and injustices that arise from gender bias and patriarchy.

THEORY

- Intersectional feminism believes that gender inequality is interconnected with other social categorizations like race, class, and sexuality.
- Radical feminists believe patriarchy is the root cause of gender inequality and seek to restructure society to eliminate male dominance and gender roles.

THEORY

- Liberal feminists believe in achieving gender equality through political and legal reform, focusing on equal pay, reproductive rights, and discrimination.
- Marxist feminists believe that gender inequality is rooted in the capitalist system and advocate for a classless society to achieve true gender equality.
